NO SLEEP—NO REST.

LL do not appreciate the words of John G. Saxe, who sang, "God bless the man who first invented sleep," but every sufferer who is not wanting to those who have suffered as Mrs. White, of Mass. township, who became so ill with nervous troubles that, to quote her own letter, "Mr. Donald McEneaney, a well-known resident of that illustrious section of North Ontario: 'My sister had not slept a night for over three months. She could not have been when I second informant that some American Nervine became the first dose of this medicine, and she felt better the next night, and gained in strength and perfectly well, and has no sign of nervousness. This is a wonderful sign of medicine in the severest cases of nervousness, and the greatest trouble to be found anywhere in the world.'"

The Australian butter export trade is now at its lowest ebb. Statistics re. England from Australia last October realized 100s. per cwt. Some later arrivals have reached as high as 104s. If the Australian can realize these figures after such a long sea voyage, surely Canada, which is so much nearer the market, can send over a quality of butter that should command higher figures.
