NOT ENOUGH, SAYS FREDERICTON

Dissatisfied With the Census Figures. Fredericton, N. B., Sept. 1.—The census return giving Fredericton a population of 8,081, are not accepted as accurate here. The voters lists, federal, provincial and civic and the school enrollment, all indicate a larger population than that. Local estimates are little short of ten thousand.

The Fredericton school board, facing over crowding in the high school departments, with the largest enrollment in the history of the school, on Wednesday determined to secure an additional high school teacher, making a total of six.

A total enrollment for the public schools of the city, which will exceed any previous enrollment at the first of a school year, is expected.

The Provincial Normal school opened this morning with an attendance of 229 students. Last year the students numbered 199 on September 1. Seventeen of this year's students have been in attendance in the French department, which opened on August 8th.

Included in this year's classes are forty-three young men, more than three times the number of last year's students. The students are classified as follows:—Class I, 106; Class II, 154; Class III, 52; French Class, 17.

IRISH REPLY ON WAY TO PREMIER

Sent by Courier from Dublin Last Night.

Believed to Have Been Revised Because of the Outbreak in Belfast—More Shooting There.

Dublin, Sept. 1.—The reply of the Irish Republican cabinet to the latest communication of Premier Lloyd George on the British government's peace proposals was dispatched last evening to Lloyd George, who is in Scotland.

The publicity department of the Sinn Fein will await announcement of its receipt before making its contents known or issuing a statement concerning it.

The reply is being taken to Lloyd George by Robert C. Barton, member of the Irish Republican parliament, who has acted as courier for Sinn Fein. In other communications to the premier, it is reported here that the cabinet's reply was redrafted since the outbreak of the rioting in Belfast.

In Belfast. Belfast, Sept. 1.—Soldiers were rushed to the Grove street section of Belfast this morning when several shots were fired in that district. When the troops arrived, however, the gunmen had vanished. This was the first recurrence of the street fighting since yesterday, when six persons were killed and thirty were injured, many seriously.

To date the death toll totals sixteen. Troops are patrolling Springfield Road in the area which causes the most concern, as it is a part of the Falls division, where the fiercest rioting of the last year occurred.

The origin of the trouble here was an attack on Mackie's foundry workers, the police driving off the assailants with rifle fire.

One of the most serious outbreaks of yesterday occurred in the neighborhood of Brown Square, which is close to Old Lodge road. A little before the curfew hour a dwelling in Nelson street with petrol, but the police extinguished the flames. With the arrival of the curfew hour the shooting ceased and the city became quiet.

The carters and motormen issued an ultimatum to the authorities today declaring they would withdraw entirely from the streets unless afforded protection. The tram car drivers also are affected by the decision.

Two members of the drivers' union were killed in the rioting of the last few days and seven were wounded.

MATHEW WOLL. Vice-president of the American Federation of Labor and International president of the Photo-Engravers' Union, who was re-elected by acclamation at the 22nd annual convention held in Toronto. This was the first I. P. E. U. convention to be held in Canada.

NOT SURE THAT ALL ARE SAFE. Later despatches say it is not certain that the nine men who left the Canadian Importer have been saved.

FOREST FIRES NEAR HERE DANGEROUS. There is no improvement in the forest fire situation today at Spruce Lake and in back of South Bay. At the former place the fire is burning quite briskly with heavy smoke and is fanned by a strong southwest wind. The fire near South Bay is around Ferguson Lake, and is also burning vigorously.

STENOGRAPHER SAYS SHE WAS HUGGED BY MAN. Boston, Aug. 31.—Leo Lavine, a member of the stock brokerage firm of Lavine & Smith, was given a private hearing before Judge Murray in the lobby of the Municipal Court yesterday on the charge of having attacked Miss Edith Cartwright, a stenographer, on the afternoon of Aug. 11.

Miss Cartwright testified that at 2.30 on the afternoon of the alleged attack while she was alone in the office with Lavine he attempted to hug and kiss her. She screamed and ran out of the office. The next day she returned the keys of the office.

Special officer John Bresnahan testified that Lavine admitted to him that he put his arm around the girl's waist, but in court Lavine denied making any such statement, and denied in his entirety the charges against him. Judge Murray continued the case.

IN VIRGINIA. Washington, Sept. 1.—Preparatory to possible intervention by the federal government in the West Virginia mine disorders thirteen airplanes were ordered today by Secretary Weeks to proceed from Langley Field to coal fields of that state.

Logan, W. Va., Sept. 1.—Approaches of noon today found thousands of men still gathered around the Logan county line at Crooked Creek firing which started yesterday morning continued but reports from other border sections were that quiet prevailed.

There was no indication, however, that any of the armed bands had dispersed and border patrols of deputy sheriffs, state police and volunteer peace officers kept close watch.

EAST LYNNE TOMORROW AT THE IMPERIAL

Imperial Theatre announces for its week-end programme, tomorrow and Saturday a modernized version of the world famous classic love story, "East Lynne." This is the screen adaptation of Mrs. Henry Wood's story that is mostly seen on the American stage and which has now been elaborated into a sumptuous seven-reel photoplay. Millions have read "East Lynne" which has been translated into all civilized languages and for emotional power and intense love interest it still heads the list of fiction old or new. The Imperial expects there will be a great rush of people to see "East Lynne" and during the two days engagement the hours for pre-arranged matinees will be as usual, and there will be no increase in the price of admission in spite of the fact that the picture is a notably high class and expensive one.

A RETURN ENGAGEMENT OF MICKEY TONIGHT. Theatre goes in this city will learn with pleasure that "Mickey," one of the most brilliant features ever released, will be shown at the Unique today, Friday and Saturday. Although shown before, it is now playing again to capacity houses every where. See it at the Unique.

GREAT PROSPERITY FOR APPLE BELT. (Canadian Press Despatch.) Halifax, Aug. 31.—Over 3,000,000 barrels of apples, probably the greatest yield in its history, will come from the Annapolis Valley this year, F. J. G. Comeau, freight traffic manager of the Dominion Atlantic Railway, said today. The great yield, together with the backward prospects in many other sections of the continent, stated Mr. Comeau, have resulted in inquiries reaching the Valley every province of the Dominion and nearly every state of the United States.

More apple buyers are in the apple districts of Nova Scotia than ever before. Indications are that 1,000 cars of apples will be shipped to the United States.
