MC 2033

FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

ROTHESAY

Rothesay, May 16—A very pleasant evening was spent at Netherwood on Saturday when the "first collegiate" girls gave a surprise party to the younger classes. The programme included some clever pantomimes, after which ice cream and cake were served.

The base ball match, which was to have been played on Saturday afternoon between Netherwood and the Rothesay junior teams, had to be postponed on account of unfavorable weather.

Mr. and Mrs. George McKean drove out from the city on Thursday and put up at the Kennedy House, paying a visit to their suburban cottage in the park.

Mr. and Mrs. James F. Robertson expect to leave England for home today.

Mrs. Frank Roberts and Master Ray spent Tuesday in Rothesay, guests of the Misses Thomson.

Mr. Edwin Peters, of St. John, was here on Thursday in his new automobile, which was much admired.

Rothesay, May 18—The date for launching the new steam ferry boat at Clifton has been fixed for Tuesday afternoon, June 4, and the people of Clifton propose to celebrate the event which will revive memories of former happy and prosperous days of shipbuilding by inviting all their friends from the city and surrounding districts to be present and join in making the day as enjoyable as possible. It is proposed to provide cheap transportation from Rothesay to Clifton by a chartered steamer for the accommodation of those who wish to attend from Rothesay and the city. The tide for the launching will serve about the middle of the afternoon and connection can be made with the train that leaves St. John at 1.10 p. m.

A committee of ladies and gentlemen in Clifton will see that a substantial supper is provided for visitors and that there is an entertainment of some sort in the evening and probably dancing for those who wish.

The contest for the naming of the boat is going on with interest now. Ballots at five cents each in books of twenty are offered for sale and the name that gets the most votes will be chosen. Such names as The Premier, Mayflower, Mermaid, Kennebecasis, Clifton, Rothesay, Hiawatha are proposed with the choice perhaps between the first two.

Measles are quite prevalent in the parish and many adults as well as children are ill with the disease. Gilbert Vincent, of the street railway service, came home for a brief vacation and brought the measles along for company. Three of the students at the school, Messrs. McAvity, Adams and Domville, were standing the examinations for entrance to Kingston Military School last week in the city.

David Jones, of Kingston, is very ill. He has many friends in this parish who will regret to hear this news.

A very successful pie social and dance were held in Gilbert's Hall Friday evening, the proceeds of which will add about $40 to the ferry boat equipment fund. There were some thirty or forty ladies present and enough gentlemen to make the dance that followed the social so enjoyable that the sun was not far away when it broke up. The pies brought good prices and some who were unable to attend sent donations in cash to help increase the receipts. Mr. Gilbert gave the use of his hall free, provided coffee and other necessaries to make the affair a success.
