EDITED by W. H. DEPUY, D.D.,

Cloth 8 vo - - - $1.50 It is a marvel of rich and compact informa-It is full of surprises even to those who have thought themselves well informed as to Methodi-t History. We have sought in vain for something which ought to be in it and is not. If every adult mem-ber of our Church could possess this Year Book the best results would follow. It is a stimulus to gratitude and labor. Our ministers cannot do a better work than to see that our people have an opportunity to con-veniently seed to The Methodist Centennial Year Book -- (The Christian Advocate.
