Made to order, and warranted to fit, at

Mrs. [illegible] is real—we are sorry
For, thy birth is not a dream;
Thy little heart beats quick and fast,
Thy little eyes are bright as gems;
Thy little ears are fine to hear;
Thy little mouth can speak;
Thy little hands are strong to cling;
Thy little feet are weak.

Not selfishness, nor pleasure,
Is our only aim below;
Or to win wealth and treasure
The only bliss we wish to know.

Life is short, time is fleeting,
We should hurry up and do
That which brings to heaven's greeting,
That which settles us below.

Bring us aid through life to battle,
Who'll gird her love to the strife;
No longer be mere straying cattle,
Find a tender loving wife.

Beware the future, how'er pleasant
Our fondest dream of it may be;
Our freedom, liberty, past and present
Our pleasures we may come to see.

Do not married men remind us,
We, though erring, yet have time
To amend and leave behind us
Names unsullied by the crime.

A crime the ladies all declare,
Being single through life's rapid
run;
No victim to their wedded cares,
Bent on freedom, pleasure, fun.

Let us then be up and doing,
With a heart for any fate;
Still in honor's track pursuing,
Find a partner, though its late.

C. E. M. EGAR.

ODDS AND ENDS.

"You're doing a smashing business," said the gardener to the hailstones.

Mother: "Get on Tommy; why don't you ask a blessing?" Tommy: "'Cause I don't like the look of the potatoes."

A Hartforder advises a very slender friend to chalk his head and go to a masquerade ball as a billiard cue.

A TRADE DEPRESSION.—Lady (to gravedigger): "Is it true, Peter, you're leaving us?" Gravedigger: "Oh, ay, Miss; we see I canna get constant wark hereabouts."

Two men exert themselves to no purpose—one is the man who tries to have the last word with his wife; and the other is he, who having had the last word, tries to make her confess that she is in the wrong.

A clergyman who had forgotten his notes last Sabbath morning apologised to his congregation by saying: "This morning I shall depend upon the Lord for what I am to say, but in the afternoon I shall come better prepared."

What those "sweets" were I never could exactly discover. After some little experience of what is called public life, I will venture to assert, with considerable confidence, that, as a lucrative calling, the trade of politics is about the most beggarly pursuit which any gentleman can take up.—Once a week.

LATEST FROM DUNDEE.—(Where, readers will be happy to know the Maids' Rebellion has revived in great force) Mistress—"I did not ring Mary." Mary—"I know that, mum; but as I was moping in the kitchen, I thought I'd come and sit a bit with you?"

The other Sunday the following was posted up in the lobby of the Cambridge Washington county, Presbyterian church.—"Notice—The person who stole "Songs of the Sanctuary" from seat No 32, should improve the opportunity of singing them here, as he will have no occasion to sing them hereafter."

In a recent address before the Union Theological Seminary, Mr Cuyler said: "My brilliant neighbor, Beecher, has unwisely said that 'doctrine is only the skin of truth set up and stuffed?' Just imagine St. Paul writing to Timothy, 'Give attendance to—stuffed skin of truth!'"

An Irishman, to whom some wonderful story was told on the authority of a penny paper, disbelieved it, saying he distrusted all he saw in the "cheap print." "Why don't you believe the cheap paper?" he was asked, "I don't think they can afford to spake the truth for the money."

What is the world coming to when even the babies exhibit such alarming precocity as did a little seven year old charmer in Battleboro, who the other day, sent her "beau" a love-letter couched in the following apt and possibly familiar words: "They that seek me early shall find me."

CHEMICAL ANALYSIS.—A Scotch laird, on a market-day in Kilmarnock, went into a tavern with a friend, and ordered some whiskey. The waiter, when he set down the measure, asked if they wished to have water along with the spirits. "Na," said the laird "had ye no better try to tak' out the water that's in't already?"

LOOK BEFORE YOU LEAP.—It is possible, said an experienced uncle to an adolescent nephew, to be tolerably comfortable in marriage, if your wife enjoys good health and you enjoy as much money as will enable you to afford to gratify all her inclinations besides your own.

"That's a very stupid brute of yours, John," said a Scotch minister to his parishioner, the post-dealer, who drove his merchandise from door to door in a small cart drawn by a donkey. "I never see you but the creature is braying." "Ah Sir, 'y' drive the post-dealer, "ye ken the beast's warm when friends meet."

NEW USE FOR A DOG.—We often hear excuses of various kinds for the folly of keeping a dog about one, but that of the English collier is something new in that way. Said his comrade: "Ay, Geordie, thee has lost th'awd dog?" "Ay," "Thee hast gotten another?" "Ay, man; ye see a shocht a lukit ane stark-necked without a bit of a dog about my heels."

A FEAT OF MEMORY.—A simple Highland girl, on her way home for the North, called, as she passed by Crieff, upon an old master with whom she formerly served. Being kindly invited by him to share in the family dinner, and the usual ceremony of asking a blessing having been gone through, the poor girl, anxious to convey to him an idea of how her ancient friend, exclaimed, "Ah, master, ye maun hae a grand memory, for that's the grace ye lint me when I was o' yon seven years ago."

A more or less worthy Scotch wife was remonstrated with by her minister on her habit of beating her husband; she explained that her husband's conduct was not all that it ought to be. The minister, recommending kindness and forgiveness, exhorted her to "heap coals of fire upon his head." "Weel, minister," replied she now enlightened with "I'll try the coals, but I may tell ye that two or three kettles o' boiling water has wrocht no improvement."

A correspondent at Christiana, Pa., sends us the following of an aged farmer who was lately known to have entertained who dropped in to pay a passing visit to a neighbor, who was equally well-known as a temperance man and a hater of tobacco. On sitting down the old aunty pulled from her pocket a long pipe and commenced filling it, to the great disgust of her host. The man maintained his composure several minutes; but the fumes became too powerful for him, and he broke out:

"Aunt Chloe, do you think you are a Christian?"

"Yes, brudder; I 'spects I is."

"Do you believe in the Bible?"

"Yes, brudder."

"Do you know there is a passage there which says that nothing unclean shall inherit the kingdom of heaven?"

"Yes, I has heard of it."

"Do you believe it?"

"Yes."

"Well, Chloe, you can not enter into the kingdom of heaven, because there is smoke in connection with the breath of a Christian. When I go to heaven, I speaks to Jesus my head himself me?"

which can be cured by a timely resort to this standard preparation, as has been proved by the hundreds of testimonials received by the proprietors. It is acknowledged by many prominent physicians to be the most reliable preparation ever introduced for the relief and cure of all Lung complaints, and is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of over forty years. When resorted to in season it seldom fails to effect a speedy cure in the most severe cases of Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Asthma, Colds, Sore Throat, Pains or Soreness in the Chest and Side, Liver Complaint, Bleeding at the Lungs, &c. Wistar's Balsam does not dry up a Cough, and leave the cause behind, as is the case with most preparations, but it loosens and cleanses the lungs, and allays irritation, thus removing the cause of the complaint.

This is to testify that I have derived a beneficial effect from B-nd's Tonic Bitters and found it to be by-far the best article in use for Dyspepsia and Liver Complaints, &c., &c.

JOSEPH SHIPLY, Wesleyan Minister.

Goderich, Aug. 27 1872.

Mr. John Bond,

Dear Sir,

I have great pleasure in recommending your Tonic Bitters as an excellent thing for giving tone to the stomach and strengthening the system generally. I have found it a very beneficial thing in my own personal case, and have known others to use it with like satisfaction.

Yours &c.,

J. G. KAY, M. W. C. Minister

Aurora, May 30th, 1864.

I feel perfectly free to testify to the benefit I have derived from the use of Mr. Bond's Tonic Bitters. They have relieved repeated attacks of dyspepsia, in my case from their use and prospective

"A Large Soul in a Small Body."

The above cut represents our $70 Organs.

WHILE thanking our former agents and customers for their liberal patronage and confidence for the past year [and which we still hope to retain,] we would respectfully call their attention to our style No. 61. This Organ being a 6 octave, Double Reed [U Scale] is a very desirable instrument for advanced players. Pianists or parties educating themselves for the pianoforte: and as a parlor Instrument, it meets every requirement.—Our No. 30 is the same as 61, but different style, and more expensive. Our No. 32 is pronounced by all who have seen it to be the finest Instrument in the world for the price; this organ has two complete setts same as No 30, with two additional half setts, viz, Hautboy and Vox Celeste, making four setts from middle C up and also 1½ octaves of Bass Profundo. We are the first and only parties who make this line of Instruments, and the universal satisfaction they have given, and the immense sale of these Organs, show that they are appreciated and encourages us to make them a speciality.

Applications for agencies, where we have no agents, at all times confidentially solicited.
