

Huntingfield.

Mr. N. Harris, has moved into his fine new residence. The "move in" was delayed about two months longer than was expected, but now it seems like "new married life" in their comfortable and cosy home.

Miss Emma Vogan, is home spending her holidays with her parents.

A large number of the people of this neighborhood are afflicted with colds. It almost looks as if a gripe had made another call on us.

Mr. H. Vogan, of Woodstock, with his family, is visiting with his parents here.

The wedding of Mr. Alex. McKercher, of Con. C., and Miss Ritchie, occurred at the home of the bride's parents, on the 17th con., last Wednesday. A large number of invited guests were present to witness the ceremony and the presents were numerous and costly.

Municipal matters got quite warm after all, and we took care to give our councillor, Mr. Ferguson, a good, substantial vote up this way.

Mr. Edw. Johnston has begun taking out the timber for a mammoth barn to be built in the Spring. Mr. Abram, of Belmore, has the contract.

Mr. Thos. Ritchie, who has been suffering from an infection in his eye, is going to the hospital at Toronto for treatment. We hope he will soon be restored.

The annual meeting of the McIntosh Presbyterian Church congregation will be held on Tuesday, Jan. 12th.

From Con. C.

Mr. Wm. Dodds, and his brother, Mr. Alex. Dodds, of Manitoba, are at present visiting their brother here. They speak in the highest terms of their far-away home, where they have been very successful at farming.

Quite a number of our young men were in the north part of the township last Wednesday to be present at the wedding of Mr. Alex. McKercher, of "the Cline" to Miss Ritchie, of the 17th con.

Mr. Geo. Wakeford, of Chatsworth, has been home on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Wakeford, for a few weeks past, returning this week.

Say, Mr. Editor, while you are putting forth efforts for better post office and stage facilities in the township, don't forget that there is no place in Howick where a post office is more needed than down here, somewhere in the neighborhood of Murray's school.

Lakelet.

The tea meeting held by the Sunday School on New Years night, passed off very successfully. The tables, which were set in the I. O. G. T. hall, were loaded down with good things. After the inner man was satisfied the people repaired to the church where they heard some excellent addresses from Revs. Mahood, Shaw, Phillips and Markham.

The anniversary was, on the whole, one of the best ever held here. The proceeds amounted to $38.55.

Our fellow townsman, Mr. R. McConnell is the happiest man in town and walks the street all smiles. Cause! a daughter.

Miss Maggie Smith, of Clifford, has been visiting at the residence of Mr. A. Dulmage, for the past week.

Mr. Smith has not yet returned from Chatham. His father who was very ill when Mr. Smith went down, has since died. His daughter Edna is now sick with diphtheria at Chatham, so Mr. S. has not yet been able to return.

Our new blacksmith, Mr. Carleton, has at last got settled down in his new house and is prepared to do all work with neatness and despatch.

Mr. James Horton gave a dinner on New Years Day at which no less than twenty-six relatives sat down, ranging in age from about 60 years down to three. It goes without saying that a fine time was enjoyed, the Hortons being noted for their geniality and hospitality.

Redgrave Items.

The Christmas tree entertainment that took place in the Ninth line Congregational Church came off with grand success, considering the bad roads. The programme was something worth listening to, excellent and enjoyable. Short addresses were given by Rev. Mr. Carter, Mr. Mahood and Mr. Wall. After the programme, all received a large bag of fruit well filled, and was very soon well emptied. The tree was most beautiful to behold, laden with rich and costly presents, such as Bibles, Albums, Work-boxes, little negro boys for the young ladies, etc.

Mr. McMurchy's entertainment was well attended by the Redgrave representatives, two wagon loads and a one-horse rig carrying the visitors. We are pleased to congratulate the young teacher on his success in the school, and the grand and pleasant farewell entertainment he gave us.

On Sunday evening last, the Rev. Mr. Carter gave us a very edifying sermon on the text mentioned in our last week's items. He was assisted by Rev. Mr.

Mahood, of Lakelet.

We are very much pleased to have our old friend, Mrs. John Douglas, (widow), of Dakota, visiting her friends and old neighbors of some years ago, spend a few weeks with us again.
