Chief Justice of Wisconsin Makes Plea At Winnipeg Convention.

ALL NATIONS TO ASK IT

U. S. Senate's Opposition To League Is Purely a Political One.

Winnipeg, Aug. 29 .- A plea for the league of nations as the logical outcome of organization and law in communities and countries was made by Hon. J. B. Winslow, chief justice of Wisconsin, before the Canadian Bar Association yesterday.

"After the Geneva and The Hague conferences, we thought that we had codified international law," he said, but when in August, 1914, the modern Hun overran civilization, we found that all our codes had been swept away at "It will take a complete unity of all the free nations, backing with their combined might the decision of impartial tribunals, to make the world safe from aggression and wars." Characterizing the opposition to the eague at Washington as a purely political one, he declared that even if the league was defeated in the U. S. Senate it would survive, and that the time was not far away when all the nations Damage Will Amount to Near- of the world would demand it

General Will Deliver Addresses to Various Organizations of Veterans.

Toronto, Aug. 29.—Gen. Sir Arthur Currie, inspector-general of military forces in Canada, and commander of Canada's fighting force in the great war from 1917 till the victorious finish, reached this city this morning and was given a warm welcome.

Although Toronto spent the first three days of the week in a tumultuous reception to the Prince of Wales, it has laid itself out for another two days of welcoming enthusiasm for the commander of the Canadian army, to which this city and district contributed about 100,000 men. Sir Arthur was received at the North Toronto station this morning by Mayor Church, Brig.—Gen. Gunn, commanding the district, and other prominent citizens, including Brig.—Gen. Sir Henry M. Pellatt, at whose famous "Castle on the Hill" Sir Arthur will be a guest during his stay here. A children's choir sang welcoming choruses when the distinguished soldier stepped from the train, and a detachment of "Originals," who served with the general in France, formed the guard of honor. The streets were lined with school cadets and cheering citizens.

Tendered Civic Reception.

Later Sir Arthur was driven to the city hall, where a civic reception was given. At 1 o'clock the general addressed a combined gathering of Canadian and Empire Clubs, with many other citizens, at Massey Hall. This afternoon he visited the military hospitals and other institutions. Tonight Gen. Currie will be enter-tained by Toronto military officers. To-morrow he will attend the Canadian National Exhibition and address various organizations of veterans.

Taken to Wrong Depot.

Sir Arthur and his party arrived at the Union station, whereas through some misunderstanding, the reception was all planned at North Toronto station tion.

It had been planned to bring the Canadian commander in at North Toronto because of the much better facilities there for the crowd to see him. A reception at the Union station would have been positively dangerous.

Still another noted soldier was at the station—but he was not with the little reception committee. That one was Sir Sam Hughes, former minister of militia, who came up from Ottawa
