A Savage's Description of a Railroad

Mr. C. J. Phillips, Busiless Agent in Uganda of the Church Missionary Society, throws light upon the workings of the native mind by quoting a remarkable letter in which a native member of the Katikiro's (Prime Minister's) party give a description of the Uganda Railway—
"My friend, I can tell you the Europeans have done a marvellous thing to make the railway and the trains. They fasten ten or fifteen houses together and attach them to a fireplace which is as big as an elephant, and the road it goes on is as smooth as the stem of a plantain. It goes as fast as a swallow flying, and everything you see outside flies past you like a stark from a fire, If it were to drop off one of the bridges bot one in it would be saved, for it goes dreadfully quick. The hills it passes are as high as those of Koki, and they have bridged over great valleys, which are as deep as that you see when you look from the top of Namirembo, so deep that you cannot see the bottom when you are going

Later there follows a description of

Later there follows a description of a ship.

"It is as deep as our two-storeyed house and as wide as the King's road in Mengo, and it is as long as from the Katikiro's fence to the gate of the King's enclosure. It has three tall poles in it and a big throat out of which comes smoke, which is as wide as the new drum in the church at Namirembo. The rooms in it go down three storeys and the boards of these I cannot describe to you, for such have not been seen before. There is a lot of metal work about htem, too, but these also I cannot describe, for it is so fine. There are children on board, and a flock of sheep, and places to wash in attached to every place where a chief sleeps, such as even our King has never possessed." places to wash in attached to eve place where a chief sleeps, such even our King has never possesses—From the "Mind of the Savage" the July Strand.

It proved a most successful and enjoyable one. The day being fine, a large Hamilton held a joint picnic with the able one. The day being fine, a large crowd turned out, to the number of 200 or more. The picnic was opened by the stirring strains of the bagpipes, manipulated in true Scottish style by Messrs. Muir and McLeod, of Toronto. In addition to the regular list of games, races, etc., which the committees had arranged, there was a special price given by the etc., which the committees had arranged, there was a special prize given by the Hamilton society to the lady member with the youngest baby, from the Toronto society, the winner being Mrs. Fred Brenner. Also a special prize given by the Toronto society to the lady member with the largest family from the Hamilton society, the lucky member being Mrs. James Cutt. The prizes were numerous and useful. The tables were bountifully spread with all manner of numerous and useful. The tables v bountifully spread with all manner of dainty things, including many good old fashioned hannocks, scons, oat cakes, etc., which were all heartily partaken of, after which speeches were given by Mr. Irvine, President of the Toronto society, and Mr. Dearness, President of the Hamilton society. Mr. Scott was then called upon to give a speech relating to the joint pienic of twenty years ago. The young people indulged in a dance. The music was very much appreciated by all, being given by Messrs. Muir, McLeod and Aitken. The Toronto society then marched to the station, followed by a few of the Hamilton society, headed by the pipers.

Sheepshead Bay, July 4.—S. C. Hildreth's Dalmatian, quoted at 7 to 1 in the betting, won the Great Trial Stakes, six furlongs, at Sheepshead Bay Saturday, defeating a high class tield of youngsters, including J. R. Keene's hitherto unbeaten Sweep. The defeat of the colt Sweep was a great surprise to youngsters, including J. R. Keene's hitherto unbeaten Sweep. The defeat of the colt Sweep was a great surprise to the public, as he was looked upon by many as being a second Colin. Sweep broke in front at the start, but was at once joined by Lovetie. These two went out to set the pace, and ran heads apart to the turn into the main track. Here Scoville drew his whip on Sweep to make the colt keep up, but to no avail, as Lovetie drew away, only to be joined by Dalmatian, and in a hard drive the Hildreth colt won by a nose, with Lovetie five lengths before Sweep.
