

(b) WHY THEY LOVE THE ARMY. Because, seeing the good accomplished, they are content to lay aside their personal predilections and to rejoice with us over the salvation and reformation of many a man, many a woman who, until the Army came, was a festering plague spot in their special town and neighborhood.

(c) WHY SHOULD THEY NOT ALL JOIN OUR AUXILIARY LEAGUE? We know of no good reason to the contrary,—and cordially invite our Army friends, to avail themselves of this opportunity, not only of subscribing to our work, but also of boldly declaring themselves in active sympathy with our aims and movement. We do not ask nor yet expect them to endorse all
