

These definitions will become everyday words

"Ace"— (verb) To ace a course is to receive a grade of "A". As in poker, the more aces you have, the better you're doing.

All Nighter— See cramming.

Annex B— Plopped in the midst of our splendid business district. This questionable habitat covers such notaries as Student Services, "Security", Personnel, and Accommodations.

Brown-nosing— The art of playing up to a prof. for extra consideration. Also known as ass-licking and sucking up.

Brun— Alias Brunswickan. Highly informative student rag. Fact filled pages, lurid poetry, and sublime photography. Beware—also a vent for student frustrations.

Buchanan Field— Skating rink, ski area, and playing field adjacent to Gymnasium. Excellent wallowing grounds for impotent water buffalo.

Bullshitting— The art of writing good exam answers when you know nothing. Good BSer's are born not made. Either you have it or you don't.

Brick— Usually red. What men and buildings are made of.

CHSR— Turn your radio to 700 if you're on campus. There is really no definition. Like Mt. Everest it is just there.

College Field— Outdoor brawling and football field. Right behind the big rink where you waited in line all g.d. day. (registration).

Cosmo— Alias Cosmopolitan Club. Downtown's only! You got the money, they got the time. Great workout especially if you like the body contact sports.

Course Change— Chances are you won't get everything you want at registration. If you're in Mechanical Engineering and they stick you with renaissance sculpture, try course change on the last day of registration.

CP— White jackets, usually football players, standing with arms folded near doorways and dark corners. Do not sting as hard as yellow jackets!!

Cramming— One of two ways to study for an exam. The other way is not at all. Also known as All Nighter.

Deadline— Last day for getting things done. Usually applies to home assignments. If you've got a legit excuse (or can dream one up) check out your prof. He may give you extra time. Don't take it for granted though.

Dunn— Majesty building on east of campus. Scene of formals, water and panty raids.

Emergency loans— Apply at Student Awards Office for details up to $200 may be available.

E.U.S.— Engineering Undergraduate Society. Fine young men, with black leather and duck tails.

Faggot— Bundle of steel rods or twigs. (Webster) See River Room for further details.

Honors— Intensive specialization in a specific academic area. Requires good grades and hard work. An honors degree can usually cut one full year off graduate school.

Jock— as in strap. Big strong athletic type. Very scarce at UNB. See Saint Thomas.

"INC"— Grade of incomplete for a course.

Lady Godiva— A bona fide nude in a body stocking. Gallops around campus during Engineering Week when steed and stocking can be found.

Lady Beaverbrook— No relation to the above. What all the buildings (esp. Residence and Gym) seem to be named after.

Lord Beaverbrook— Related. What the above is named after. Currently operating a coal scuttle in Heaven!

Maggie— Downtown womens' res. Site of socials and Montreal travel bureau. Drop-in center for wayward girls.

Major— Area of specialization. Also last name of Ursa, a constellation in this area.

Mem. Hall— Short for Memorial Hall, theatre cum concert hall cum art centre. Fine view!

Narcs— Need I say more? Keep your nose clean and mouth shut!

Paul Bunyan— A great big wooden bastard, hung from Forestry Building during campus destruction week.

Objective Exam— a) multiple choice; b) computer scored; c) ambiguous but; d) usually easy; e) all of these. Correct answer (etc.)

One armed Bandit— UNB Vending Machine. You pays your money and you takes your chance.

Open Book— Type of Exam which is written with books open on desk. Sound easy? Just wait.

Overdue books— Library books out beyond return date. Don't pay the fine, but tell them you lost the book. They'll cancel the fine and send you a bill for the book. Then find the book. See how easy it is?

Pop Shop— NBLCC — Usually the Mall outlet. Second home to many UNB'ers.

Plagiarism— Passing off someone else's work as your own. Endemic UNB disease. If you must stoop this low, plagiarism can be a valuable weapon. But, like Hai-Karate be careful how you use it. The slightest suspicion can (and has) led to expulsion.

Pseudo-Intellectual— Moron who makes people think he's bright. You'll find them all over UNB. Some profs fall for his illogical but prettily worded expositions, but most can pick them off at 20 paces.

Red & Black— A revue of kick liners, student humour (?) and various other talents. R&B made Anne Murray what she is today! heh heh

Reread— If you think you got the shaft (g.v.) you can have your paper reread. It might be worth it. It'll cost you ten bucks but if your grade is raised, you'll get the money back.

River Room— A sophisticated haven for swingers and other such sweethearts.

Shaft— What your prof will give you if he doesn't like you.

Social— Music, booze, and at least one animal; or any campus or non-campus party.

Student Number— More important than your name. If it's gone from your mind or pocket, you've got troubles.

Study Hall— A great place to meet people and make it with chicks or guys (depending on your sex and or hangups.) If you want to study, stay home.

Stud— Affectionate synonym for older Student Centre. A good place for bashes if you don't steal the flags or break the john.

SUB— Student Union Building — where either everything or nothing happens, usually the latter.

SUB Rats— Cannot survive in any other atmosphere. Chronic card shufflers. A Rat may get a degree from the student union, which may be recognized by any other student union.

SRC— Students Representative Council, the people who digest your 35 clams. Feel free to visit.

Supps— Supplemental examinations, available to students receiving a grade of "F". Successful completion will give the student a grade of "S" on transcript. (g.v.)

Take Home— Form of exam. You write it at home. Fancy way of saying essay

The Arms— The closest beverage room! Not far to crawl back, but it's all uphill.

The Locker— As in Davy Jones, also as in Jones House. Featuring full length animal shows in screaming staggering colour (?)

Transcript— Official record of your achievement and non-achievement. The less you have on it, the better off you are.

Up the Hill— Our fine yearbook although colour similarities to STU's are merely coincidental. A hell of a place to get your picture, but don't count on getting your name there too!

With Distinction— Academic recognition on transcripts and diplomas of those graduating students of 75 percent or over. Also awarded to any SOB who can down a quart in six seconds.

Withdrawal— No herion for two days, referred to as "cold turkey". Special note from registrar — dropping a course. If you think you're going to bomb it, a W looks better than an F. Make sure you catch the deadline.
