Local News

Much Improved. Charles Clement, the machinist who was struck in the ribs by a mower guard thrown by a fellow-workman, Charles Wiley, with whom he was quarrelling, at Massey-Harris' yesterday morning, is reported as much improved. The lung is not penetrated, and he is progressing favorably.

For Sale. The management of the Clerks' softball team have decided to sell out, and the men are now offered to the highest bidder. The team has had bad luck since it entered the league, and for some reason simply couldn't pick up. Tenders will be received by Manager Ed. Slattery up to 1 o'clock next Wednesday noon. Address all communications to K. H.

Foreigners for St. Kitts. Fifty foreigners left the city yesterday to take up work at St. Catharines. They will be employed there in the various factories. Mr. Louis Stander was asked several days ago for them, but he would not let them go until he ascertained why the men were wanted, as he would not allow them to become strikebreakers. He was satisfied that all was well and the men left for work as promised.

For $14 this Company, with their big organization and buying facilities make strictly to order and to measure, and state that they can give their patrons better clothes, better linings, better workmanship, better values, every way, and better service than they can obtain elsewhere.

As the reason given is, that their business is not organized solely for the production and sensational advertising of low priced clothes, but on the other hand is fully equipped for fine clothes-making on the largest scale—and the benefit of their old-fashioned experience, of our highly paid cutting staff and our skilled workpeople, is entirely given to the production of clothes at one price.

Tip Top Tailors guarantee nothing but all wool fabrics, well woven and rigidly shrunken, in an excellent range of patterns, and to any man who is not perfectly satisfied they refund his money cheerfully.

Notice is hereby given that payment for 1914, according to the Collector's notice, may be made to the Collector or City Treasurer at his office any time on or before July 6th (the 5th being Sunday).

In case the first instalment is not paid by that time, five per cent will be added to the instalment due, and the whole amount of the tax (both instalments) may be collected at once by distress or sale.

Persons who pay both instalments on or before the 6th of July will be allowed one per cent discount off the amount of the last instalment.

Those who pay the first instalment on time will be allowed until the 5th of October to pay the second instalment. If not then paid, five per cent will be added.

The Treasurer cannot receive the taxes unless the Collector's notice is brought.

Persons entitled to pay taxes, and who have not received the notice will please notify the Collector at once, as duplicate cannot be furnished in the last days of collection.

ARTHUR K. BUNNELL, Treasurer, City of Brantford.

THE PEOPLE'S POPULAR SERVICE—COME

BETHEL HALL

SUNDAY, 7 P.M.

Mr. Chas. Innes of Toronto will preach the Gospel. You will enjoy this service. Come and bring a friend.

With the City Police

There was not a great deal of business for Magistrate Livingston to do at the police court this morning, when three cases figured in the list.

William Henry, an Indian, was fined $25 and costs for having whiskey on his person. He was found hardly able to keep his feet, and had made an effort to finish the flask, but there still remained a wee drop in the bottle. If he had drunk it all the fine would have been $5 and costs, but because the spirit was found upon him it meant an additional fine of $20.

John Sardinski, a boy of 9, was given a talking to by the magistrate. He had proved incorrigible and would not attend school. Under the fatherly advice of the bench he promised to reform, and was allowed to go.

The last defendant on the list, another Indian, Wm. Silver Smith, did not appear, and the court adjourned.

PERSONAL NOTES.

The St. Catharines lady golfers will be the guests of the Brantford ladies on the links here next Friday.

June Cup The Brantford golfers are competing this afternoon for the June cup. There promises to be a large number of entries.

A kitchen shower in honor of Miss Gertrude Scarle in view of her approaching marriage was held last evening by Mrs. C. Ramsay at her residence, St. Paul's avenue. A large number of guests were present and a most enjoyable time was spent by all.
