The COD LIVER OIL for SUMMER USE.

COD LIVER OIL has been shown to be the most effective agent in counteracting phthisical disease. "We know that if we can manage to enable a patient with pulmonary phthisis to digest and assimilate Cod Liver Oil, tissue nutrition becomes so altered that the development of tubercle is usually arrested." (Dr. Milner Fothergill). But Cod Liver Oil is difficult of digestion. Many patients cannot tolerate it, and with others it passes through the bowels undigested. In this preparation the purest Cod Liver Oil is combined with Maltine, which is a most nutritious food, and exceptionally rich in the digestive ferments. Its taste and flavor are delicious, while its convenient consistence renders it easy to administer and facilitates its absorption. "Maltine with Cod Liver Oil" does not give rise to acid eructations; and, the taste of the oil being completely disguised by this mode of exhibition, it never occasions nausea, and so proves acceptable to the most fastidious and sensitive stomach.

The Story of St. Paul.
By CANON FARRAR, D.D., F.R.S., Archdeacon of Westminster.

The World's Greatest Living Religious Teacher and most fascinating writer. Illustrated with a number of correct maps, and a vast gallery of superb wood engravings by the most eminent artists.

THE author, who is acknowledged to be one of the most fascinating writers of the present day, spent years of study and travel in the preparation of this magnificent volume. In it each incident becomes a picturesque story of the most absorbing interest, and it will be read with greater interest than any romance ever written. Highly recommended by the press everywhere, by ministers of all denominations, by college presidents, by professors, by Sunday school superintendents, by teachers and men of influence; indeed all who have examined it carefully declare it to be the best book of the kind ever written. Praised so hearty and universal, show that it is entirely free from sectarian bias, is honestly and lovingly wrought, and is admirably adapted for the use of all classes and all denominations.

"In Spring a young man's fancy
Lightly turns to thoughts of love."
And as usual the result is a proposal of marriage.
Now, by wearing a stylish shoe a lady makes that difficulty much easier for the bashful swain, as when in that position the young man generally takes great interest either in his own or the lady's footwear.
