& Co., Ltd., of Toronto, is in the city on a husiness visit and is registered at the Driard. The firm in which Mr. Doran is interested are well known throughout the intry als the manufacturers of the Picca dilly brand clothing, employing, all told, about one hundred hands, and represented "on the road" by fourteen travellers. They were among the victims of the big fire Toronto some time ago, but this merely stimulated them to renewed and greater activity, as is usually the case when large conflagrations occur in the metropolitan centres, and it is their intention to extend their establishment by the erection of an eight story factory. Mr. Doran sees bright trade possibilities throughout this province, while in Manitoba and the Northwest the growth is wonderful. Winnipeg, he says, is going ahead at an incredibl has descended the At rate, and promises to become one of the great commercial entrepots, if it is not one my methods have h copied by you mort one better yet.
