A SIGNIFICANT SPEECH

The most significant speech delivered at the present session of the legislature was that of Hon. Mr. Burchill, of which a report is given in this issue of the Times. When Mr. Burchill was elected, the Hazen government claimed that he would support them. In the house, he stated that he would judge them by their acts. Now, after three years, he reviews their record and points out that they have not kept their pledges, that they have been extravagant, and that they have done while in power the things they condemned when in opposition. Item by item Mr. Burchill went over the list, and pointed out where money had been wasted. Such keen and unparagoned criticism, from a member who at the outset was disposed to be friendly to the government if it kept its pledges, must make a deep impression on the minds of the people. The government press cannot brush it aside as the utterance of a violent partisan. Mr. Burchill's words carry the more weight because he has not been a strong party man. His judgment compels him to condemn the government for its failure to keep its pledges, and for its failure to give the province an adequate return for the greatly increased expenditure.

A CITY HALL TEMPEST

An article in this paper last evening, pointing out that over $2,100 in taxes due the city had been wiped out in the last three months by a generous appeals committee, appears to have caused some excitement on Priests' William street. The city chamberlain is reported to have rushed to the defense of the aldermen with much strong language directed against this newspaper. Stripped of picturesque and unnecessary verbiage the chamberlain simply states that each appeal for relief from taxes is carefully looked into and relief is granted only in cases where there is no prospect of payment in the future. The Times repeats that persons have been relieved who are in receipt of a good income, and are quite as able to pay as many who have pinched and struggled and paid their taxes in full. Their cases were referred to the appeals committee and they were relieved. It may fairly be asked why any city official should rush to the defense of the aldermen. Are they unable to speak for themselves? The Times stated quite clearly yesterday that there are deserving cases, where relief from too great a burden of taxes is right and proper. Careful investigation, however, would show that there are also cases where relief should not be granted, yet it is done. If any man is assessed too high the assessment should be changed. The people who pay their taxes can have no sympathy with a system, or with such action by the appeals committee, as permits persons who are able to pay to be relieved of the obligation.

TO GET CHEAP POWER

The address of Mr. George Westinghouse on cheap electrical power developed from water power, which was printed in the Times on Wednesday, is of special interest in connection with projects to provide St. John with cheaper power. Mr. Westinghouse shows that power can easily be transmitted long distances. Thus he says: "As a result of the development of the alternating current and of years of experience in the manufacture of electric transformers and of insulators for supporting electric conductors, power is now successfully transmitted by alternating current over distances of two hundred miles or more. Thus water-power in almost inaccessible places awaits only the coming of engineers and of capital to be made available for industrial purposes."

Again, he says: "Water-powers which otherwise would be unavailable are made useful for supplying power to distant cities, and even a mill located at a water-power will give better service when it uses the electric drive. Electricity applied in a simpler, better way of doing many things with which we are familiar, and it also makes possible new methods and new developments which, without it, would be impossible. With electric power the mill can draw its energy from any stream within a radius of a hundred miles or more; it may be located on high and healthful ground, on the outskirts of an established town or city where labor is plentiful and transportation facilities are the best."

Showing how a comprehensive system

may be adopted, he says of the Southern Power Company: "This is the largest power-transmission system in the South and is among the most extensive and important in the country. It is not a simple transmission line from a single power house to a single mill or city, but an extensive system which receives power from many power plants on different streams in several states. Hence low-water or high-water, on one river, which might temporarily disable certain plants, has but a slight effect on the whole system. The lines of the Southern Power Company extend 150 miles north and south and 20 miles east and west, and connect into a single hydro-electric power system, plants aggregating 100,000 horse-power. It is a magnificent demonstration of what electricity can do to conserve and utilize water-power in developing the great and growing textile and other industries of the South. The Southern Power Company is furnishing light to forty-five cities and towns and supplying current to six street railway systems and to hundreds of motors for various uses."

It will be seen that we in New Brunswick have not yet begun to utilize the sources of cheap power that are available in our streams.

St. John people who desire to vote at the civic elections should be sure that their taxes are paid on or before March 25.

The Times prints a letter today which deals with the opposition to commission government in a manner that cannot but arouse public interest.

While England and the United States are agreeing to an arbitration treaty, Col. Sam Hughes of Ontario is whetting his sword for a descent on Washington.

St. Patrick's Day brings the news that in view of the near approach of home rule the Irish leaders bury the hatchet, and Mr. Redmond says: "The struggle between England and Ireland is ended. All bitterness has left our souls. We want our proper place in the British empire."

Though the time is short, the Liberals of York county have nominated a strong candidate and will put up a great fight in the by-election. It would have been very poor tactics to allow the election to go by default. The Hazen government should be fought at every opportunity. The people of York should add another to the by-election triumphs of the opposition.

In Halifax a plebiscite will be taken on the board of control system. Evidently Halifax has not studied the working out of this system in Montreal, Ottawa and other cities. An alderman is quoted as saying: "Several of the aldermen are making a move towards a campaign of education among the citizens, and believe that the case is fairly put to the people, the proposed change will be defeated." This is exactly what might be expected of "several of the aldermen."

KILLED BY BULL

Elderly Farmer in Ontario Gored by Maddened Animal

Sarnia, Ont., Mar. 17.—(Canadian Press)—John Robbins, an elderly farmer living in Moore Township, was so badly gored by an infuriated bull yesterday afternoon that he died soon afterwards. The animal had broken loose from its stall in the barn and escaped into the yard.

A small boy saw the encounter and called to the old man's son and the latter beat off the bull, but it was too late.

MURDER MYSTERY IS CLEARED

"Dalton and Rice pulled their guns and Dalton shot the door."

"Now, he says to Dr. Post, 'I've got you right. I'm going to give it to you now.'"

"He and Rice jumped on Dr. Post, who was setting there looking frightened and they pulled his clothes off. May Mansell knelt on the floor begging them to let Dr. Post alone and swearing there was nothing wrong."

Begged for His Life

"Dr. Post seemed to know what was coming. He kept looking at Dalton's revolver and saying:—

"Don't give it to me with that. Your fist are good enough."

"When he and Rice got all the doctor's clothes off they backed him up against a wall and Dalton showed his revolver against Dr. Post's body and fired. Dr. Post screamed and Dalton fired again. Then he and Rice put their revolvers back in their pockets and walked out. May Mansell and I ran out and got Dr. Weinmann from Oliver street. By the time he got back with us Dr. Post was lying against the sofa trying to smoke a cigarette. He kept saying over and over again he didn't want to die."

Dr. Post was taken to the New York Hospital and died there a few hours later. Some man who did not give his name telephoned to the hospital and found he was dead. Half an hour after this telephone message Dalton and Rice entered a status game in Eleventh street and playing until there was $400 on the table, only a few dollars of which was their money. They drew their revolvers, held up the keeper of the game, grabbed the money and fled. The police don't know where they are now, but on the basis of Dalton Smith's story, and some corroborating evidence they have received, they are looking for them on the charge of murder.

ALL DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION GOES
IN FIVE MINUTESA Little Diapiesin Now Will Make Your Disordered Stomach
Feel Fine and Healthy

Take your sour, out-of-order stomach—or maybe you call it indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis or catarrh of the stomach; it doesn't matter—take your stomach trouble right with you to your Pharmacist and ask him to open a 5-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin and let your stomach trouble be left and the traces of your former misery.

The direct cause of your trouble is Food Poisoning—food poisoning is the digestive organs are not able to half digest, and you become afflicted with loss of appetite, nervousness and general weakness, vomiting, indigestion, heartburn, griping in bowels, and nervousness of the pit of the stomach, bad taste, constipation, pain in limbs, sleeplessness, belching of gas, biliousness, sick headache, nervousness, dizziness or many other similar symptoms.

If your appetite is feeble and nothing goes down, or you feel sick, or if you feel bloated after eating, or your food lies like a lump of lead on your stomach, you can make up your mind in a minute that all this there is not one cause fermentation of undigested food.

Prove to yourself in five minutes that your stomach is as good as any; that there is nothing really wrong. Stop this fermentation and begin eating what you want without fear of discomfort or misery. Almost instant relief is waiting for you. It is merely a matter of how soon you take a little Diapiesin.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY

The top of the morning to you,
A fine day, praise be to God,
With the sun a beaming and shining
Just like me could heart from the sod.

Och, there be the chimneys on the chapel,
A single Saint Patrick's swate song,
And me eye is all moist in a minute,
And me soul it is carried along.

To the far green hills of old Erin,
Made greener by men's dear hand,
And me eye is all moist in a minute,
But hark! sure, be that the land?

Now on with me new green bonnet,
These shamrocks all fresh for me bosom,
I want go for the 'bye are paria',
And sure it's a man I'll be choosin'.

A man with a heart like me own,
That hates at the sound of Killarney,
Och, home, me poor ears how they ache,
For a bit of the rale Irish lather.
