IS HELPED ALONG.
At the conclusion of the session of the police court today a lad was brought before the magistrate and it was found that he had been sent from Boston by his mother to St. John and was to go to Halifax to his father, but the lad had not sufficient money and could not obtain transportation so went to the police station yesterday for protection. Arrangements were made and the lad resumed his journey on the Halifax train at noon today.

WEDDING IN ENGLAND OF INTEREST HERE

A wedding of much interest to many friends in this city and elsewhere took place in St. John's church, Putney, England, on July 4, when Rev. Canon Remington united in marriage Miss Millie Morrish of Putney to W. F. Randolph Jovet, son of Mrs. E. L. R. Jovet and brother of Mrs. F. W. Daniel of 116 Wentworth street. After the ceremony the bride and groom made a wedding tour of the southern coast of England. Many beautiful and valuable gifts were received, testifying to the popularity of the bride and groom. Mr. Jovet enlisted at the outbreak of the war in St. Stephen, where he was employed in the Bank of British North America. He went overseas with the Princess Pats and was promoted to the rank of corporal. He was a musketry trainer for some time, but reverted to the ranks in order that he might get to France. Three days before the signing of the armistice he received his military commission to go to England to Heith's Military College for an officers' training course, but the cessation of hostilities upset his plans and he was transferred to the Canadian pay office in London. After the demobilization of all troops Mr. and Mrs. Jovet will return to Canada for a short time and they will proceed to Atascadero, California, to make their home. They will receive many hearty congratulations from friends in Canada.

HAVE GOOD OUTING

Townshend Piano Company Annual Picnic at Log Cabin Fishing Club. The staff of the C. H. Townshend Piano Co., Ltd., held their annual picnic on the grounds of the Log Cabin Fishing Club, Loch Lomond. The picnic, numbering twenty-nine, assembled at the store of the firm a little after 1 o'clock on Saturday and three touring cars and one large truck were in readiness to convey the party to the grounds. Upon arrival sports were conducted, including racing, high jumping, hurdle races, ring toss, bean bag, ball boards, etc., for which suitable prizes were awarded. The following were winners: Ladies' races, Miss McGuinn and Miss Thompson, with Miss Bowes and Miss Speight as ties for second; fat men's race, in which C. H. Townshend and W. A. Johnson were the competitors, was won by Mr. Johnson; large ring toss, Mrs. Johnson; small ring toss, Mrs. Burchill; baseball board, Mrs. Ross; bean board, Miss Bowes; high jumping, Lee Saunders; young men's race, Lee Saunders and Sydney Townshend. The most interesting feature of the evening's entertainment was the award of the prizes, very appropriate rewards, particularly the book prizes. However, it may be mentioned that these prizes were won by Mrs. Harper, Mr. Harper and Miss Speight. Later a bounteous supper was served in the evening, followed by ice cream, fruit and soft drinks. A large number of the party took to the boats on the lake for a row. Then a programme of old-fashioned dances was carried out, the programme being brought to a close by the singing of old favorite songs, Miss Sinclair acting as pianist for the evening. The entire staff are of one accord in proclaiming the picnic one of the finest ever attended and are even already looking forward to the next one. The success of the sporting field was due to the efforts of F. E. Townshend and T. E. Burchill.

POLICE COURT

In the police court this morning James Reid was arraigned on suspicion of having stolen goods in his possession. Inspector Merryfield, who made the arrest, told of seeing this man last night about 11.45 in Sydney street, carrying a suit case. He followed him through the old burying ground, and by the actions of the man, the inspector became suspicious. In Carmarthen street he accosted him and asked if he had any booze in the grip, he answered, "There is no booze." On looking inside he found no liquor, but some electrical fixtures. When asked what he intended to do with these, he said he was going to wire his residence at 79 St. Patrick street. The inspector said he looked in the city directory, but found that this was a vacant lot. The case was postponed and the man held for further investigation. Florence Albert was arrested on a warrant in Middleton, N. S., by Detective Biddiscombe on Saturday and brought back to St. John. She was charged this morning with a statutory offence and pleaded guilty. George Albert, her husband, who has been overseas since March 17, 1916, gave evidence. He said that when he went overseas he had four children, but on coming home he found five. He said she asked him to forgive her, that he took her back and she did better for a time, but went away again to Nova Scotia. He again brought her back, but this time he said she used abusive language to him. She still promised to do better, and he again took her back, but he said she left again and went back to Nova Scotia. The case was postponed until other witnesses could be summoned. A case against John Crosby, charged with stealing goods from the livery stable of Edward Hogan, Union street, was resumed. Leo McNamara told of buying harness and paying $8 for it. He said the accused asked $12 for it. The case was postponed and the accused remanded to jail. George Secord was charged with assaulting his wife. He pleaded guilty and said he was under the influence of liquor at the time. He was remanded. Two men, charged with drunkenness, were remanded.

FATHER McMURRAY DEAD

Pastor of St. John Baptist Church Succumbs to Paralysis

Stricken at Cathedral Picnic on Last Tuesday; Life Ends in Infirmary — An Faithful, Devoted Clergyman

In the death of Rev. Francis Joseph McMurray, pastor of St. John the Baptist church, in the St. John Infirmary this morning about four o'clock, there passed from this life one of the most deeply loved and highly respected priests of the diocese, one who had faithfully labored for the Church and his flock for thirty years. Sympathetic to a marked extent, of a very pious and religious nature, sincere and kind in his attention to his people particularly to those in ill health or want, a student devoted to his vocation, Rev. Father McMurray made an ideal priest who will be very much missed not only from his church in Lower Cove but from the diocese as a whole.

Taken ill only on Tuesday last at Torquay while in attendance at the Cathedral Sunday school picnic he did not recover but had been up to the time of his death in a state bordering on unconsciousness, sinking gradually until this morning when he passed from this life. At times of late he had complained of not feeling very well but had kept up with his usual energy in the attention to his parochial duties, taking hardly any recreation, with the result that the strain was too great upon his physical strength.

Father McMurray was a son of the late Terrence and Catherine McMurray of North End and is survived by two brothers, John and Thomas both of this city. In his younger days he was a student in the Christian Brothers' school and also at the academy which was situated in the rear of the Cathedral. He then went to St. Joseph's University, Menamcook, from which he was graduated in 1884. After this he took his theological course at Quebec Seminary and was ordained in 1889. His first station was in the Cathedral where he remained for fourteen years, being rector from 1899 to 1908. He was familiar with the details of this large parish and was devoted to his work, in which he had the goodwill of all his people.

There was much regret when in September, 1908, Father McMurray was transferred to Westbrook, N. B. where he became pastor of St. Gertrude's church, succeeding the late Rev. W. F. Chapman. At St. Gertrude's he continued his untiring efforts in the interest of his parishioners and made it one of the finest church properties in the province. In four years the congregation became the owners of the land on which the church stands and which had been in use by the church for fifty years—one of the most valuable properties in Westbrook. He added a vestry to the church which was a fine addition, did much work in beautifying its interior, and had stained glass memorial windows placed, making St. Gertrude's a particularly attractive and nicely finished church. While there he celebrated his silver jubilee and was the recipient of congratulations from a wide circle.

Four years ago next November he was appointed to St. John the Baptist church, succeeding the late Very Rev. W. F. Chapman, V. G., and though his time there has been comparatively short he has won general esteem and made many improvements about the church and grounds. One of his most recent activities in the interest of his newly formed branch of the Holy Name Society, Father McMurray was a member of the C. M. B. A. and in his younger years had been director of St. Joseph's Y. M. A. While at the Cathedral one of his charges had been the mission at Hampton and Robeay.

The funeral on Wednesday morning will not be attended by many as regret at his passing away is very general. It will be held from the church at 9.30 o'clock old time. On Tuesday evening the body will be taken from the rectory to the church and will lie in state in the sanctuary throughout the night. His Lordship, Bishop LeBlanc will celebrate pontifical high mass of requiem, Rev. Father Carney will preach and there will be a very lively representation of priests from throughout the diocese for the burial ceremonies.

BOARD OF TRADE NOTES.

The board of trade has been advised of the new cartage charges and exceptions which will become effective on the railways Sept. 4 and also of rules regulating transit privileges on grain over the C. P. R., effective Sept. 1.

The board of railway commissioners has dismissed the application of the Dominion Millers' Association and others for revision of rule 9 of general orders 201 and for the restoration of the demurrage toll in effect prior to Aug. 20, 1917. The judgment states that shippers were not unanimous on the application, some wanting the old rates restored and others favoring the existing rate as calculated to release more cars for the movement of the grain crop.

A British organization is asking for information from this and other Canadian cities as to the advantages and concessions that might be offered to British industries.

INLAND REVENUE CASE.

A case against George Cameron, proprietor of a drug store in Charlotte street, charged with not affixing a revenue stamp to a bottle of patent medicine on July 8, 1919, and on July 12 with not affixing a revenue stamp to a bottle of shaving lotion was resumed in the police court today. William Fitzpatrick of the inland revenue department told of purchasing the articles in the store. He also said that the defendant was fined $50 in 1917. The case was postponed until next Monday. George H. V. Belyea appeared for the department.

What Makes a Home?

We Wonder!

All the writers, it seems, are temperamental, idealistic persons, who define home only in the broader, more exalted sense. And so, of course, they have attained immortality! Now we, being practical folk do not expect even a discarded halo for our thoughts but our idea is that the love and affection and companionship — so nearly synonymous with home — though not entirely dependent on externals for their source at least owe in a large measure, their steady growth to an atmosphere made congenial by beautiful and comfortable furnishings.

The result is that we have now assembled a collection of Furniture as thoroughly fine as good materials, able designers and expert craftsmen could make it. It holds a personal appeal to every one who interests himself in the outward and visible signs of a home.

Every piece is priced just as low as an established policy of buying and selling will permit, and that—need we say?—makes a direct appeal to every one who "counts his pennies," not merely for pastime, but for practical economy reasons.
