One doctor treated him for lumbago and spinal affection—another ordered X-ray treatment, but with no result. Mr. Stackhouse couldn't sleep in bed for six weeks, then, after twelve days in the hospital, his wife urged him to try Gin Pills. To-day he is free from pain, quite active, and attending to business.

Don't neglect your kidneys. If you suffer from pain in the back, constant headaches, swollen hands and ankles, pains in the joints, your kidneys or bladder need immediate attention. Gin Pills should be used at once.

GITTLESON-BERNSTEIN.

Halifax, June 5.—Over two hundred persons were present last evening, upon the occasion of the marriage, at the residence of her parents, 13 Creighton Street, of Minnie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bernstein, and Harry Gittleson, representing the U.S. Picture and Portrait Company, of St. John's, Nfld. The rooms were lavishly decorated with palms and flowers. and Acker's orchestra, present throughout the evening, gave a beautiful rendition of the wedding march-

The ceremony was performed by Rabbi Rootberg, two bridesmaids and two best men being in attendance. Miss Bernstein, who was given away by her father, wore a beautiful gown of white silk, and the conventional veil and orange blossoms, her ouquet being a shower bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaids were Miss Ada Webber, who was attended by William Bernstein, of Boston, brother of the bride, and Miss Gertrude Bernstein, sister of the latter, who was attended

Miss Webber wore a gown of cerese silk and Miss Bernstein one of burnt prange, both girls carrying bouquets of white flowers.

The ceremony was followed by a reception, the festivities being kept up until a late hour. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Reuben, of Montreal, the latter a sister of the groom, and friends from Digby, Yarmouth and a number of the other provincial towns. In all, some sixty congratulatory cables, telegrams and etters were received while the number of wedding gifts was a very large one, giving substantial proof of regard. - It included china, silver, cutglass, etc., in variety. The groom's gift to the bride was a wrist watch

MURPHY-MADDOX.

The wedding of Miss Kitty Murphy, f Water St. West, and daughter of the late Nicholas Murphy, to Mr. Stephen Maddox, of Bay Bulls, took place at St. Patrick's Church at 5.45 last evening, Rev. Fr. Pippy officiating. The bride who was prettily attired in cream satin with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley, was assisted by her cousin. Miss Gertrude Kent, who looked charming in a costume of cream serge with leghorn hat. Her ouquet consisted of carnations. Mr. G. Bidel supported the groom. Following the ceremony which was per formed in the presence of a large gathering of friends of the contract ing parties, a reception was held at the bride's former home. At 8 o'clock the happy couple left by motor car for their future home Bay Bulls. The groom's present to the bride was a cheque, to the bridesmaid a gold brooch and to the best man a gold stick pin. The presents received were many and costly, testifying to the popularity of the bride. The Telegram joins with the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Maddox in extending felicitations.

KEARSEY-SHEEHAN.

At St. Joseph's Presbytery, Hoyles town, a very pretty wedding was solmnized recently, the Rev. Dr. W. P. H. Kitchin, P.P., officiating, The contracting parties were Miss May Sheehan and Mr. Alexander Kearsey was supported by his brother, Mr Wallace Kearsey. As a testimony of he esteem and popularity in which the bride is held, the happy couple and useful presents. That Mr. and Mrs. Kearsey will spend many years of prosperity and unclouded happiness s the earnest wish of their numerous
