DA .- DR. MILBOY'S DEATH. The last mail but one brought us the sad news that two out of the fitteen medical men, taken, with an exception of two, from the different regiments serving in Canada, and sent to Bermuda to contend with the ravages of yellow fever that had broken out, and was most fatal amongst the troops there, had died; and also that Dr. Milroy of the 30th regiment now stationed here had been attacked. On Saturday official intelligence arrived, stating that he had died. This melancholy news was announced by Rev. Dr. Bancroft at the close of sermon vesterday, in connection with the sudden death of a young man of the congregation of Trinity Church. On the evening before Dr. Milroy's departure, he informed his pastor (Rev. Dr. Bancroft,) that he was to bid him a final farewell, as he felt confident he should not return. He, on that occasion, stated that individuals leaving this climate for that of Bermuda, were most open to the assault of the disease there His apprehensions were doomed to knew him as a gentleman of a most kind disposition and unassuming manners. In Montreal they are labouring under the apprehension of a wood famine, and a public meeting has been called upon a requisition sider the matter. This year the Grand Trunk railway and the amalgamated Lake Champlain line have discontinued the carrying of cord wood on account of its uning their station ground in Montreal litterated with fuel wood. This stoppage of the supply has led to some outery which the argues that the dearness of wood is simply due to the exhaustion of the supply. The such a measure is common among our repubsupply of hard wood on the line of railway lican neighbors. If, however, it is part of lodgings on high and dry ground, in an is so short that the Grand Trunk company are being forced to resort to the use of coul, the policy of the Government to submit the atmosphere fresh from contamination, is of which they are now using about ten new scheme to the popular vote, the Legis-

From what we can learn the origin of the fight was in the first place excitably caused by intoxication, and secondly a chance expression of a partizan character leading to blows. Four or five hundred persons became mixed up the row, most of them in efforts to queil it; sticks and stones were used freely. Keogh was struck it is said with a billet of firewood. and his skull broken. Dr. Allan was in im mediate attendance but the unfortunate man expired about 11 o'clock in the evening.
