

- other provisions of this Act; always excepting such convicts as shall be confined in solitude for misconduct while in the Penitentiary, or shall be incapable of labouring by reason of sickness or bodily infirmity: Provided always, 5 that nothing herein contained shall be construed to oblige any convict of the Roman Catholic persuasion to labour on any of the following obligatory Holidays of the Church, that is to say: Circumcision, Epiphany, Annunciation, Ascension, Corpus Christi, Saint Peter and Saint Paul, 10 All Saints, and Conception. And be it shall be the duty of the said Warden to keep each prisoner singly in a cell at night and during the day when unemployed; and when the convicts are congregated in the workshops and other places of labour it shall be the duty 15 of the Warden to keep them as far separate as possible and to allow as little intercourse among them as the nature of their several employments will permit, and to forbid all conversation not absolutely required in carrying on the work being done at the moment.
- 20 VI. And be it enacted, That the said Penitentiary shall be held to include all the ground and premises within the walls surrounding the establishment, and also the wharf and vacant ground outside the south and west walls within the pickets now erected to enclose the same; and the Warden 25 shall not permit any convict to go beyond the said boundaries of the Penitentiary at any time or for any purpose; and when it shall be necessary to employ convicts on the said wharf or vacant space outside the walls, it shall be done only under the strictest supervision and care of officers appointed to that duty; Provided always, that 30 should the Inspectors at any time be of opinion that it would be safe and advisable and for the public interest to employ a portion of the convicts on any specific work or occupation outside the limits but upon the ground or lot 35 attached to the Penitentiary, they may instruct the Warden so to employ a specified number of convicts at such specified labour and no other; but they shall first make written rules for their regulation and supervision while so employed.
- 40 VII. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Inspectors of the said Penitentiary, to cause to be erected within the said Penitentiary, (at as early a period as practicable, consistently with keeping the annual grant from the funds of the Province towards the support of the 45 Penitentiary within the sum of £6,000 in any one year) not exceeding fifty cells with a workshop attached to each cell,

Proviso: as to Roman Catholics.

Confinement
at night, &c.

What the Penitentiary
shall include.

Proviso.

Additions and improvements
to be made to the Penitentiary.