

Agriculture.

|                                                                                                                                                 | Reign. | Chap. | Section |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------|--------------|----------------|
| AGRICULTURE —Act for the encouragement of                                                                                                | 58 Geo. III.  | 6            |                |
| £2000 granted for the promotion of Agriculture, to be advanced to Societies formed or to be formed for this purpose.                            | ..            | ..           | 1              |
| Apportionment thereof to the Districts of the Province.                                                                                         | ..            | ..           | ..             |
| Societies to offer premiums for grain, and other produce, inventions, improvements, or other useful objects in husbandry.                       | ..            | ..           | 2              |
| Premiums how to be distributed.                                                                                                                 | ..            | ..           | ..             |
| Not to exceed £20 each.                                                                                                                         | ..            | ..           | ..             |
| Premiums granted for horses, cattle, sheep and hogs.                                                                                            | ..            | ..           | 3              |
| Societies to report to Legislature.                                                                                                             | ..            | ..           | 4              |
| Act to be deemed a Public Act.                                                                                                                  | ..            | ..           | 6              |
| £2500 granted for encouragement of Agriculture in 1821.                                                                                         | 1 Geo. IV.    | 5            | 1              |
| Apportionment thereof to the Districts of the Province.                                                                                         | ..            | ..           | 2              |
| Present Agricultural Societies may have Auxiliary Societies, and may allow them a proportion of the monies granted.                             | ..            | ..           | 3              |
| No advance to be made to an Auxiliary Society until it shall have conformed to 58th Geo. III. cap. 6, and to this Act, and to other conditions. | ..            | ..           | 4              |
| In what cases Auxiliary Societies may grant premiums,                                                                                           | ..            | ..           | 5              |
| Agricultural Society for Gaspé to proceed as other Agricultural Societies.—May allow premiums in certain cases.                                 | ..            | ..           | 6              |
| Auxiliary Societies to transmit in Nov. 1821, to their principal Societies, a statement of their proceedings, and of monies expended.           | ..            | ..           | 7              |
| Agricultural Societies to account to the Legislature.                                                                                           | ..            | ..           | 8              |