Dear Mr. Meighen:-

I am just in receipt of your letter of yesterday with regard to your desire for appointment as Notary Public. Mr. Ardagh of the Law Society called up the Department and went through the usual formalities, and I have had special pleasure in instructing that your commission be engrossed forthwith and now send same to you under separate cover. Have also given instructions to waive the usual $10.00 charge.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,
