SHAG'S TIGERS SCORE A SHUT-OUT OVER FLINT

Gero Pitched a Four-Hit Game, Making Halligans Easy Picking.

HAMILTON, Aug. 11.-Hamilton won the first game of the series from Flint here today, Hank Gero holding the visitors to four hits and scoring a shut-out while Hamilton touched Main up for seven hits, two of them triples, and three runs. Gero was given good support on the field and the Wint term while Hamilton touched Main up for seven hits, two of them triples, and three runs. Gero was given good support on the field, and the Flint team stood up equally well behind Main.

The teams will play a double-header tomorrow and on Wednesday.

The Hams will play off a postponed game in Brantford on Wednesday. The games scheduled for Battle Creek the last three days of the week have beer transferred here.

Southpaw Holds Saginaw To Two Hits, While London Produces Three Runs Off Shriver - Cameron Is Only Ace Who Hit Schmidt.

Johnny Schmidt demonstrated to the satisfaction of everybody concerned over in the baseball pasture across the river last night that when it comes to beating Saginaw he is the pitching phenom of the Mint League. Stir your memories and hark back to the opening game of the Aces' previous visit to Tecumseh Park. Johnny Schmidt made his debut before London fans on that occasion, and his introduction was memorable to say the least. He had the Aces tied up in knots for eight spasms only to yield two hits in the ninth. He shut them out, though, and last night he duplicated his turn when he let the gasping league leaders down with a pair of blows and allowed nary a run. The Tecumsehs did some gentle work in the scoring line on his behalf, and pro-

Cameron Got Both Hits.

While the loud cheers from Hamilton are subsiding, we will proceed to relate the details of the occurrence. Only one Ace among all of Wetzel's deck was able to make any impression upon Schmidt in a hitting way. The gent in question was Cameron, who is substituting for Lipps in centre field. Cameron introduced the first Saginaw hit in the sixth frame, following Ike Command's error of an easy fly from McDaniel's stick. The blow looked rather dangerous at that particular McDaniel's stick. The blow looked rather dangerous at that particular time, but Schmidt pitched himself out of any difficulty it presented by getting the next two swatsmiths.

Attempted Raily in Ninth.

In the ninth frame, Mr. Cameron stepped up to the plate in the fast falling darkness and opened the inning rather auspiciously from a Saginaw viewpoint by singling to centre. The next two batters vanished, but Weinberg saw first base for the first time by drawing a pass. Then Gleich drove a hard hit fly to Command who retired the side and ended the game by making a nice catch. The two blows by Cameron were the sum total of the safeties made off Schmidt, and Johnny further made it an excellent performance by showing more control than he has yet exhibited. He passed only two batters, which is something of a record for him. Wildness has been his chief obstacle in other games.

Dim Light Favored Speed.

One of the biggest Monday crowds of the season turned out and rooted itself hoarse. The game was full of exciting situations, especially when the commands of the target of the season turned out and rooted itself hoarse. Emery was thrown out.

Wisner Wild, But Effective.

The Tecumsehs had men on bases in every inning but the third, and eleven were left on altogether. Shriver was derricked at the end of the sixth when McDaniel came in to hit for him. Wildness has been his chief obstacle in other games.

of the season turned out and rooted itself hoarse. The game was full of exciting situations, especially when the Tecumps were at bat. The light was none too good and favored speedy pitching. Shriver, the lanky youngster who has been one of Saginaw's mainstays all season, started the game on the mound for Wetzel's team. He only lasted five innings, which was about two innings too long. The Tecumsehs shook him up for three hits in the second, but could not produce a run. In the fourth, Pittenger started with a clean single to centre and Emery clean single to centre and clean single command's Nice Catch.

Stewart will probably save Okrie and Reilly for the games in Saginaw. Big Ed. Weinberg was very peeved when he struck out the first two times up yesterday. The big fellow couldn't solve Schmidt at all. Schmidt should get more work. He had fine control yesterday and look-ed better than at any time this sea-

With six hurlers on the present staff, Stewart will probably have to let somebody go in a day or so.

Cameron, who got the only hits off Schmidt yesterday, was formerly with Brantford. Witry was welcomed back in the game again. He looked better every time out and why Knotty Lee ever let him go is a mystery. Witry is the best waiter in the league. He usually has the count two and three on him before he does anything at the plate.

Schmidt equalled Okrie's record of striking out four times in succession. Schmidt came up in a pinch on three of the four times, but he couldn't hit anything better than a foul.

Mitchell came to bat in the eighth with a piece of burning paper, so he could see the ball it was getting so dark. Umpire Fyfe told him to cut the comedy and get down to business. Wisner then proceeded to nick Mitch in the leg with a fast one.

Schmidt retired the Aces on strikes in the eighth. The lower end of the London batting order is proving more danger-ous than the top these days. In two or three games lately, the lower end has been starting the scoring. London gained half a game on Bay City as a result of yesterday's play-ing. The Wolves won't remain in fifth place long if the Indians keep up their present page. up their present pace Command then came to bat, but in the meantime, "Dad" Stewart had called Fyfe over to examine a ball that was in the game. Fyfe threw the ball out, then went on with his umpiring. Shriver threw a strike over, and Command did not take his bat off his shoulder. "Strike three; you're out," called the umps.
