The Name of Minister Now Seven Years | Mayor States Loss Will Be Lighter Than Dead. Cincinnati, May 28. - The General

ynod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, which is now in session Cincinnati, to-day restored the r drawn up. Several joint agencies will be es-tablished in Africa, including British South of a minister who has been dead seven years to the Church rolls. The name is that of Rev. Nevin Woodside, formerly of Pittsburg, who, in 1880, had a breach with the General Synod, and refused to come under its authority in certain matters. The minister was suspended, and he became the founder of the Grant street church in Pittsburg, now one of the strongest churches in the city. The suspended minister also founded the Presbytery of Pittsburg and Ontario, comprising the Pittsburg Church, and the Reformed Presbyterian Churches of Toronto and Teeswater.

The name of the minister was restored to the rolls through the efforts of a committee appointed for that purpose by the Pittsburg and Ontario Presbyterian Church about a year ago. The restoration of the name of Rev. Mr. Woodside carries with it the reunion of the Pittsburg and Ontario Presbytery with the General Synod, and very largely increases the strength of the Reformed Presbyterian Church. The vote on the resolution was unanimous.

Nell—She admits that she is terribly f a minister who has been dead seven ears to the Church rolls. The name St. Petersburg, May 29.—There has been an epidemic of suicides in St. Petersburg that has lasted for three months. The average number of deaths each month has been 85, and the high each month has been So, and the high record for a single day was reached this week, when no less than eighteen per-sons did away with themselves.

Many of the cases are due to destitu-tion, but despondency has been the pre-vailing cause.

New York, May 30.—The jury in the trial in Jersey City of Theodore S. Whitmore, of Brooklyn, charged with the murder of his wife Lena, to-day reported a disagreement. Judge Swayze sent the jury back to their room with a request that they agree if possible.
