

French officers reading the war news to their men.

Belgian soldiers arriving at Havre.

British Veterans read the war news with intense interest.

German officers seen deciphering orders received from the general staff.

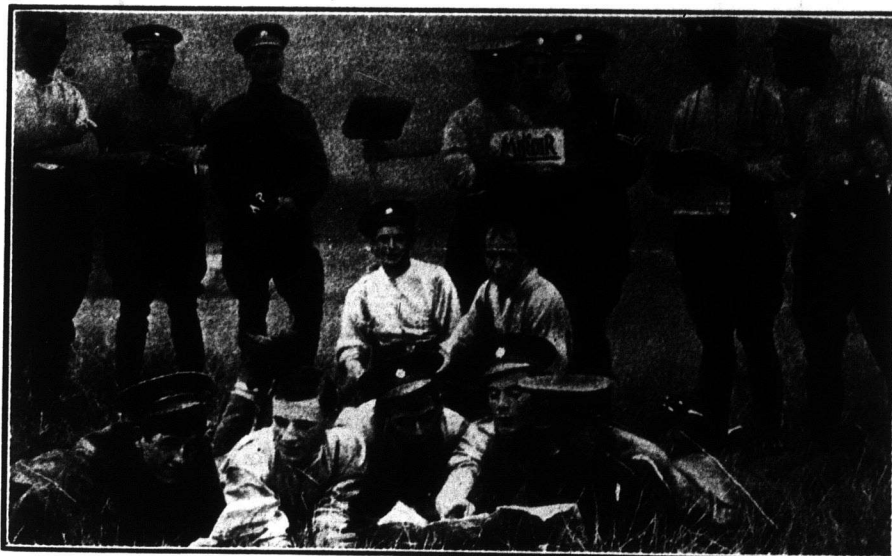

Britain's sons in a French village on the way to the battle front.

Sudanese soldiers who will meet Turks in Egypt.

A British field bakery at work.

British soldiers struggling with French newspapers.