Six Nation Indians have no right to the land of the Market Square in Brantford by ancient agreement is the finding of legal investigation. They lost their rights with the transfer of the property to the old town of Brantford. There were stipulations however, that the land was to be used for market purposes. This may be changed by legislation, and it is felt there will be difficulty in obtaining it if the people desire it.

Up To Sarnia City-ens.

Following a special meeting of the Sarnia City council, attended by members of the chamber of commerce and Lake Huron Steel Corporation officials it was announced that it was up to the people now to decide whether the corporation plant would be built here. During the first two weeks in January at a special election citizens will have a number of bylaws to vote on for the Steel and Wius-Lee Auto Corporation.

Judging by sentiment expressed here bylaws for the corporation concerning tax rates, etc., will pass by large majorities. It would appear that citizens to a man are in favor of both corporations opening here as soon as the weather will permit. Real estate operators are arriving in the city, among them being many well-known ones from London, St. Thomas and Toronto.
