Mrs. Cameron's tea on Saturday of last week

a great crush round the tea table. Tea was served in the drawing room and the table was very prettily decorated. Miss Cameron who assisted her mother in receiving, looked extremely well in a very dainty andifashionable frock.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Collard had a teaparty, which was, well attended in spite of the rain. There were plenty of new faces, especially as regards the men present, and the whole affair was enceedingly pleasant. Tos was in the dining room and most people discarded their cloaks and mackintoshes in the hall, so that it did not at all present the dismal appearance of a wet-day function.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Montgomery Moore gave a large dinner for General and Mrs. Gascoigne and their neice Miss Smith, who were guests at Bellevue uring their short stay here. General Gassoigne, socially, was quite charming, though officially he seems to have been otherwise. The guests at dinner consisted chiefly of military people but afterwards a large reception was given at which almost overyone was present. Quite the most beautiful dress in the room was worn by Mrs. Huddleston, and the exquisite lace which trimmed it came in for no small share of admiration. Miss Wickwire was also charmingly dressed, and a lovely gown was worn by Mrs. Anstruther-Duncan the effect of which was much heightened by her lovely diamonds.

about, and the usual consumption of ices and clare cup which takes place at a party where conversation is the chief amusement. Mrs. Montgomery Moore wore a very handsome dress, and was as usual an energe ic bostess. It was quite late when the affair was over.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Fuller gave an at home at Hillside Hall, where she is at present residing, and enjoying a rest from the cares of house-keeping. It was a charming tea and most beautifully managed, so well done in every way that it was difficult to believe it was not given in a private house. There were a good many people present, but no crowd, and it was altogether a delightful

On Friday afternoon Mrs. Montgomery Moore was at home at Bellevue as usual from half-past four till six, and had the usual crowd of visitors.

The chrysauthemum show at the Church of England Institute was a great success during the week and one of the prettiest sights imaginable. The large single-flower plants alone were worthy of a visit, and they were exquisite both in size and color. One pretty and new variety, with extremely fine petals resembling fringe, was much admired and as most reasonable prices were asked pots soft freely. The arrangement of the flowers was very freely. The arrangement of the flowers was very pretty, the walls being lined with masses of chrypretty, the walls being lined with masses of chrysanthemums and tall palms, railed off by low barriers of bright scalet in the manner of a Japanese garden, in imitation of which the centre of the room was filled with low foliage planta and flowers. The bazaar in connection with the show did well, the fancy stall in charge of Mrs. Bullock, Mrs.

Bright-faced, happy, rollicking, 1 ayful babies, thousands of them all over the broad land, have in their bodies the seeds of serious diseases, and while they laugh and play are facing death. The mother, in the majority of cases, is unconsciously responsible for this sad state of affairs. Where the mother, during the anxious period, suffers from weakness and disease of the distinctly feminine organism, it is ussless to expect a sound and healthy baby. Every woman may be strong in a womanly way, and have robust, happy children.

A wonderful medicine for women is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. If is the discovery of an eminent and skillful specialist, Dr. R. V. Pierce, for thirty years chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. V. It is a medicine that acts directly and only on those delicate and irroportanorgans that bear the burdens of maternity. It makes them strong, healthy and elastic. It allays inflammation, heals ulceration, stops debilitating drains and soothes pain. It gives rest and tone to the tired nerves. If this for wifehood and motherhood. It does away with the discomforts of the expectant period and makes baby's coming easy and comparatively painless. Honest druggists will not offer an inferior substitute for the sake of a little extra profit.

"It auffered for years from displacement, debilitating drains, infammation and weak back."

"I suffered for years from displacement, debili-tating drains, inflammation and weak back," writes Mrs. Besse McFherroson, of $8 80. Main St., Providence, R. I. The stall for cut flowers was prettily decorated in bright scarlet and green, and realized a very large sum, the young ladies in charge of it proving most successful saleswomens.

Quite the prettlest table of all was the candy stall, which was reality a study, in white and helio trope. Pale heliotrope festooned the table and was caught up with bunches of dark violets. A large smp os the centre of the table had a most exquisite shade of different tenes of heliotrope, and even the mantel piece behind the table was carried out with the same delicate colors.

The sweets were all good and well made, and were as pretty to look up as they were good to estalt was a most fashionable place, both in the atternoon and in the evening, when it was perhaps a shade more frivolcus.

Mrs. Bridson, youngest daughter of Mr. T. E Kenny, will shortly arrive from England to spend the winter with her father and mother at Thornvale.

Colonel and Mrs. Leach have been having a reat many small dimer parties for their intimate friends here, as well as attending similar entertainments at which they were the principal guests. They will not leave for some time yet, however, as they are waiting for the return trip of the Parisian. Captain Thoronton, who has met so tragic an end in Bermuda, bad many friends here, where he was for some time stationed. He was much liked in Halifax, and his sad death was a great surprise to all who knew him. It is to be hoped that it may yet be proved that his death was due to accident and not suicide.

The magnificent gift of two thousand dollars was presented to the congregational church recently by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bernard, of New York city. Such generosity is seldom experienced here, and the church officials and pastor, Rev. C. G. McCully reloice greatly as this princely gift will free their church from all obligations.

Miss Catherine Copeland has arrived home from Boston to spend Thanksgiving, and is most cordially welcemed home by her young friends.

Miss Winter McAllister gave a very delightful whist party at her pleasant home in Milltown one evening last week.

A Thanksgiving supper is to be given in the methodist church tomorrow evening. It is to be a novelty in teas as the waiters are to be prominent gentiemen of the church, and are to appear in caps and aprons. The floral decorations are to be chrysanthemums, and it is said the menu is a lengthy one with all the goodies of the season.

The young women's fulled of Christ church were most pleasantly entertained at the rectory by Rev. O. S. and Mrs. Newnham on Monday evening. The evening was devoted to music.

There are a number of Thanksgiving dinner parties arranged for tomorrow both in St. Stephen and Calais. The day is to be kept as a holiday, and probably will be greatly enjoyed.

SACEVILLE.

Nov. 24.—A recital by the advanced pupils was given last Friday evening in Beethoven hall. The audience was not large on account of the stow falling but it was an appreciative one. A stranger present said the music was an indescribable treat to him, and it certainly was a most flattering exhibition for both pupils and teachers. Mr. Wootton's plane pupils taking part were; Mr. Crossman, Miss Bonerwood, Miss Newman, Miss Cole. The vocal music was given by Miss Wright, Miss Dawson and Miss England, the violin and choution departments were represented by Miss Benedict and Miss and muss negland, the violin and elocution departments were represented by Miss Benedict and Miss Lizzle Odgen. As the performance closed at an early hour, Dr. Borden kindly invited everyone to stay a little longer for the pleasure of conversation. The invitation was accepted promptly but by none so eagerly as the boys whose numbers were largely augmented by their football visitors, the students of Acadia.
