STRICT CHANGE IN LIQUOR LAWS

Sec Commission Preparing a Report

10 AWAY WITH HOTEL BAR

After European Fashion In- Business Done Instead of License Fee - Fewer Licenses

(Canadian Press)

The gradual abolition of the bar in hotels, the collection not by license of a fixed amount, but on a percentage basis, and the abolition of the license in the cities and towns of the province, it is believed, is recommended in the report of a commission appointed by Sir J. G. Goheen to consider the liquor situation in Quebec, and which the legislature will open on October 18, will consider. Legislation to provide an interesting struggle of exact nature of the recommendations that the commission will make is not known until its report is issued, but it is taken for granted that the commission will recommend a new system of licensing, and that the present system of license fees, which has been used in construction on the part of the hotels, will be completely abolished. The commission will also consider the question of the abolition of the bar in hotels, and the collection of a fixed amount, but on a percentage basis, and the abolition of the license in the cities and towns of the province, it is believed, is recommended in the report of a commission appointed by Sir J. G. Goheen to consider the liquor situation in Quebec, and which the legislature will open on October 18, will consider.
