SEVENTY-FIVE PER CENT GIRLS

is The Proportion in The Newlywed Company

Of the sixty and one-half people who are in the cartoon musical comedy, "The Newlyweds and their Baby" at the Opera House, next week, seventy-five per cent are girls—pretty girls, too, as if as agile dancers and good singers. The one-half member of the company comedian Harold West, the diminutive person who plays Snookums. When a novel of humanity first opens his retangular mouth for a gap, the se roars with laughter, and when in amile satisfaction he remarks, "De baby makes a hit. To those who have laughed over the funny car, this production will be a strike-kiddies' intestine will be held Wednesday at 2.30.

James' Sensitiveness
James and John were discussing sensitive people in general, when James said to John—"I don't know how it is, but I am very sensitive, and I take things to myself that were intended for me." "Oh!" exclaimed John, "I knew a chap who got zebra for the same thing."

MONEY FROM BANK BY FORGED LETTER FROM MANAGER IN WEST

Galt, Sept. 5.—By the simple device of a forged letter of introduction, currency to the amount of approximately $8,500, was secured yesterday by a man calling himself James Ray, of Saskatoon, who presented checks at banks in Galt, Guelph and Berlin.

He produced what purported to be a letter of introduction from the manager of a branch of the bank near Saskatoon, and announced that he wanted to draw $2,500. He presented a check for that amount, and received the money. He then withdrew from the bank and from these parts.

Do You Read Much?

Frequently you hear men and women remark that they do not read very much because their eyes tire quickly. Perhaps you have a similar experience yourself. That's an acknowledgment of eye-strain, for if the eyes are in a normal condition you should be able to read for a long time without even thinking of your eyes. If you cannot do this you should have your eyes examined at once and know just what is the trouble. Come in early any morning and have us make a thorough scientific examination of your eyes. We will tell you just what they need.

RECENT DEATHS

The death of Arnold J. Brown, of St. George (N. B.), occurred at the General Public Hospital on Sunday afternoon last, after an illness of only two weeks. He was nineteen years of age, and had made many friends during the time he had lived in the city. He leaves, besides his father and mother, four brothers and four sisters to mourn their sad loss.

The funeral was held on Tuesday from the home of his father, St. George, services being conducted by the Rev. Mr. Millidge of St. John. The deceased was a member of Court Mistletoe, I. O. F., who attended in a body. Many beautiful floral tributes showed the esteem in which he was held.

The death of Mrs. Ann Maria Melvin, widow of Benjamin F. Melvin, occurred at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Lettie Clark, in Bangor, on Wednesday. She leaves three daughters and three sons, Mrs. L. M. Howard, of Salem Mass.; Mrs. Samuel Rowe and Mrs. Lettie Clark of Bangor; Edward R. Melvin, of Everett, Mass., and Frank and Willis Melvin of Bangor; also two sisters, Mrs. A. P. Eldridge of South Framingham, Mass., and Mrs. Jane Crandle of Perth, N. B.
