

Mrs. Russell, who in the beginning of May arrived from Quebec, to succeed to the situation, will be found perfectly qualified in every respect to fulfil the duties required.

The receipts of the Rooms, as will be shown by the Treasurer's report, have been large, but the high price of materials counterbalances the advantage to the Rooms.

The annual Bazaar was held on the 15th and 16th of March, and by the kind assistance and liberal patronage with which it was favored, the sum realized was most satisfactory, as the following statement will show:

The receipts of the different tables were as below:—

Stock Table.....	$577 80
Children's table.....	66 50
Scrambling bag..	11 00
Refreshment table.....	188 50
Fancy table	369 69
Commission table.....	25 15
Tickets.....	185 15
Total.....	$1423 79

The expenses amounted to $120.41.

It is requisite to state that the sales at the Stock Table barely repay the cost of the materials, and the price paid to the workers.

With regard to the Commission Table, the Committee consider it will be expedient in future to receive only such articles as are made by persons in reduced circumstances.

The Committee desire to return their grateful thanks to those friends who so kindly contributed work and refreshment towards the Bazaar, and the ladies who assisted at the different tables, also to the gentlemen who acted as stewards on the occasion.

On the evening of the 17th of March, a Tea meeting took place in the Mechanics' hall. The room was filled with the women who had worked for the rooms; their families and friends, and by the exertions and liberality of the supporters of the Industrial rooms, Mr. J. P. Clark in particular, the assemblage was amply provided with refreshments, and enjoyed a most pleasant evening.

Money collected by Mrs. Wenham (from her friends) towards