HOHENZOLLERN IN FRESH CONSPIRACY AGAINST ALLIES?

Statesmen Suspect He is Planning Monster German Federation

IS KAISER AT BACK OF INTRIGUE?

Statesmen Believe Ex-German Ruler May Yet be Plotting Against Allies

ABDICATION VOID? Lord Insists Fangs of War Not Wanted in Holland

By Courier Leased Wire
 London, Nov. 18.—The rumors that William Hohenzollern, the former German emperor, may possibly return to Germany as suggested by the Berlin Lokal Anzeiger's hint that he would not be refused an entry to that country, have created a considerable stir here. They are featured by several of the morning newspapers as creating an uncertain situation which is rendered more doubtful by accounts of the work of the German propagandists in several countries.

The fear mainly is that the former emperor would sooner or later become the centre of a reactionary movement in Germany, when the revolutionary storm has subsided. The advocates of the return to his former empire.

On the other hand the fact of the former ruler placing himself in the hands of the new rulers of Germany would be welcomed in other quarters. These rulers, the Morning Post argues should be able to execute judgment upon him and in so doing would only be acting as fitting instruments of justice.

There is everywhere, however, agreement in the idea that the emperor's presence in Holland is intolerable, and it is insisted that he must somehow be made impotent to do further mischief. The reports from Holland show that the uninvited guest is being more and more unwelcome there, notwithstanding his quiet retirement. Belated advice from the Hague show that the Dutch Socialists rebuffed in parliament on Friday last their objection to his presence, and demanded that he be transported. A dispatch to the Daily Mail from The Hague reports that the German fleet will sail for Antwerp on Thursday. A resolution of the Soldiers' and Workmen's Council in Berlin demands the extradition of the former emperor and the former king, as well as certain generals. The resolution expresses belief that the emperor exercises too much influence in Holland and forms the centre of counter-revolutionary intrigues.

The Daily Express sees the possibility of a plot to trick the Allies and create a federation far exceeding in strength and resources the former German empire. In the course of a long article this newspaper contends that the former emperor is back of Chancellor Ebert, former Chancellor Maximilian of Baden, and Field Marshal von Hindenburg, and it lays emphasis upon the fact that the emperor signed no formal abdication and issued no valedictory message. A number of leading Allied diplomats and statesmen, including Lord Robert Cecil, under secretary of state for foreign affairs, believe that something is brewing in Germany in the direction of a plot to trap the Allies. The Express declares, "The facts appear to indicate, it adds, the existence of a plan to foment social revolutions in Holland and Switzerland and possibly in Sweden through pro-German agitators. It is also desired according to these indications, the newspaper declares, to foment social revolution in allied countries, to provide for the eventual return of the former emperor to Germany, the restoration of the old regime and the formation of a greatly extended German federation."

BOLSHEVIKI DESERVE NO CLEMENCY

Lord Robert Cecil Says Britain Would be Justified in Seeking Redress

By Courier Leased Wire
 London, Nov. 18.—Replying to an allusion by Arthur Ponsonby, member of Parliament for the Stirling district of Scotland, that there were rumors of Great Britain sending a military expedition to Russia, Lord Robert Cecil, under secretary of state for foreign affairs, said today in the House of Commons that he could give no information without consulting with the War Office.

He reviewed the grave offenses of the Bolshevik Government, saying: "If they had been committed by any civilized government Great Britain would be justified in seeking redress by force of arms."

He declared that the Bolshevik Government was entitled to no consideration whatever from the British Government.

TERRITORY OCCUPIED BY ENEMY

District West of Rhine Entered—Troops Greeted With Wild Enthusiasm

PRISONERS RELEASED

Thousands of Captives Taken by Germans Are Being Set Free

SUFFERED TERRIBLY

By Courier Leased Wire
 Paris, Monday, Nov. 18.—Progress by French troops advancing to occupy territory west of the Rhine is traced in the official statement issued by the war office to-night. The statement set forth:

"Our troops continued their march this morning and are being received with growing enthusiasm by the population of the occupied zones. The enemy has abandoned enormous quantities of material, locomotives, railroad cars, automobiles and magazines of all sorts. The thousands of French, Russian, English and Italian prisoners are entering our lines from German prisons. Their condition is indescribable."

"In Belgium we have passed the railway running between Henrich and Eupenville. Further west we have reached the line of Hottange, Hottange and Stratum. Our troops are approaching the town of Neuchâtel."

"In Holland we have occupied St. Marie-aux-Chenes, on the south bank of the West River, and on the coast between St. Armand and the remains of the helmet of Saar. Our troops have made solemn entry into Saarbürg, Dieux and Merschang. In Alsace, we have crossed Col Saeveren and have installed our advance guards at the gate of Wasselheim and Holsheim. Further south we are in the proximity of the Rhine from north of Nour Brionach as far as the Swiss frontier."

"The people of the occupied regions do not cease to give our troops touching evidences of their love for France."

NO FRESH INQUIRY INTO THE FATE OF KITCHENER

Hampshire Suspect by a Mine, Says Rt. Hon. T. J. MacNamara in Commons—Impossible to Salvage Wreck

By Courier Leased Wire
 London, Nov. 18.—(Canadian Press dispatch.)—The House of Commons yesterday in answer to a question asked by Hon. T. J. MacNamara stated that it had not been possible to salvage or examine the wreck of the mineship Hampshire on which Lord Kitchener was lost. The Government saw no reason to alter the decision to publish the report of the official inquiry. The ship had been sunk by a mine.

Mr. Cecil asked for a definite statement that the peace terms would include full reparation by Germany, including the cost of the war to the Allies. Mr. Bonar Law replied that the Government had arrived at no decision.

Sir Richard Cooper asked if the Commons would be given an opportunity to express an opinion before the appointment of the British delegates to the peace conference was confirmed. To this Mr. Bonar Law replied in the negative.

ORDER BEING RESTORED BY SEVERAL MEASURES IN BERLIN

Rioting Has Been Suppressed With an Iron Hand—Streets of German Capital Resounded to Strains of 'Marseillaise' Last Week

CITY TAKES OVER CONTROL OF COAL

Delivery of All Fuel Will be Regulated From the Central Office

Mayor MacBride this morning took over control of all coal arriving in the city. For this purpose an office has been opened in the old post office building at corner of Dalhousie and George streets. Mr. MacBride returned to the city on Friday after a charge, and will act as Deputy Fuel Commissioner. In his hands will be placed all matters pertaining to an equitable distribution. No person will be permitted to procure more than one ton at a time, unless the supplies reaching the city warrant. Since April 1st the dealers have been permitted to procure, regardless of quantity, up to one ton of coal, and to supply the same to their customers as to quantities, etc. In addition, the city has supplied a considerable quantity of coal through the factories. One of the dealers here, however, failed to fill the coupon orders taken some time ago, and a notice was issued to coordinate all supplies in order that every house may be supplied before winter sets in. The supplies reaching the several dealers will be held, and the orders filled in order that every house may be supplied before winter sets in. Out of each car, however, a certain amount of coal will be left with the dealers in order that citizens may secure small quantities until such time as deliveries can be made. The central office will be maintained until such time as the possibility of an emergency is averted.

Should the supplies reaching the dealers prove inadequate, the demand then the city's reserve supply will be used to procure any shortage.

The mayor said: "During the recent epidemic here, the regular dealers had any coal to speak of, and it was indeed fortunate that we had an emergency supply on hand. There is no telling but what there may be just as great an emergency later on. Now that things have returned to normal, it is only right that the dealers should give the public service. Our supply was secured for emergency purposes, and we are not by any means over the winter yet."

"Citizens who are without coal should place their orders at once at the old Postoffice building. The office will only remain open should conditions make it necessary."

In response to the differences in prices being charged for the coal and independent coal, there does not seem to be any way of overcoming this. The matter is one over which the U. S. and Canadian Governments should have jurisdiction. Local fuel commissioners have no power to regulate prices. Section 14 of Fuel Regulations reads as follows: "Retail dealers shall be permitted to charge a profit not to exceed fifty cents (50c) per net ton of any coal over and above the average cost price to each retail dealer of the said coal and including a reasonable proportion of the cost of overhead expenses and fixed charges. On the sale of any quantity of coal less than one net ton, the same proportion of profit may be charged except that on any quantity less than two hun-

OLD LIBERALS AND LABOR PARTY OPPOSE L. GEORGE

Stage is Set For General Election in Britain; Political Interest Submerged, However, by the Attention Paid Closing Events of War

By Courier Leased Wire
 LONDON, Nov. 18.—By the Associated Press.—In normal times the country would be in a fever of excitement over the election. Interest in politics, however, show submerged under the greater interest in the closing events of the war.

The political situation is peculiar because there is only one man in the field, and there is no concentrated opposition to him. All factions approve of Premier Lloyd George's reconstruction plans, as far as they go. What opposition exists is divided into sections.

The fact is the old Liberal organization, led by former Premier Asquith, which opposes the election as untimely, principally because only 40 per cent. of the soldiers, according to their estimates, will be able to vote. They say the soldiers have the greatest claim to a vote in the settlement of the war.

The other section is the Labor Party, which has its own program, including the nationalization of railways, mines and other public works, with compensation to the owners.

Lord Northcliffe's papers and the leading Liberal organs invite the premier to be more specific in the statement of his plans, and ask him to tell how he proposes to secure land for the soldiers, which is one of the chief planks in his platform. They ask how he will pay for this land, and how he will finance his proposal for the extensive building of workmen's houses.

Mr. Lloyd George partially answered these questions last Saturday, and says that the cabinet has not had time yet to prepare bills.

CALAMITY, SAYS ASQUITH

By Courier Leased Wire
 London, Nov. 18.—Herbert H. Asquith, former premier, in delivering an election speech at Claxton Hall, Westminster, tonight, said that when the whole future development of the world was in the crucible, it was both a blessing and a calamity that the country should be plunged into the tumult of a general election.

He said his case against holding an election was greatly strengthened by the fact that the men most entitled to exercise an opinion on the reconstruction of affairs—the soldiers in the field—would be unable to vote. The House of Commons which will be brought into existence, he said, will be of such a nature as to lack the right authority.

He said that he was prepared to give fullest support to any government which grappled with the problems of reconstruction on progressive lines, but he added: "When the lion and lamb lie down together, it is something down together, and that the lion is found that the lion has not lost its taste for live mutton."

BRITISH FORCES END ON GALLI POLI POINT

Cross Shell Pitted Gall Where Thousands of Lives Were Wasted in 1915; Turks Surrendered Dardanelles Forts

By Courier Leased Wire
 Salonika, Saturday, Nov. 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—Over the shell-pitted ground of Gallipoli Point the British landed peacefully at dusk to-night, using as stepping stones the bullet-riddled hulks grounded under fire in 1915. From these vessels thousands went toward the Turkish batteries and death during the ill-fated campaign three years ago. The British are occupying the forts along the lower Dardanelles, which the Turks are burning over. They have already placed 200 cannon in the hands of the British. In the material which has been turned over are 20 big reserves of munitions and shells of German origin. The Turkish commander at Fort Cheik on the Dardanelles was formerly an agent under the German command of forces defending the straits, he said to the correspondent.

"From the straits the submarines harassed the Atlantic, and were deterred, preventing America to enter the war. Germans knew their cause was lost. German commanders in Turkey opposed the submarine campaign directed by a man, but a powerful minority in Berlin overruled them. Since that time Turkish unwillingness to continue the war has grown steadily."
