10 Humberside

The High School League games postponed from Friday were staged yesterday, and the battle for the leadership of the western division of the senior section provided the best battle, as expected.
Oakwood and Humberside, winners of the opening games a week ago, met, and it was a real high-class exhibition of the fall game. They were evenly matched as regards weight, and it developed into a kicking game that was worth watching.
All the points were scored one at a time,
with Humberside turning up victors. 4
to 3.

some pitcher.

Most spitball pitchers are capable of learning the pitching art from other angles. Several of them, having lost their cunning with the wet one, have taken to curving them with fair success. Of course that is a rule that works both ways. Many curve-ball pitchers have found it to their advantage to adopt the spitball.

GET THEIR PRIZES SIXTY-FIVE DAYS AT NEW ORLEANS

Racing From Thanksgiving Day to February and Then on to Hot Springs.

New Orleans, Oct. 22.—The longest open here Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 29. Sixty-five days will be covered, and tho two different racing associations will operate, their days will be linked so as to form a continuous spell of racing from Thanksgiving to Mardi Gras Day, Feb. New Orleans' racing season will run right up to the spring meeting at Hot Springs, and by that time the big spring openings will have been inaugurated in Springs, and by that time the big spring cpenings will have been inaugurated in Kentucky and the east.

The first lap of racing at New Orieans will be conducted by the Jefferson Parish Fair Association at Jefferson Park, which is just outside the city limits of New Orieans, tho in another parish—or county. G. D. Bryan, jr., and J. F. O'Hara, owners of Bowie and many other race courses, are the big guns behind the Jefferson Parks project, and they predict a most successful opening for Jefferson Park.

Officials for both the Jefferson Park and Fair Grounds meetings are, virtually the same. Joseph A. Murphy will be presiding judge, Carter C. Hall steward, E. C. Smith and Jack Campbell associated judges. A. B. Dade starter and Joseph McLellan racing secretary. The Fair Grounds will be opened by the Business Men's Racing Association Jan. I, and will run thirty-five days.

Jefferson Park will be entirely completed within another week, and already reservations for 300 thorobreds have been asked. The track has been pronounced one of the most sensibly built and safest in the country, and will be ready for workouts Nov. 1. It is a mile track, 80 feet wide, well banked and graded and has quarter-mile straightaways on both the back and front stretches.

Oshawa, Oct. 22.—The members of the four teams which composed the Oshawa Baseball League, Cedarvale, Chevrolet, McLaughlin and Piano Works, the officers and a few friends, met together as a fitting climax to the ball season. President Farr called upon Mr. Chas. M. Anderson to present the winning team, the Piano Works, with coat sweaters. Refreshments were served and a pleasant time spent socially. The president announced that the balance left in the treasury would be spent in smokes for the ball players of former leagues who are now playing the game of their lives with the Huns somewhere in France.

The nearest approach to it was made in 1912 at Finghamton, when the local club of the New York State League and the Altany team rushed thru a contest in 42 minutes.

In September, 1904, Atlanta was the scene of another hurry-up contest, when the Crackers and Shreveport pulled off a pastime in 44 minutes.

Back in 1898 San Francisco and Oakland turned the trick in 47 minutes, which then constituted a record, tying the one set up in 1884 by the Dayton and Ironton, Ohio, clubs.

The time record for a double-header of two full games was hung up in 1905, when the Cakland and Los Angeles clubs of the Coast League tor off the first game in 47½ minutes and the secfirst game in 47½ minutes and the second in 51 minutes, the two contests re quiring an hour and 381/2 minutes.
