

FOUR WELL KNOWN MEN QUITE ILL

All Are Residents of Chatham and Newcastle—Hon. M. Tweedie, Hon. Mr. Morrissey, Bishop Barry and Canon Forsythe on Sick List.

Chatham, May 11.—Several prominent residents of Northumberland are ill. Hon. L. J. Tweedie, of Chatham, HON. JOHN MORRISSEY. Is in the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal, for treatment. Bishop Barry, who is ill with pneumonia is improving. Rev. Canon Forsythe, of Chatham, is still quite ill. He has not officiated.

HON. L. J. TWEEDIE. Is in the Anglican church for weeks. Hon. John Morrissey, of Newcastle, is seriously ill at Hotel Dieu here. He recently had a severe attack of influenza.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Asa Miller.
Southampton, May 11.—The death occurred on May 1 of Mrs. Asa Miller. Mrs. Miller had been ill for some time with heart and lung trouble, but was thought to be recovering and death was rather sudden. The funeral was held in the Reformed Baptist church, Rev. L. R. Foster conducted the services, assisted by Rev. A. P. Brown. Mrs. Miller leaves to mourn their loss a loving husband and two children, Ellis and Margaret.

John McKnight.
A funeral, May 11.—The death of John McKnight of Lower Millstream took place at his home on Thursday morning, May 10th, at the age of seventy-seven years. Death came with startling suddenness, deceased having been in his usual health, and had no warning of his approaching demise. Arising early in the morning, as was his custom, he went to the barn to attend to the stock, and on returning to the house proceeded to kindle a fire in the kitchen range, when his wife, from another room, heard an unusual noise as of deep breathing, and pushing to the kitchen found her husband beyond all aid and breathing his last. A physician was hurriedly summoned, which, however, was of no avail as he had passed away some time before.

The late Mr. McKnight, who had passed his allotted time by seven years, was a respected and prosperous farmer who formerly resided at Martown, but had been a resident of Lower Millstream for a considerable number of years. He is survived by his wife, who, before marriage, was Miss Eliza Rouse of Martown, Kings county, also two daughters, Miss Edna McKnight, who is a teacher in Saskatchewan, and Miss Florence, at home, and two sons, Samson, of San Francisco, and Charles Duncan of Medway, Mass. The funeral will take place from his late residence on Saturday.

Miss Evalena Ludlow.
Campobello, May 11.—Miss Evalena Ludlow, aged 66 years, died recently after a short illness. She was the daughter of Capt. Nelson and Mrs. Sarah Ludlow. A brother, George, of Massachusetts, survives. Miss Ludlow was a very consistent member of the Baptist church, of the Missionary Society, of the Red Cross Society, and as a nurse gave excellent care of the sick.

Mrs. William Short.
Mrs. Wm. Short died suddenly in St. Andrews, on May 7, in the 73rd year of her age. The funeral took place at her late residence on Saturday.

face on May 8, Rev. Geo. H. Elliott of All Saints church officiating. Mrs. Short is survived by three sons, Henry, of Madras Junction; Wilfred, of St. George, and Walter, at home; and by two daughters, Mrs. Douglas, of St. George, and Mrs. Walter K. Whelpley, of Atholmer, E. C.

Mrs. John Morton.
Harcourt, May 11.—The death of Mrs. John Morton occurred on May 10 of pneumonia at her home in Pine Ridge. She leaves two sons and five daughters. The sons are Alexander and Edgar at home and the daughters are Mrs. Herbert Berns, of Emerson; Mrs. John Atkinson, of Trenton, N.S.; Mrs. Havelock MacMichael, of Harcourt; Mrs. F. R. Moskina, of Everett, Mass., and Mrs. George H. Lawson, of Smith's Corner, besides many relatives and friends.

The family will feel their loss very keenly, as she was truly a devoted mother in the home and gave them a supreme example of a mother's love. They, as well as the community will miss the heartfelt sympathy, the Christian sincerity and trust, the hope and faith, the beautiful example of the Master's constancy and devotion to all that was pure and good and true.

Thomas Corr.
Friends learned with regret yesterday of the death of Thomas Corr, which occurred after a lingering illness. He was about 70 years of age and for years was a teamster in the city. Mr. Corr was the last of his family. The late Michael Corr of the city was his brother. The funeral will be held from 121 Brussels street this morning to the Cathedral.

Reta Cosman.
The death of Reta Cosman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cosman, 155 Rotheray avenue, occurred yesterday morning after an illness of but four days with pleuro-pneumonia. She was five years old. Besides her parents, she is survived by one sister, Doris, at home.

Why Pay the Price of "Made to Measure" Clothes Without Getting Them?

YOU don't have to wear "ready-made clothes"—we have convinced thousands of men that $15 will buy a suit or overcoat made to measure of British woven fabric and built exactly to your taste and your body measures.

It is entirely unnecessary for any clothes buyer to accept a substitute for custom tailor service—if you are buying "ready-made clothes," you are not saving one penny under the cost of a genuine made to measure suit or overcoat.

Made To Your Measure

IN accepting a "stock size" ready-made, you are sacrificing made to measure fit, style and individuality, without gaining a copper to pay you for the sacrifice. Our enormous Dominion-Wide Tailoring Business answers the question—we tailor a hundred suits to the average tailor's one, huge output at a small retail margin—that really tells the story of those remarkable suits and overcoats at $15 Made to Measure.
