BORDEN'S AMENDMENT IN LABOR MATTER

Paris, April 14—(By Leon Trepanier)—At the plenary conference dealing with labor matters, Sir Robert Borden proposed an amendment to a motion submitted by G. N. Barnes, the British labor representative at the peace conference, having for its object the preservation to the self-governing dominions of the British empire of the same status and the same rights in respect of the labor convention as have been agreed upon with respect to the league of nations covenant.
This question and others formed the subject of earnest conversation during the progress of the plenary conference between Sir Robert Borden, President Wilson, Premier Clemenceau, and Premier Lloyd George. It was evident that the views put forward by the Canadian prime minister eventually prevailed, and the course of the subject proceedings of this session of the conference was so arranged as to meet the views of the dominion representatives.
The dominions of the British empire under the covenant of the league of nations will be signatories and will have certain voice and representation.

SPRING MEDICINE

Hood's Sarsaparilla Is Needed Now As Never Before.

Because, although the war is over, its work, worry and excitement have undermined your reserve strength.

Because the coughs, colds, grip and maybe severe illness, have broken down your power of resistance.

Because winter's work and close confinement have worn out your stomach and exhausted your blood.

Can you afford the good long rest the doctor advises?

If not, take a course of the famous old medicine—the one that mother used to take—Hood's Sarsaparilla. It's the finest extract of nature's purifying, vitalizing and strength-making roots, herbs, barks and berries, such as physicians prescribe, prepared by skillful pharmacists, in condensed and economical form.

If you want the best spring medicine you'll surely get, Hood's Sarsaparilla. Hood's Pills help the liver.

TENDER GUMS —A WARNING

Beware of gum tenderness that warns of Pyorrhea. Four out of five people over forty have Pyorrhea—many under forty also. Loosening teeth indicate Pyorrhea. Bleeding gums, too. Remember—these inflamed, bleeding gums act as so many doorways for disease germs to enter the system—infected the joints or tonsils—or causing other ailments.

Pyorrhea positively prevents Pyorrhea. It is used in time and used consistently. As it hardens the gums the teeth become firmer.

Brush your teeth with Forhan's. It cleans the teeth scientifically—keeps them white and clean.

If gum shrinkage has already set in, start using Forhan's and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment.

FOR THE GUMS

INCLUDE ALSO THE 14TH FIELD AMBULANCE

The 14th Field Ambulance was in the Second Division, with which the 20th Battalion was connected. The 14th is in England. It is composed chiefly of St. John men, with a St. John commander. Why should it not be brought home with the 20th and given the same reception? The proposed welcome should indeed be wide enough to include every returned soldier as well as those who disembark from the steamer on the day of the reception.

CORN AND OATS.

Chicago, April 14—Wet weather likely to interfere with the crop movement had a bullish effect today on corn. Besides, arrivals this morning were much less plentiful than had been looked for. Announcement that six additional vessels had been assigned to the transportation of foodstuffs to Europe from the United States tended also to strengthen the market. Opening prices, which ranged from 1-2 cent to 11-2 cents higher, with May $1.59 1-4 to $1.59 1-2, and July $1.62 1-2, were followed by a moderate reaction. Apprehension that continued rains meant serious delays to seeding gave independent strength to oats after opening 1-4 to 3-8 cents to 1 cent higher, with July 67 3-4 to 68, the market held firm at near the top of the initial range.

Port and land acceded to the highest prices ever known, pork going above $51 a barrel, and lard above $80 cwt for May delivery. Urgent export demand together with decreasing supplies of hogs, was said to be responsible.

LARGE MAJORITY FOR ACCEPTANCE

London, April 13—(Sunday, British Wireless Service)—The vote of the members on the report of the Sankey commission regarding improved conditions of labor as adopted by the government has been completed and shows a very large majority in favor of acceptance.

The final vote stood:—For acceptance, 499,000; against acceptance, 69,400.

SIMS MADE TRIP TO ENGLAND INCOGNITO

Rushed Abroad When War Seemed Inevitable—Conferred With British Officials as to Naval Plans

How Rear Admiral William S. Sims, of the U. S. navy, accompanied by one aid, proceeded incognito into England two weeks before the United States entered the war against Germany, was tonight on his return from overseas.

In reply to questions, he gave in simple words a straightforward account of his mission, passing with dispassionate comment over many an incident of his adventure that well could be incorporated into the most romantic of war stories.

March 24 or 25, 1917, the Admiral said, while he was president of the Naval War College at Newport, he was ordered to report "without delay" to the Secretary of the Navy at Washington. He was not notified of the nature of the business to be discussed. Upon his arrival there he was received in secret conference with Secretary Daniels and Admiral Benson, chief of naval operations.

Accompanied by One Aid. He was told that it "looked as though we shall go to war," and it was briefly explained that he was to go at once "to see the people on the other side" and reach an understanding as to how the United States best could co-operate with Allied sea forces in operations against Germany. One aid would be allowed to accompany him, he was told, and his identity must not be known until it might be decided to reveal it after his safe arrival abroad.

Commander J. V. Babcock of New Hampton, Iowa, said to Admiral Sims at Newport, was chosen to accompany him, and both officers immediately laid aside their uniforms and donned civilian clothes.

Simultaneously they dropped their names and assumed others "more suitable to the occasion." Admiral Sims said he did not clearly remember what name he bore on his incognito adventure.

"Babcock and I chose, 'Richardson and Robertson,' as near as I can recall," he said. "I can't think of the full names, and I am not at all sure that these are correct. But that's how I seem to remember them."

The Admiral and his aid sailed from New York, March 31, 1917, on the steamship New York, he said. No one on the vessel recognized them, but the admiral and his aid were "not especially disturbed" by that either.

There was no reception committee to meet them at the docks in Liverpool. Admiral Sims said. They went ashore unnoticed, "like anybody else." A special train was waiting in the Liverpool railroad yards, however, with Admiral Hope aboard, representing the British Admiralty. It simply stood there until Admiral Sims and his companion climbed

CONDENSED NEWS

One report says that the losses of the British dominions and colonies for which payments shall be asked from Germany are placed at $5,000,000,000.

Hon. E. N. Rhodes, speaker of the Canadian commons denies a press report of violation of the prohibition regulations. R. A. Pringle, K. C. of Ottawa, has been instructed to institute proceedings against all papers publishing such articles.

Inebriated One (to local professor with reputation for great knowledge)—Some people think they know everything.

After this had been repeated two or three times the professor replied that he had known people who thought they knew everything.

Inebriated One—Well, I can tell you something you don't know! My wife is your washerwoman and I'm wearing one of your shirts!

The Down Trodden English. The British premier is a Welshman, the leader of the House of Commons is a Scotch-Canadian, the leaders of the Liberal and Labor parties are Scotchmen, and the Nationalist and Sinn Fein groups—if they took their seats in the House—would be led by an Irishman and a Spanish-Irishman, respectively. Perhaps England will be the next country to ask for self-determination.—Toronto Globe.
