BITS OF TINSEL.

A London solicitor recently tendered a bill in which the last item was thus stated: "To dining with you after the case was lost."

Mrs. Bascom: "They say that Jim Simpkins lost all his money in a Pharaoh Bank in New York. I tell you, them Egyptians air a graspin' lot. The children of Israel got it that out."

Sales Gentleman: "Stockings? Yes, ma'am, what number do you wear?" Customer: "What number? Why two, of course! D'you take me for a conterpede or a one-legged veteran of the war?"

One summer at Cape Cod I was remarking on the color of a woman's ear-rings, and she informed me they were some her husband had brought home from sea, they were made of "the liver of St. Vociferous."

Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator has no equal for destroying worms in children and adults. See that you got the genuine when purchasing.

A little girl sat very still for a long time, listening to grandpa's stories. All at once she jumped up and began hopping around. "Why, what's the matter?" asked grandpa. "Oh! oh!" cried Nellie, "my foot feels exactly like a pin-cushion that's alive!"

Thos. Sabin, of Elington, says: "I have removed ten corns from my foot with Holloway's Corn Cure." Reader, go thou and do likewise.

Already they begin to say that the exodus to Europe will be very large the coming season, but it doesn't make a hair's difference to us, for we don't expect the X of us will ever be paid.

Liveryman: "Shall I put in one or two buffaloes?" Dude: "Well--er--I think if you could just let me have a horse, it would be better. You see, I have never driven a buffalo, and would be rather timid, don't you know?"

Public speakers, actors and vocalists find, and state that Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil relieves hoarseness and irritation in the throat better than remedies specially advertised to relieve that difficulty. This Oil has a wide scope, since it cures external hurts, corns, sores, frost-bites, piles, and a variety of other unhealthy conditions.

The man who was convulsed with laughter at a woman trying to sharpen a pencil, was soon after discovered trying to cut a pair of scissors, his right hand, lower jaw and two-thirds of his tongue.

D. Sullivan, Malcolm, Ontario, writes: "I have been selling Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for some years, and have no hesitation in saying that it has given better satisfaction than any other medicine I have ever sold. I consider it the only patent medicine that cures more than that it is recommended to cure."

"My errand here to-night," said a young lawyer to a damsel on whom he had called, "reminds me of the cry of an owl." "Indeed," said the maiden, "what is your errand here to-night?" "Courtship. To wit, to woo."

There are cheap panaceas for various human ailments continually cropping up. Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure has no affinity with any of these. Unlike them, the article is derived from the purest sources, is prepared with the utmost chemical skill, and is a genuine remedy and not a palliative for biliousness, Constipation, Kidney troubles, impurity of the blood, and female complaints.

"Did you make money enough on your stock deal, John, to buy the sort of carriage you promised? I suppose you did, though," she added confidently, "you said you put in your money at the bottom of the market." "So I did, my dear, so I did, but the bottom it self dropped out."

The little one, being a guest of her grandma, had been liberally feasted when a second dish of pudding came in. Looking at the steaming dish, she exclaimed with a sigh, "Gran'ma, I wish I was twins."

Mr. R. C. Winlow, Toronto, writes: "Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery is a valuable medicine to all who are troubled with indigestion. I tried a bottle of it after suffering for some ten years, and the results are certainly beyond my expectations. It assists digestion wonderfully. I digest my food with no apparent effort, and am now entirely free from that sensation, which every dyspeptic well knows, of unpleasant fullness after each meal."

Guarding against contingencies, "I've hung up my two stockings," said a little girl as she kissed her mother good night. "Are you afraid that one wouldn't hold the doll that Santa Claus is going to give you?" asked her mother in a sly way. "It isn't that, ma," slowly said the little reasoner; "but I thought perhaps I may have twins this year."

CATARRH.

A New Home Treatment for the Cure of Catarrh, Catarrhal Deafness, and Hay Fever.

The microscope has proved that these diseases are contagious, and that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the upper air passages and sustentaculum, tubes. The eminent scientists Tyndall, Huxley, and Beale endorse this, and these authorities cannot be disputed. The regular method of treating these diseases has been to apply an irritant remedy weekly and even daily, thus keeping the delicate membrane in a constant state of irritation, thus allowing it no chance to heal, and as a natural consequence of such treatment not one permanent cure has ever been recorded. It is an absolute fact that these diseases cannot be cured by any application made oftener than once in two weeks, for the membrane must get a chance to heal before an application is repeated. It is now seven years since Mr. Dixon discovered the parasite in catarrh and formulated his new treatment, and since then his remedy has become a household word in every country where the English language is spoken. Cures effected by him seven years ago are cures still, there having been no return of the disease.

So highly are these remedies valued that ignorant imitators have started up every where, pretending to destroy a parasite, of which they know nothing, by remedies the results of the application of which they are equally ignorant. Mr. Dixon's remedy is applied only once in two weeks, and from one to three applications effect a permanent cure in the most aggravated cases.

Mr. Dixon sends a pamphlet describing his new treatment on the receipt of stamp to pay postage. The address is A. H. Dixon and Son, 309 King Street West, Toronto, Canada.—Scientific American
