PEARLS

We could not suggest a more pleasing gift for a lady than a string of pearls. They are suitable for all occasions and invariably add distinction whenever worn.

Our selection is very complete. The less expensive strings range from 75c to $5. The famous La Tausca and Richeheu pearls come at $5, $7, $12, $18 and as high as $50.

Our stock of these must be seen to be appreciated.

KIND-HEARTED CITIZEN PAYS FINE OF VETERAN

Wouldn't Like To See His Own Boy Up Against It, He Tells Officers.

Having read a story in The Advertiser on Wednesday evening, telling of one returned soldier going to jail after using his own money to pay the fine of a comrade, a resident of the North End called at the police station and paid the veteran's fine. The man was immediately released from the county jail. The citizen who paid the soldier's fine, imposed for a minor violation of the Ontario temperance act, told the officers that he had "a boy over there and wouldn't like to see him up against it." The kind-hearted citizen is known at the police station, but requested the officers not to divulge his identity.

"RED RIDING-HOOD"
AT GRAND TONIGHT,
TOMORROW AND SAT.

The one biggest event in Canadian theatricals this winter will be F. Stuart-Whyte's fourth annual importation of English pantomime, "Red Riding-Hood," which comes to the Grand Opera House tonight for an engagement of three nights and Saturday matinee.

Mr. Whyte's present company, which was assembled in England last summer, includes some of the foremost pantomime artists of the English stage, who are now on their first visit to Canada, where they will be well remembered by thousands of returned soldiers and others who have been in England during the past several years. Secure your seats at once.

THE WOMEN'S CHORAL CLUB MEETS AT THE LONDON CONSERVATORY

At the fourth meeting of the Women's Wednesday Morning Choral Club, held at the London Conservatory Hall each Wednesday morning, the following officers were elected: Mrs. H. Westland, president; Miss Nettie Jones, secretary; Mrs. H. C. Barrow, treasurer.

The chorus is doing fine work under the leadership of H. J. Brouwer, who has had wide experience as a conductor, and has studied with some noted directors of choral and oratorio work.

The first appearance of this musical organization will take place the first part of next year. Any women desiring to join this club can do so at any time by calling the London Conservatory of Music, or by appearing at the rehearsals each Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

On the big double matinee bill at the Majestic on Saturday afternoon.
