resigned at King Street Presbyterian Church, succeeds Miss Raymond. -The Rev. Dr. Briggs, of Toronto, will preach anniversary sermons in the First Methodist Church, morning and evening. The genial doctor is not only a good preacher, but a first-class business man as well, having charge of the Methodist Book Room, Toronto.

-All should hear the Rev. Thomas Wilson give his interesting lecture in St. Andrew's Church Tuesday evening, on "Dr. Paton's Work in the New Hebrides." The story is a thrilling one, giving an account of life for 30 years with South Seat cannibals, and will be illustrated by lime-light views.

-Mr. C. J. Fitzgerald, the well-known starter and horseman, of New York, formerly of this city, has taken an interest in Chester, the bright little son of Thomas W. Tracey, Richmond street, and will shortly place him with a prominent Brooklyn horseman, where he will be educated for a jockey.

-At the final meeting of the Victoria Diamond Jubilee Hospital Company, held in the Board of Trade rooms on Thursday afternoon, it was decided by the directors to pay over to the children's pavilion of the new hospital the funds of the company now on hand, amounting to some $1,600. The Victoria Diamond Jubilee Company will now cease to exist, as their task is done. The members present at the meeting were: Mayor Wilson, Ald. Winnett, C. B. Hunt, P. W. D. Brodrick, Dr. Niven, V. Cronyn, John Bowman and R. W.

The woman and her family, with two other families, eleven people | Never Disappoints in all, have been living in a two-room ed house at Brantford all winter. Annie Smith, a grown-up daughter, was sent to the Salvation Army Rescue Home in London. A boy of 16, a son, was also taken charge of by the Salvation Army. The other unfortunate children were given in the care of the Children's Aid Society.-Toronto News. THE "Y'S" CAKE SALE.

The members of the Young Woman's Christian Association took a novel method of raising some $50, needed to pay off a bill for repairs on their summer outing home at Port Stanley, Summerholm. The repairs and addition cost $300, of which $250 had been raised. The rooms of the association at 296 Dundas street looked like a confectionery establishment yesterday afternoon and evening, when home-made cakes of every variety were on sale. The members proved good salesladies, and at the close of the sale, a neat sum had been SUCCESSFUL CANADIAN INVENT-

The quarterly union meeting of the Woman's Mission Circles of the city Baptist churches was held at the South London church Thursday afternoon. The president, Mrs. David Mills, being absent, the chair was occupied by Mrs. Caleb Wall. After devotional exercises, Mrs. Robertson, of the Adelaide Street circle, read a paper on "The Leper Mission." Mrs. Wells, of the Talbot Street circle, gave an interesting address on "The Indian Mission," and Mrs. Ira Smith spoke on the union meetings of the several circles being asm in the work. Interspersed was prices, will be Porter J. White's conducive of more interest and enthusimusic and a well-rendered duet from the Maitland Street circle. Tea was provided in the basement of the church, at which the husbands brothers and friends of the ladies were made heartily welcome. The evening gathering was an ideal missionary meeting, Pastor Walker in the chair. Devotional exercises were led by Pastor Johnson, of Adelaide Street, and Rev. Ira Smith, of Talbot Street, was the speaker of the evening, his theme being: "The Reflex Good of the Missionary Spirit in Churches." During the evening there was a pretty duet by two of the members of the South Church choir, and a choice solo by Mrs. Brown, of Adelaide Street. Feeling allusions were made to the loss the denomination in Ontario would suffer by the departure of Rev. Ira Smith and his estimable wife, both of whom will be missed at the next union meeting. WORK OF THE "Y'S" FOR MARCH.

The total attendance at the rooms of the Y. W. C. A. for the month of March was 1,533, some of whom visited during the day, some at the lunch hour, and others attended the various classes which are held in the evenings. Meetings were held by the W. C. A., the executive of the Local Council of Women, and by the brethren. The sewing class has been held as usual on Thursday evenings. Mr. S. J. Radcliffe, of the Collegiate Institute, delighted a large audience one evening with a very interesting lecture on "Rudyard Kipling." A talk on "What to Do in Emergencies," was given to members and friends by Miss Kilbourne. Many useful hints were gleaned from this talk. Mr. English, of Hellmuth Ladies' College, favored the association one Saturday evening with a talk on "Ruskin." A sketch of the life of the great author and art —Miss Raymond has resigned her position as organist of St. Matthew's Church. Fred J. Fitzgerald, who has critic was given, and many beautiful extracts were read from "Sesame and Lilies." Two receptions were held. To one the friends and contributors to the work were invited and entertain-During the evening Dr. Phelps ed. During the evening Dr. Phelps presided at the piano; vocal solos were rendered by Miss C. Fraser, Messrs. Brown and Ware, and a reading was given by Miss Boon. Professors Jas. H. Bowman and W. E. Saunders interested a number with their microscopes, revealing some of the wonders and beauties of nature. Later in the and beauties of nature. Later in the month the regular reception was held, at which the Mrs. Sparkman, Hotson and Field assisted. Dr. Bucke has kindly consented to give a talk on "Walt Whitman," on the evening of April 27. The Tuesday evening Bible class, being without a teacher, reorganized as an "I Will Trust" Bible Club, thus falling in line with the Toronto and Brantford associations.

Example Is Better Than Precept. Those sententious proverbs, or old saws, which are used as prefixes to all of the Hood Sarsaparilla advertising in thousands of papers throughout the country, are evidence of a new and original style of display advertising both pleasing and effective. The Hood firm is to be congratulated on so cleverly adapting such wisdom as has filtered down through centuries. Another charming thing about this Hood advertising is the unique type they are using.

ST. JAMES' SITE ABANDONED

Other Properties Recommended for the New Armory.

At a meeting yesterday afternoon of the citizens and legislative joint committee, six sites for the new armory were submitted for consideration, as follows: The O'Callaghan Terrace, at the corner of Dundas and Ridout streets; a site on the north side of Fuliarton street, west of the Western Hotel; the old Mechanics' Institute property on Talbot street; Ald. Douglass' property at the northwest corner of Richmond and Central avenue; a vacant lot on the corner of Wellington and York streets, and on the southwest corner of Dundas and Waterloo

Members present were Mayor Wilson, Ald. McPhillips, Parnell, Winnett, Jolly, Plant and Graham, C. S. Hyman, ex-M.P., Major J. W. Little, and Capt. W. J. Reid.

The matter was referred to a sub-committee composed of ex-Mayor Little, Mr. Hyman, Mayor Wilson, Ald. McPhillips and Parnell. The sub-committee met, and decided to recommend the Fullarton street, the Douglass and the southwest corner of Dundas and Waterloo properties to the city council for approval, when they will be left to the government for choice. The property at the corners of Wellington and York streets may also be included in the recommendation.

The Christian Scientists are trying to secure the St. James' Church site, and the church board of managers have been asked to be relieved of the bond, now that the property has been finally abandoned as the armory site.

AMUSEMENTS

"FAUST" TODAY. The attraction at the Grand this "Faust." An exchange says: "The audience at the Park Opera House "The Monday evening was a large one, and was very appreciative of the merits of 'Faust,' as presented with Porter White as Mephisto, supported by a capable and pleasing company. White, as Mephisto, and Stanley Johns as Valentine, each received curtain calls, while other members of the company were roundly applauded. Faust, as depicted on the modern stage, never fails to have a strange fascination for old and young, and is, indeed, an illustrated sermon, which never fails to strike a responsive chord in the hearts of the masses."

MR GFORSE HEATH The George Heath Dramatic Company will present a list of plays at the Opera House, commencing, Monday evening, for one week. The opening will be a four-act comedy entitled "Our Strategists." This is one of the funniest pieces now before the public, and is one continued laugh from start to finish. Mr. Heath as Jack Rutledge, has ample scope in this piece to demonstrate his ability as an actor and a comedian. He is funny in the extreme, and at all times plays his parts in an intelligent and artistic manner. Anyone who enjoys refined comedy. well acted, by a capable company. should not fail to see this company sometime next week. A change of play will be given every performance, and the company will also present "Caste," "Our Bachelors," "The Russian Serf," and "Tom Pinch,"

FRANK DANIELS COMING. Frank Daniels and his company will be the next comic opera attraction at the theater. They are announced for week after next, and during the engagement will be seen in that fascinating opera, "The Idol's Eye." the company have just returned from the Pacific coast, where they have had a most profitable and cordially received engagement. Daniels, next season, will be seen in a new opera, just completed for him by Victor Herbert, Kirke La Shelle and Fred Rankin. Therefore his coming engagement will be the last chance of seeing him in "The Idol's Eye." To those interested enough to begin to question as to whether they are getting quality or value for their money, we would say, Purchase single packet of "SALADA" Ceyprove its wonderful drawing qualities, and then form your judgment.

Children's Wing.

To the Editor of The Advertiser: May I ask for space to thank those friends whose names I append for so kindly helping us to obtain the $25 for the children's wing, which sum is to be ours as soon as seven similar sums are given or collected? The total now in hand is $107, but perhaps there may be others amongst your readers who will help us to obtain the amount which still stands between us and our goal. Of course, we need much more to complete our good work, but we want that to refund the money on a twenty-five $25 sorely. The donations are as follows: The parents of Ruth Hutchins, $25; Mrs. R. W. Puddicombe, $25; Mrs. Baldwin, $10; Miss Hearding, $2; Mrs. Blinn, $10; a friend, per Mrs. Yarker, $5; a friend of children, $10; another friend, $2; Mrs. R.
