need and no more education or qualifications than I have, have been added to the Staff and in many cases it was through "pull" or some influence of a political nature. Many times I have been told. "The Conservatives are in power get in touch with a Member, Robert Broadfoot, some one like that and take your ease and surely something will be done for you." If you were a Catholic, or a Liberal - we could do something but the Conservatives are in now, and our hands are tied. and so it goes. I wrote The Honourable David Cross to explain my circumstances as a deserted wife, and pointed out that the Legislation to assist the deserted wife and child was in need of revision, that in its present form it left much to be desired. Why discriminate between the widow and the deserted wife. Surely one's need is just as great as the other's? I have tried to rent rooms to add to our inadequate income - a precarious means of livelihood at the best, but this house is not suitable for that purpose and now we are compelled to leave before May, and I have got to sell most of my furniture at a heavy loss to meet conditions - a small three roomed bungalow on the outskirts of the City, where we will try to live on the sixty dollars my son earns as a Messenger, a boy educated at the best local schools Model, Lisgar, St. Patrick's and one year at Public School in Ireland. A splendid boy of high principles and a love of the best in life - who, if War
