Chocolate, Pink, Lemon Color and White Will save labor and trouble as well as money. Sold by all Grocers.

" Truth is Catholic; proclaim it ever, and God will effect the rest.—BALMEZ.

SMOKERS

PRICE FIVE CENTS

10c per ounce. Bollard 199 Yonge St. TORONTO

Perfection Smoking Mixture Positively Cool and Fragrant

TORONTO, THURSDAY, APRIL 2, 1903

VOL. XI. No. 14

GANADA AND

Moves a Resolution Which is reed by Both Sides of the House.

Only Perfunctory Objection Taken by Individuals Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Hon. R. L. Borden Speak.

explained that it was unnecessary for let them sneer. every Canadian proud to boast of his

SLURS ARE POWERLESS.

where that comes from. I merely notice those cries as slurs: If they please the hon. gentlemen who utter them they do not hurt me; I rise above them. (Government cheers.) I stand above them and the Canadian people The people of the empire stand above them. (Renewed cheers.) The people of the empire stand above that constitutionally Canada had the ting beside the member for North the British people expressed their thanks and their gratitude to the thanks and their gratitude to the large old slurs which did services them be treated justly, and their gratitude to the large of the them. These old slurs, which did ser- right to pass such resolutions, ed to the same religious denomina- Parliament of Canada for the action running as a Home Rule candidate: the bitterness will pass away, and vice in the years gone by, have no strengthening the hands of Imperial tion as himself he thought he had we had then taken. And if we could people is what sways the people to-

FURRIERS Spring Derby Hats

In new brown and black hard felt-just arrived from New York and London, Eng., and including some special designs not to be found outside of our doors.

We are Dunlap's and Heath's soleCanadian agents. If it's new we have it.

largely by the people, are to-day shared in by nearly the whole people. In all that time have I, or the men fore the Parliament of Canada a sub- the feeling of satisfaction which he tically applauded. ject in which he might be pardoned knew pervaded every mind and heart for saving that he had always taken at the bright prospects of the pacifia very deep interest, and thought he cation of the empire and the pacificawas justified in stating that he in- tion of Ireland, which has had cause pressed the view that Mr. Costigan's tended to discuss a subject which is and honestly by the British Govern- mote the cause of Ireland. of complaint, as is admitted frankly of great importance not only to the ment to-day. Mr. Costigan enumer-Canadian Parliament, and not only ated the resolutions passed by the ious attention of the best minds of sion by the fact that Home Rule has House. the Empire. Twenty years, he said, now become an Imperial question; it iod in the life of a Parliament; and, through their leaders, through their land. He supported the resolution. looking back over the jast twenty press, through their friends all over years, to an occasion similar to this, the world, are showing their apprewhen he had the honor of moving a ciation of the olive branch that is resolution, the first of its kind, in- held up to-day; they show their apviting the Parliament of Canada to preciation of the change of policy prepared to give one dollar to as-that measure of liberty which makes turies, but to-day the term, he said, Land Bill. Canadianship, and that, to his mind, no longer applies. "There is nothing greater change which has taken place too good for the Irish" was the senin Great Britain itself. We were all, timent now becoming true, and it ethnological aspect of the Irish queshe was sure, proud of that feeling, was a great gratification to every tion. and he hoped that to-day no word man of Irish origin that this great would escape his lips to indicate any public change has come about. He born citizen recognized that there resolution was moved in this House, would escape his lips to indicate any public change has come about. The born citizen recognized that there resolution was moved in this riouse, derstood, and I want to say here and terness of ages and centuries of oppression. That was the condition of tion, or anything but the kindest tion of Ireland in the early centuries lar grievance to that of the Irish peoas it is now maintained in the Par- ed in England and the barbarous con- joyes made it eminently proper that ties in their efforts to obtain for the expressed the hope that there would be a unanimous vote of the House in Hon. Mr. Costigan - Oh, I know favor of his resolution, and his con-

MR. EDWARD HACKETT.

stand above them. (Renewed cheers.) voted Home Rule for Ireland, and felt have been accepted unanimously. Sit- the British Empire; on the contrary, day, not these bug-bears that are imperial Conference in London the raised by some gentlemen. What is Premier should have in his hands a ped over the traces sometimes, as he are warranted ten times over in takthere, sir, to bring forth cries of resolution on this subject. He did had done on this occasion. (Laughter ing the same course for the benefit of adequately with an increasing arrear just quoted from John Dillon. But so not think that Mr. Costigan, in intro- and cheers.) ducing his resolution, should have Mr. E. Gus Porter would cast his (Cheers.) Now, sir, it is a pleasant of unfriendliness to the Government. say God bless Ireland. Home Rule was something above all questions of party advantage. If the Government chose to vote it down they could do so, but he challenged, greeted with cheers on rising. He said analyzed the true condition of things cern them." them to vote it down. (Great laughter.) It should not be said that this great question was to be kicked about like a football for party advantage. To reconcile the people of Ireland would be to exert one of the strongest influences for the unification of the empire. Speaking for the Irish Land Bill, he recalled the complete success of the bill passed in Prince Edward Island years ago, by which the tenant farmers were enabled to become owners. Mr. Gladstone had sent for a copy of that act, and the present bill appeared in some respects to be founded on the Prince Edward #### Island act. MR. JOHN CHARLTON.

Mr. John Charlton did not combat the views expressed by the moker and seconder. The Irish people were a noble and a generous race; they had in the past suffered serious grievances, but he was impressed with the belief that the removal of these grievances must come from the Parliament exercising sway over Ireland. As it was an Imperial question, it was not one for colonial interference, and not one which this House should pass some hon. gentlemen who interrupt me when I make an honest appeal — the Irish people were able to take and I have never made any but an care of themselves. nest appeal? What is there to justify a contradiction implied by these sneers that I am not speaking the honest sentiments of my mind, from my own light and judgment? I have Dr. Sproule declared the opposition manifested by hon. members this afnever given any proof of anything termoon had not been against the else. Is it because twenty years ago Irish people or the wisdom of giving I entertained the same warm feelings Home Rule to Ireland, but was rathon this subject that I do to-day? I er an indication of their belief in the am proud to say that those feelings, unwisdom of Mr. Costigan in bring-which were not then shared in so ing up the question at this time.

DR. SPROULE.

MR. CHARLES MARCIL.

Mr. Chas. Marcil, in reply to Dr. mone to-day Hon. John Costigan rose up to the present day the men who maintain the empire, had given sub- of the oldest friends of the cause of with regard to Ireland? to move as an amendment the resolu- sneet cannot point to an act on our sidies to steamships in order to knit Home Rule for Ireland. But, whattion of which he had given notice, part indicating any want of loyalty the empire together, and surely it ever may be our views upon the mofavoring Home Rule for Ireland. He to the land in which we live or to was not out of place now for the tion which is now before us, for my the empire to which we belong. Then House of Commons to congratulate part, convinced, as I have been for a will find that the only cause can be the Imperial Parliament upon the great many years, that the settle-

THE LAND BILL.

Mr. Andrew Broder (Dundas) ex-

to the people of Canadian Parliament in 1882, 1886 to be a resolution of congratulation and the people of Canadian Parliament in 1882, 1886 to be a resolution of congratulation and the people of Canadian Parliament in 1882, 1886 to be a resolution of congratulation and the people of Canadian Parliament in 1882, 1886 to be a resolution of congratulation and the people of Canadian Parliament in 1882, 1886 to be a resolution of congratulation and the people of Canadian Parliament in 1882, 1886 to be a resolution of congratulation and the people of Canadian Parliament in 1882, 1886 to be a resolution of congratulation and the people of Canadian Parliament in 1882, 1886 to be a resolution of congratulation and the people of Canadian Parliament in 1882, 1886 to be a resolution of congratulation and the people of Canadian Parliament in 1882, 1886 to be a resolution of congratulation and the people of Canadian Parliament in 1882, 1886 to be a resolution of congratulation and the people of Canadian Parliament in 1882, 1886 to be a resolution of congratulation and the people of Canadian Parliament in 1882, 1886 to be a resolution of congratulation and the people of Canadian Parliament in 1882, 1886 to be a resolution of congratulation and the people of Canadian Parliament in 1882, 1886 to be a resolution of congratulation and the people of Canadian Parliament in 1882, 1886 to be a resolution of congratulation and the people of Canadian Parliament in 1882, 1886 to be a resolution of congratulation and the people of Canadian Parliament in 1882, 1886 to be a resolution of congratulation and the people of Canadian Parliament in 1882, 1886 to be a resolution of congratulation and the people of Canadian Parliament in 1882, 1886 to be a resolution of congratulation and the people of Canadian Parliament in 1882, 1886 to be a resolution of congratulation and the people of Canadian Parliament in 1882, 1886 to be a resolution of congratulation and the people of Canadian Parliament in 1882, 1886 to be a resolution of congratulation support the resolution, which he took preferable for the Parliament of Canject which is to-day engaging the ser-icon of the measure upon this occa-had been introduced in the Imperial sir, time moves, new ideas germinate

Mr. Bourassa drew from the his- am sure, a greater cordiality and is a considerable period in the life has assumed broader proportions than tory of French Canada the lesson that solidarity among all the nations of authority which has a summed broader proportions than tory of French Canada the lesson that solidarity among all the nations of authority which has a summed broader proportions than tory of French Canada the lesson that solidarity among all the nations of authority which has a summed broader proportions than tory of French Canada the lesson that solidarity among all the nations of authority which has a summed broader proportions than tory of French Canada the lesson that solidarity among all the nations of authority which has a summed broader proportions than tory of French Canada the lesson that solidarity among all the nations of authority which has a summed broader proportion to the life. of a man. It is a considerable per- ever before. The people of Ireland, Home Rule should be granted to the earth than there has been at any

MR. A. E. KEMP.

COL. HUGHES.

Colonel Sam Hughes discussed the buke. (Cheers.)

every part of the British Empire, which exists in all those parts of the British Empire where general contentment prevails we may come to the conclusion that the one cause which has brought about this beneficial result is the fact that in every one of those communities the people have been granted a full measure of local autonomy and local self-govern-

The Heintzman & Co. piano

is a "thing of beauty" in tone and construction. It has been

CANADA'S ARTISTIC

PIANO

It is a favorite with the leading foreign musicians who use it on

HEINTZMAN & CO.

115-117 King St. W., Toronto

their Canadian tours.

ple, and the advantages they now en- sympathy with the Imperial authorithe Canadian Parliament should ex- subjects of Her Majesty in the Transpress an opinion upon the question. | vaal such measure of justice and po-Hon. Wm. Ross (Victoria, N. B.), litical recognition as may be found fidence that the House would not go blue-blooded Presbyterian, yielded to possession of equal rights and liberwho claimed the right to be called a necessary to secure them in the full no man in his desire to see the griev- ties. This motion was transmitted to ances of the Irish people remedied. the Speaker of the Imperial House of He regretted that the resolution had Commons, and for this motion we land) seconded the resolution. He fa- which it ought. If it had it would was quoted with approval all over statesmen. He thought that at the got him into the same frame of mind take that course with reference to the unsolved. Its mere solution cannot jects in the British Empire (Cheers.)

"We just had a RON-OX

TABLETS

- "and the gentleman remarked "that they had done his wife
- more good than "any remedy "she had ever
  - used."-H. W. Brown Drug and Book

A Gentle but Effective Laxative; not a Cathartic

OUR SAVINGS PASS BOOKS are popular among all classes. We issue these books for deposits as low as a dollar and up to any amount.

Interest at Three and One-half per cent, is credited and compounded twice a year, 1st January and 1st July.

For further particulars you are invited to call at the office, or

THE CANADA PERMANENT AND WESTERN CANADA MORT-GAGE CORPORATION, Toronto St., Toronto.

write. It is quite convenient to deposit it by mail-

-Whether this motion be opportune ment. Why should they not be grantwho are descendants from the land of Sproule, contended that the discussion not to beneficial results, whether the which has been granted Australia and the conductive of the land of Sproule, contended that the discussion not to beneficial results, whether the which has been granted Australia and the conductive of the land of Sproule, contended that the discussion not to beneficial results, whether the which has been granted Australia and the conductive of the land of Sproule, contended that the discussion not to beneficial results, whether the which has been granted Australia and the conductive of the land of Sproule, contended that the discussion not to beneficial results, whether the which has been granted Australia and the conductive of the land of Sproule, contended that the discussion not to beneficial results, whether the land of Sproule, contended that the discussion not to beneficial results, whether the land of Sproule, contended that the discussion not to beneficial results, whether the land of Sproule, contended that the discussion not to beneficial results, whether the land of Sproule is the specific that the discussion not to beneficial results. my forefathers, shown any lack in the proper discharge of their duties as citizens of this country? (Hear, hear.) Ottawa, March 31.—Upon the mo- I say no; we have expressed our sym- Canada enjoyed ought not to arouse gaged the serious attention of my ous and loyal should also make Ire-Ottawa, March 31.—Upon the motion to go into supply in the Comtion to go into supply in the Comtion, who has been in this House one or as an unfriendly motion against Proceeding, Mr. Costigan said that tion, and to restore peace and har- Great Britain, to Canada, to Aus- against the Irish people; their dismony in Ireland. On concluding his tralia, and to all parts of the empire trust that the Irish people, if they the Government. But he availed him- the object of his resolution was that speech, which was marked by great in which Irishmen are to be found, I were granted Home Rule, if they were self of the opportunity to bring be- Parliament should give expression to eloquence, Mr. Marcil was enthusiasgive this motion my most hearty sympathy, as I have done similar motions on former occasions (Cheers.) of Ireland from Great Britain. It is though I hope that in the end it will We are reminded that on a former octhis distrust which has just been exbe paid by the Irish people themsolutions were introduced. Mr. Foster resolution was not calculated to pro- what to that now before us, we were that if the people of Ireland were in the matter of money, but in the ish subjects fighting for their rights, selves they would be ruled by a forand bear fruit, and there is to-day, I day, while they acknowledge obedience for Home Rule than all the reforms, authority which he had in his mind, in temporal matters they recognize previous period of its history. (Hear, no authority but that of their own hear.) And it is fitting and proper civil government. (Cheers.) If the that this feeling should exist in a larger degree within the communities people of England be satisfied that upon questions of policy which affect not only domestic affairs but also of distrust against them. If I had the to the attention of my hon. friends, THE TRANSVAAL RESOLUTIONS. my friends the Home Rulers: "While I to consider these words: "I recollect It is now more than three years ago sympathize with you, while I am as the day when the power and the name much as you are in favor of Home of Englishmen were hateful to my Rule for Ireland, I want it to be un- heart." Here is the accumulated bit-
Why is it this course is not followed by the course of with record to Iroland and Iroland Iroland and Iroland and Iroland Irolan ROOTED IN DISTRUST.

> Mr. Kemp-They won't say that. The Prime Minister - Yes, they would say that, for other Home Rulers have said it before.

LORD RUSSELL QUOTED.

the electors of Hackney in November, be treated kindly, let them be treated empire and leave to the Legislature There is example and justification of 41. our fellow-subjects in Ireland of necessary legislation. I am absolong as you continue to give to Irelutely opposed to separation, but, re- land from time to time simply a said that he introduced it in no spirit vote against the resolution, but would fact that at present there is peace in serving Imperial control in all Imper-scanty measure of what they would ial questions, I think Irishmen on expect, you will not make them conthere is contentment in almost every Irish soil should have the power of tented and happy. If there is on the Right Hon. Sir Wilfrid Laurier exception only, that of Ireland. If we

REVOLVING BOOKCASES

books right to your hand. Made in plain and quarter-cut oak highly polished. Re volve on ballbearings. Hold large number of books in small space.

Bring your

Prices rang. ing from $8.00 to $25.00.

The Office Specialty Mfg. Co.

77 BAY STREET, TORONTO, CANADA Factories - Newmarket

Continuing, Sir Wilfrid said: ou will tell me that language not actually, treason. We all know sition, still the Canadian Parliamen been in actual rebellion.

APPEAL TO THE HEART.

say: "You have done a great deal for the Would vote for the resolu-Ireland; you have sacrificed a great tions. amount of money; you are to-day HON. CHARLES FITZPATRICK. bringing in a measure which is a own affairs, would abuse that power Government, which must involve the oration of what the Premier said, recredit to the statesmanship of your provement. You must appeal to the different parts of the empire in one heart and the imagination of a high- another, and its solidarity. ly impulsive and generous people." ship at the same altar, but let me Mr. Gladstone has done more by his present case. He deplored the fact attempt-by his abortive attempt - that certain members had impugned have been worked out by the present Canadian constituency, and as an Government. MR. DILLON'S UTTERANCE. Mr. A. E. Kemp asked if we were prepared to give one dollar to assist in redeeming the land for the sist in redeeming the land for the sist in redeeming the land for the sist in redeeming the land for the prepared to give one dollar to assist in redeeming the land for the sist in redeeming the land for the sist in redeeming the land for the prepared to give one dollar to assist in redeeming the land for the bear testimony to this fact, that at land, I am sure that the next day favor of Mr. Dillon by the people of Catholic interests were concerned. In the constraint of the same empire, and everyone must be glad to be true to the civil authorities of the land, I am sure that the next day favor of Mr. Dillon by the people of Catholic interests were concerned. In who ask for the blessings which are so highly appreciated by ourselves have taken place and the progress have taken place and the progress which has been made in that time, but at the same time this distribution.

NOTHING TOO GOOD.

Mr. Costigan dwelt upon the changes which are resolution.

Mr. Thomas Murray, while not the resolution.

Mr. Thomas Murray, while not the resolution.

Mr. Thomas Murray, while not the resolution.

So close have become our relations between Great Britain and her colonies are certainly and her colonies are certainly the resolution.

Mr. Costigan dwelt upon the changes which are relations between Great Britain and her colonies are certainly and her colonies are certainly the many that the next day are simple from coercion described in the resolution.

Mr. Costigan dwelt upon the changes which are relations between Great Britain and her colonies are certainly and her colonies are certainly distributed to the resolution.

Mr. Costigan dwelt upon the changes which are relations between Great Britain and her colonies are certainly and the progress of the resolution.

Mr. Costigan dwelt upon the changes which are relations between Great Britain and her colonies are certainly and the progress of the resolution.

Mr. Costigan Irish leaders have acted very unwise- ment in the last century. This is the privilege of a seat in the Imperial especially of my hon. friends, who do House of Commons 1 would say to not believe in Home Rule for Ireland, separation. You should be loyal to John Dillon; that was the condition ever eminent the British statesman heart, caused by the odious manner in which they had been treated for ages and centuries. But the fact that it has the right to pass a resolution at that time a great party was ready or present a petition. That right was to come to the relief of Ireland was enough to take away that bitterness! from the heart of John Dillon. Sir Wilfrid quoted the words of (Cheers.) He was applauded by the Mr. Hackett (Prince Edward Is- not been received in the spirit in were not rebuked. On the contrary, it Charles Russell, afterwards Lord Rus- people of Ireland. Therefore I say, if pla for their generality in the treatsell of Killowen, who, in addressing you will give the slightest measure of ple for their generosity in the treatliberty to the Irish people, let them ment of this question. "The question of Ireland still remains they will become the most loyal sub- advance the cause of Home Rule. day, not these bug-bears that are Imperial Conference in London the as himself upon this question, but Transvaal, if we could do that for the lam not taking too sanguine a view. Imperial Conference in London the lam not taking too sanguine a view.

resent an injury, but never slow to make allowances and receive a favor, it is the Irish people, and I do be-lieve that if this question is to be solved it can only be solved by giving the Irish people the measure of liberty that we have in Canada; to give them not the powers we had at confederation, but the powers we give to the Provinces, to the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec. Let there be a

of strength to the British Empire. MR. R. L. BORDEN.

Parliament on College Green. Let the heart and mind of the Irish people be appealed to, and Ireland, instead of being, as in the past, a thorn in the flesh of England, will become a tower

Mr. R. L. Borden said that since the notice of Mr. Costigan's motion had been given a bill had been introduced in the Imperial House giving a material measure of relief from one these High-Grade Instru of the greatest, of Irish grievances, and he thought the conclusion of the resolution might have been couched in happier terms. They all desired the greatest possible measure of relief to Ireland in respect to any grievances from which she had suffered in the past. The resolution might have been better framed, and yet have served the purpose quite as well. As

But it was, it hardly did justice to the has present circumstances. While there een used which is very nearly, if was a good deal in Mr. Chariton's pothat the embittered heart will be had in the past taken on itself to exmade ungenerous. But, if there is a press itself on Imperial matters. He way of making men, even with the pointed out that the Northwest Terintention of disloyalty in their hearts, loyal, it is to trust them, and to give them the liberties which have Provinces enjoyed, and it might be been denied them. Look at the his- considered this session whether this tory of Canada here, when the great would be granted. He thought Home man, one of the greatest men of the Rule for Ireland, as for all the peolast century, Lord Elgin, did not ple of the British Empire, would hesitate to put the fullest powers of come in the future, perhaps in the self-government into the hands, of a very near future, from the very necesrace, who, a few years before, had sity of things, owing to the madequateness of the time at the disposal of the Imperial Parliament to deal with the multitudinous questions This is the way that great men arising throughout the empire. In deal with questions, and this is the the meantime a very great and gener-House of Commons. Nay, more, if I mier's statement that Ireland would had that privilege, having spoken, be loyal in the future, saying that and, as I have just indicated, to the the great mass of the Irish people Home Rulers, I would address my- were loyal to-day. Although they had self also to the Government of the been suffering from a sense of wrong him to say that he was not proposing an amendment as a want of confidence and amendment are a want of confidence and amendment and amendment are a want of confidence and a want of confidence and a want of confidence and a want of confidence are a want of confidence and a want of confidence are a want of confidence and a want of confidence are a want of confidence and a want of confidence are a want of confidence are a want of confidence and a want of confidence are a want of confidence and a want of confidence are a wa day, and I would tell them that it and injustice, they had stood shoulder and as manifesting the interest of the Mr. Costigan's motives. Speaking as substantial as they have been, which the Canadian representative of a Irish Catholic, he said that no man in Canada deserves better of the honest endeavor had been made by the English people to remedy these grievances, and he was satisfied that the day was not far distant when the last effect of these grievances would have disappeared. He pointed to the effect of self-government in stimulating the loyalty of Canadians. In reference to the reply to a previous remight be, the right to dictate to a Canadian Parliament whether or not inherent in the constitution. It was our duty to deny the right of any Butish statesman to lay down such

MR. E. F. CLARKE.

Mr. E. F. Clarke, who rose at midnight, said the resolution would not

The ‡ Highest Type of Excellence in Musical Instruments is ‡ Exemplified BELL PIANOS

GUELPH, ONTARIO

International Control of the Control