T.P. O'Connor Cites the Reception Given to Delegates in Canada to Back His Arguments Against Government's Landlord Policy-No Peace Negotiations Proceeding.

London, Jan. 24.—Replying in the Commons to-day to questions regarding the government's Eastern policy, Lord Cranborne, Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs, said the occupation of a port on the Persian Culf by Russia or any other foreign power would be inconsistent with the maintensailed yesterday for Liverpool. Mr. ance of the status quo, which it was the policy of the government to main-

In regard to Manchuria, said Lord Cranborne, it was the government's ture of his mission there. Asked his policy to maintain the status quo in China, as determined by treaty.

Mr. A. J. Balfour, the government leader, made a comprehensive denial rumors between Briton and Boer of the peace stories. He declared that since the negotiations between Lord South Africa, he said: Kitchener and General Botha no proposals, having in view the termination of the war in South Africa, had been received from anyone professing to have the authority of the Boer leaders to make proposals, and that no discussions looking to peace were now proceeding.

The speaker further asserted that the greatest of all obstacles to a good understanding between the United States and Great Britain was the Irish question, which haunted, and which would continue to haunt, Great Britain Ireland was doomed. The government knew it was beaten all over Ireland on the question of compulsory land purchase, and the present debate marked the commencement of a new epoch in the progress of Ireland.

Mr. Redmond's amendment was rejected by a vote of 237 to 134.

Try, it would nave to be an English-speaking one, or one of its own household, so to speak; at least, it would be most acceptable."

"From what country, then, would Britain be most likely to consider proposals of mediation, if offered?" was asked.

Rossland, B.C., Jan. 24.—The executive of the Rossland Miners' Union makes the following announcement to-day: The negotiations which have been going on for the past week between John H. MacKenzie, manager for the Le Roi mine Company, and the Executive Board of the Rossland Miners' Union were successfully completed this afternoon. This only applies to the Le Roi mines. Negotiations are being carried on with the other mining companies of the camp which have been affected by the strike, but they are not yet completed.

The above despatch is the culmination hinted at in the following, sent out earlier in the day: Members of the union have been informed that the Executive Committee will publish in due time the outcome of the ballot taken yesterday as to the calling off of the strike against the Le Roi mine. A straight majority of votes cast is all that is required to discontinue the strike. It is generally conceded that the affirmative was strongly supported. Union met take this view of the matter, and are looking forward with satisfaction to resuming work.
