situation is the comparatively small portion of the big suburban district surrounding the city which is affected by the action of a few of the local men.

West of the city, out thru the Township of Etobicoke, and West York, there is lilttle or no trouble of disaffection, and everything points to the fact that the present trouble will be shortlived. It is a will-known fact that, notwithstanding the protestations of the retail men in the city, milk is not alone high in price, but scarce.

A satisfactory feature of the whole situation is the comparatively small musical features were given and much appreciated.
