A True Patriot. The proposal that Messrs. Lemieux and Borden should go to London to discuss with the imperial authorities the best means whereby Canada can contribute to the strength of the imperial navy, brings this remark from the Eastern Chronicle.

As for Lemieux and Borden it would be better for them to stay at home and attend to their departmental work, as they are needed on their jobs. The first named is the minister that destroyed the trade of Nova Scotia weekly or semi-weekly newspapers with the United States, and if he were shifted to another job we would like it.

As for the warlike Sir Frederick, were we a general and had him in a battle we would give him the position that David gave Goliath.

YOUNG WORTMAN STILL LEADS IN PRIZE TRIP TO OLD COUNTRY CONTEST.

Master W. K. Wortman, of Wolfville, still leads in the Standard of Empire free trip to the Old Country contest. He is making a good fight and on April 23rd had 1200 votes.

If he is well supported Wolfville is expected to represent Nova Scotia in the contest.

Major Harvey has given Wortman the benefit of his assistance and advice. Any others wishing to help this young hustler to win the prize for Wolfville can communicate with him direct at his address, University avenue, Wolfville.

WHAT THE BOY WROTE.

A young man once wrote to his father, saying, 'I am well, only I don't feel like making any sort of physical exertion.' Thousands of people feel exactly like that young man--and they are not lazy people, either. They are, generally, dyspeptic, with a fine touch of indigestion. They need a short course of Mother Selig's Syrup to put their stomachs, liver and bowels into healthy activity, so that their food will nourish and strengthen them. Mr. George J. Hays, of 3 Kingston P.O., Gloucester Co., N. S., who suffered for years from dyspepsia, writes: 'I became weak and unable to work. After trying many other remedies without success I took a small bottle of Mother Selig's Syrup and it gave me the relief at once. I received 10 more bottles, which I took to all other medicines for stomach troubles.' Price 25c. Sold by all druggists.
