

Student Disciplinary Code

On November 18, 1980 the Board of Governors of the University of New Brunswick approved a Student Disciplinary Code, the provisions of which established a mechanism for self-discipline among students. The very concept of self-discipline reveals a philosophy held by the administrators at this University. They recognize that university life creates a special environment and that student discipline should be administered by individuals who are the most familiar with this environment -- the students themselves.

The merits of a self-discipline approach are most evident when one considers as an alternative the criminal or civil justice system. Judges apply a community rather than a university standard of behaviour. The impact of a court ruling often involves jail terms, a criminal record, adverse publicity and invariably a lawyer's bill.

Quite simply, the self-disciplinary model allows students charged under our code to be charged, judged and sentenced by his peers in a speedy, informal and inexpensive fashion.

It is important to emphasize that the student disciplinary model cannot replace the laws of our courts -- it can only offer an alternative to them. If a victim insists on commencing legal action against a student, our Committee would lose control over the case. Obviously, it is in the interests of all students that we prove to the University administration and everyone else both on and off the campus that our Committee can produce just results for the victim and the accused.

The most lenient sanction which the Committee could impose is the levying of a $20.00 fine which is common in a case where the accused party pleads guilty to a minor offence. The most stringent sanction available to the Committee is that of a recommendation for suspension of expulsion to the Board of Deans.

Further provisions in the Student Disciplinary Code outline the structure of the Student Disciplinary Committee. The Committee is to be composed of eight individuals representing the collective interests of students from across campus. The Code specifies that the positions of Chairperson and Vice-Chairperson be occupied by a third year and a second year law student respectively. These positions are currently occupied by Sandra J. Zed and Mario DiCarlo. In addition, there is one faculty member sitting on the Committee, Professor Peter Kent of the History Department. The recording secretary of the SRC sits as a non-voting member of the Committee. The other four individuals are selected in accordance with the "Appointment of Officers" section of the Code. All of the members of the Committee are ratified by the University's Board of Governors.

It is significant to point out that the Student Disciplinary Code provides for a Supervisory Board which is composed of seven members appointed by the Board of Governors. The Supervisory Board works in conjunction with a Commissioner of Student Discipline (Dr. Woodfield), also appointed by the Board of Governors, to achieve and maintain efficiency in the carrying out of the Code's objectives. The Supervisory Board also accepts and considers recommendations for amendments to the Code. Furthermore, the Supervisory Board is composed of both student and faculty members, Professor David Townsend of the Faculty of Law sits as a member of the Supervisory Board and serves as a technical advisor to the Chairperson on legal and procedural matters.

There are presently four unoccupied positions on the Student Disciplinary Committee and interested students are encouraged to apply for these through the SRC office. Applications are being accepted until October 1, 1982.

PREAMBLE

This code has been established to provide students with a mean of self-discipline. It is not meant as a replacement to the laws governing the community as a whole but as an alternative, whereby the University recognizes the special environment it creates and chooses to discipline students in that light.

A. INTRODUCTION

1. The University of New Brunswick Student Disciplinary Code, hereinafter called the "Code," shall extend to include all students registered at the University of New Brunswick whilst on the University of New Brunswick campus. It shall also extend to off-campus events to which student police have been assigned. By definition: a student is a person registered as a student at the University of New Brunswick.

2. The Code is enacted to facilitate the regulation of students of their own conduct and is not designed to place the University "in loco parentis" to any student.

3. No one shall be subjected to prosecution for an offence under this Code if they had already been convicted of the same or an included offence in a Court of Law.

4. If a student has been charged with an offence under this Code, he/she shall not be charged by student organizations on the same facts under the regulations adopted by that organization.

5. There shall be a Student Disciplinary Committee which shall hear and dispose of charges laid against students with respect to any of the offences defined in this Code. The Student Disciplinary Committee shall be composed, and its proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of the Code.

6. The residences of the University of New Brunswick may adopt the Code for use in their Residence Disciplinary Committee and, where such adoption is made, Division A and E only of the Code shall apply to the Residence Disciplinary Committee. Where the adoption is made by the residence, the jurisdiction of the Code shall apply to a student living in a University residence. A student shall not be prosecuted by the Student Disciplinary Committee if being prosecuted by the Residence Disciplinary Committee for the same offence.

B. APPOINTMENT OF OFFICERS

The Board of Governors of the University of New Brunswick annually shall appoint officers as listed hereunder for the implementation of the Code and the operation of the Student Disciplinary Committee, and the Board may delegate its authority to individual officers as necessary for the effective performance of their duties.

1. Commissioner of Student Discipline.
2. A Technical Advisor.
3. Student Disciplinary Committee - consisting of: Chairman, Vice-Chairman, four student members, a member of faculty, Recording Secretary of SRC (Secretary), and to alternate student members.

C. STUDENT POLICE

The Student Police shall comprise such members and shall perform such duties as specified in the Code or as shall be assigned by the Commissioner of Student Discipline from time to time. The Student Police shall be constituted and shall be responsible to the Student Representative Council as set forth in SRC Resolution 5.

D. SUPERVISORY BOARD

1. There shall be a Supervisory Board which shall administer the Code in cooperation with the Commissioner.

2. The Board shall consist of seven members appointed by the Board of Governors and shall include the Presidents, respectively, of the Student Representative Council, the Graduate Student Society, the Law School Society, (or their designates), the Director of Physical Plant (or his/her designate), a member of the Board of Governors, the Dean of Students, and the President and Vice-Chancellor (or his/her designate). Appointments shall be for one year and shall be renewable.

3. The Board will elect its own Chairman annually, and the Commissioner shall be Secretary, non-voting.

4. The Supervisory Board shall receive an annual report from the Commissioner and shall make recommendations accordingly and which may include recommendations for amendment of the Code.
