GRANDMA USED SAGE TEA TO DARKEN HAIR
She Mixed Sulphur with It to Restore Color, Gloss, Youthfulness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea with Sulphur, a sure remedy for hair troubles. An easier way to get a 50 cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound than any drug store. It is ready for use. This is the old time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant. This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite and is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Paris, Jan. 9.—While on his back to Paris from the Rome front, the Entente Allies minister Briand made the following statement at Turin to a correspondent of The Petit Journal:
"All the chiefs of the Allied commands decided to maintain strictest reserve as to the character and scope of the decisions reached at the conference. I may say, however, that during the discussion found that an absolute accord existed among the Allies. We decided to accentuate still further co-ordination of our efforts."
"Such was the principal objective of the conference, and it has been realized. I am personally highly satisfied with the results of our meeting and after the conference at Rome have more than ever a deep conviction of our ultimate victory."
After the premier's arrival Paris another brief council was held by French ministers in the room at the railroad terminus. The Petit Parisien says the conference considered three questions:
Concerning Greece, in regard which Italy hitherto had maintained reservations, concerning
