

LE MADAWASKA

THERESA SHEEHAN.
All the thrills of an actual shipwreck are felt by the audience fortunate enough to hear the individual account of the sinking of the Lusitania given by Miss Theresa Sheehan, who appears with the Theresa Sheehan Concert Company on the opening day of the Community Chautauqua. In addition Miss Sheehan gives a dramatic account of the famous performance of the United States Marines at Chateaud-Thierry, which is as thrilling as the work of the Marines themselves. This is but part of the excellent program of music and recitation presented by this company of talented artists.

MORE THAN THE CITY OFFERS!

A glance at the complete program of the Community Chautauqua causes the reader to wonder at the array of high class talent offered at so reasonable a price. In a large city a single lecture by such men as Harwood Spicer, Montavilla Flowers or Strickland Gilliland cannot be heard at less than the $2 Broadway scale of prices. Yet these three great speakers and a host of other talented artists are appearing for five days at the price of $2.75, and if one is fortunate enough to secure one of the first five hundred tickets, $2.20.

Louis W. Fairfield, Congressman from Indiana, who appears on the fourth day of the Community Chautauqua, has earned the nickname of "Honest Abe," for despite the fact that he is a statesman and college president he preserves that simple democracy that was the chief characteristic of Lincoln. Mr. Fairfield gives an inspiring lecture entitled "Our Heritage—Its Preservation," in which present day problems are discussed in a broad minded and inspiring manner.

Thomas Brooks Fletcher, noted newspaper man, best known as the editor of the Marion (O.) Tribune, who appears on the third evening of the Community Chautauqua to give one of his dramatic lectures, which have been delivered before the great business men of the country's biggest business men. His titles to his lectures, such as "The Martyrdom of Jesus," "Tragedies of the Unprepared," "The Modern Judas," give an idea of the dramatic nature of his lectures, which, together with his stirring power as an orator, place him in the front rank of platform lecturers today.
