CENSUS FIGURES WILL TELL STORY OF CANADA'S PEOPLE AND WEALTH

Consists Man, Will Have a Lot of Questions to Ask, and When the Answers Are All in and Tabulated Fully, Next, Explaining, Words Knowing About Canada and Canadians Will Be There—People Must Co-Operate With Enumerators.

The census, or gathering of statistics with respect to the material affairs of the Dominion of Canada, will take place on the first of June, 1911, and all information gathered shall have reference to the same date, unless otherwise specified in the schedules or determined by the minister of agriculture.

From the following information gleaned from the schedules and instructions issued under the direction of the minister of agriculture, and of direct importance to the big cities, may be learned some idea of the immense amount of labor entailed, and the success of which can only be obtained by the co-operation of the Canadian people everywhere in this Dominion.

Schedule No. 1 comprises the population by name, personal description, and the following questions: Name of each person in family, place of habitation, sex, relationship to head of family or household, whether single, married, widowed, divorced or legally separated, month of birth, year of birth, and age at last birthday. The following questions are to be answered: Country or place of birth, year of immigration to Canada, if an immigrant, year of naturalization, if formerly an alien; racial or tribal origin, nationality and religion. Five questions appear under the heading of profession, occupation or means of living, to wit: Chief occupation or trade, employment, more than at chief occupation, or trade, if any, employer, employee, or working on your own account.

Better Figure This Out, you otherwise private affairs as in the matter of wage-earners, thus: State where person is employed, "on farm," "in wooden mill," "at foundry shop," "in drug store," etc. Weeks employed in 1910 at other than chief occupation or trade, and hours of working time per week at other occupation, if any. Total earnings in 1910 from chief occupation or trade, and any other than chief occupation or trade, if any, in dollars and cents. If you are insured the government wants to know, and asks the amount of life, accident, or sickness, or coat of insurance in census year. Your education and language will also be looked after, and asked whether you can read or write, and the cost of education in 1910 for persons over 16 years of age at college, convent or university. With regard to your physical condition, the following questions are asked: Whether you are blind, deaf and dumb, crazy or lunatic, idiotic or silly, if you are unfortunate, enough to come under this heading you must specify at what age the infirmity appeared. Schedule No. 2 deals with mortality, and compensation, and these are subdivided into 22 questions, as follows:

- 1.—Name of person.
- 2.—Single, married, widowed, divorced, or legally separated.

DECORATE GRAVES OF SOLDIERS IN WINNIPEG

Parade With 2,000 in Line Held From Fort Osborne Barracks to Cemetery—Hundreds of Regiments Represented.

Winnipeg, May 16—Over two thousand soldiers, young and old, representing hundreds of regiments of the British military forces and even some celebrated naval commands, paraded to the cemetery of St. John's yesterday afternoon and decorated the graves of departed comrades interred there.

The parade, under most ideal weather conditions, attracted a hundred thousand spectators to various points along the two miles route from the Fort Osborne barracks to the cemetery.

Rev. A. W. Woods addressed the assemblage at the barracks, and Rev. Canon G.H. delivered the sermon at the cemetery. Sir Daniel McLaughlin, lieutenant governor and Col. S. D. Steele, M.V.O., C.B., D.O.C., reviewed the troops, regular, volunteer and veteran and boy scouts at the barracks.

This was the first occasion in the 25 years the ceremony has been performed, that the city of Winnipeg took official part in it, the members of the council attending in body and contributing many handsome floral emblems to the mass of beautiful offerings laid upon the tombs of Canada's dead soldiers in the local cemetery.

The arrangements were carried out without a hitch, and the cloudy day, after the deluge of the night before, made marching easy and free from dust.

TO BE HELD IN OTTAWA.

Next Competition for Earl Grey Musical and Dramatic Trophies.

Ottawa, Ont., May 15—Although nothing definite has been arranged there is every probability that the next competition for the Earl Grey musical and dramatic trophies will be held in Ottawa. Under the active patronage of His Royal Highness, the Duke of Connaught, the Earl Grey has done something in amateur theatricals in the past, and it is said that on at least one occasion he has both written and acted in the next line between Ottawa, Halifax and Vancouver, and as the last two cities are so far removed from the great bulk of population, and participation of companies would come very high, it is most likely that the lot will fall on Ottawa. Should the competition be held in Ottawa, distinguished amateurs it is certain of being a most successful and brilliant event.

KILLED BY BEAR IN CALGARY.

Twenty-Month-Old Child Wanders Into Yard of Fire Hall and Was Mauled to Death by Animal.

Calgary, Alta., May 14—Lucille, the twenty-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morey, Albin block, died Saturday night as the result of a mauling it received from the bear that was kept in the yard adjoining the fire headquarters. During the afternoon Friday the child strayed from the fire hall and left a warning that it was not to be allowed in the yards again, but somehow it slipped the gate and entered the yard. It until the firemen noticed the bear mauling the helpless body. Chief Smart had the animal killed at once.

Board to Settle Labor Trouble.

Port Arthur, May 13—The minister of labor has consented to appoint a board to inquire into wages troubles between the Canadian Northern Coal and Ore Pools and employees.

THE BIG ITALIAN TRIAL PROCEEDS

The Great Crowd Who Expected Spectacular Development, But Were Disappointed—The Exchange Between the Accused and Accuser Comparatively Mild.

Viterbo, May 12—The great crowd that passed into the court of the assize this morning in expectation of a violent scene between the accused and the informant and Entrice, whom the former denounced as the "great spirit in Canada," was disappointed. The exchange was comparatively mild. Alfano maintaining a magnified composure and his accuser following the lead of the court. It is not known in an effort to establish whether the two draft men in the case are Alfano and Entrice, or Alfano and the informant. The informant repeated his accusations against Alfano to the effect that he had committed the murder of Generra and his wife. Alfano denies every charge.

FARMER'S INSANE VOW.

Listowel Man Swears Off Eating, Drinking and Sleeping.

Geleph, Ont., May 13—Andrew Tremblin, a farmer from Listowel, applied for shelter at the Geleph police station last night, almost starved. He had only three small cakes and a piece of cheese from Monday. He refused food, stating that he had made a vow to God that he would neither eat, drink nor sleep. "I am afraid of what the consequences might be if I broke that vow," he said.

"I left Listowel because I felt that I could not rest any longer the great temptation I had to commit suicide." He had $43 on him.

Canada to Seek Release From Treaty.

London, May 13—Henry Chaplin, M.P., the Unionist leader, speaking at Coleridge, said it could hardly be supposed that Canada would accept complete commercial union with the United States, coupled with the burden of our own obligations to so many other countries, would probably lead Canada to seek release from the most favored nation treaties of Great Britain. The foreign office, added Mr. Chaplin, took the gravest view of the suggested separation of Canada from the imperial treaty system.

Wm. Carroll Sentenced to Death.

Sault Ste Marie, Ont., May 13—Sentence of death was pronounced on William Carroll, aged 55, today, by Justice Britton, and the date of execution was set for July 25. Carroll was found guilty of the murder of Calliam Thelma, aged 21, in a lumber camp, 10 miles back of the river last summer. The jury recommended mercy.

10 YEARS

If You Could Watch Ten Years

If you could watch a prepared roof for ten years—see the effect of snow and hail and ice and heat and frost and wind and fire, you'd certainly know whether that was the roof you wanted or not.

You can do it. In ten minutes time you can determine the effect of ten years of severe wear on any prepared roofing. We've embodied six tests—tests which correspond to ten years of the hardest kind of wear—in a book. It is yours for the asking at our dealer's. The information it contains will enable you to absolutely settle the question of which prepared roofing will last longest and require least repairs.

When you make the tests, include a sample of

Vulcanite Roofing

We know that Vulcanite will carry off the honors. That is why we furnish the tests. We are content to let Vulcanite Roofing sell itself. It is good enough and worthy enough and reasonably enough priced to be its own best salesman.

Six years ago, the first Vulcanite Roof was marketed. Every succeeding year has seen the Vulcanite label covering a better piece of goods. Today it stands alone as the best prepared roofing obtainable at any price. Mind you—the way to prove this statement is yours for the asking. Ask our dealer for the book. Just say, "I want to know about Vulcanite." He'll do the rest.
