The pulpit of St. Andrew's church was occupied last Sunday morning and evening by Rev. Prof. Falconer, of Pine Hill College, Halifax. The congregations were good at both services, notwithstanding the bad state of the weather. The text at the morning service was in John 11: 25, "Lord, in whose hand we have our souls, the words of eternal life." At the evening service the text was Luke 11: 25-26. Both sermons were thoughtful and stirring, and were very much enjoyed.

The exhibition of physical culture given by the pupils of Acadia Seminary last Friday evening was one of the most interesting entertainments of the season and reflected much credit on Miss Hall and reflected much credit on the talented instructor who had charge. The programme began with an address by Dr. Sawyer, who explained the work along this line that had been done by the institution during the winter, and outlined the character of the coming exhibition. The exercises comprised marching, posing, wand-drill, etc. Two solos by Miss Lida Munro added not a little to the success of the entertainment.
