only one member has withdrawn by card to join Winnipeg Lodge, and his place was taken by a member from Adsa Craig Lodge, No. 102. Financially, Maple Leaf is in a very flourishing condition, as, after meeting all current expenses, and manifesting their fraternity by aiding to send a sick member to a distant city for medical treatment, and making an appropriation of two assessments for each member, they still begin the new long to give and the children always receivers. This the balance is destroyed in each, and both are injured—the children es pecially, in acquiring habits of selfish ness. They ought rather to be accustomed to receive gratefully, to give generously, and to do both with gladness, thus learning that there are both duties and both pleasures which should never be entirely separated. each member, they still begin the new be entirely separated.

year with a comfortable balance in hand.

The newly elected The recently elected cliners were duly installed on Monday evening, Jan. 10th, by Past Marter Workman Sheppard.

The following extract from the report of the second trustees will assemble two hours later. the Recorder will show something of the purpose and benefit of the Order:

In the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of Ontario, we have in round numbers a membership of 12,000. During the year the angel of death has taken away 80 of our number, necessitating but 14 assessments of one dollar each, thus giving us insurance at the low rate of $7.00 per $1,000 (the beneficiary certificate being for $2,000). The death rate is thus 6j in the thousand, which shows that only the best rigks are taken by the order. But look at the beneficent results of our year's work in this jurisdiction. These 14 assessments mean that we have been enabled to send $160,000 into 80 bereaved homes, to sustain the hearts and place above want the widows and fatherless, some of whom, but for this timely aid, might have been left to the pitiless charity of the outside world, and thus we have practically illustrated our motto of 'Charity, Hope and Protection.'"

We must accept the fact that, as most of us are not yet noble enough or spiri-love we do teer to away. This allusion is not to matrimonial affection in any exclusive seuse. That, of course, demands even a more vigilant care than any other to preserve it in all its beauty and fulness, and to cause it to deepen and strengthen as life goes on. But it is desired here to emphasize what is seldom insisted on,—viz., the secredness of all love—that of parents and children, brothers and eisters, friends and associates, as well as that of nearer and dearer ties.
