

Our Baseball Column. PLAGIARISED AND OTHERWISE.

TO-NIGHT.
The attraction for to-night is the baseball game between the B. I. S. and last year's champions, the Wanderers. Both nines are in excellent form, and a good fast game should be the result. The outcome will be of interest to the fans, as a win for the Irishmen gives them the lead and ousts the Wanderers from any chance of the 1917 pennant. As can be imagined, the Hartnettites are taking no chances, and they hope to have Dr. Pritchard in from Bay Roberts for the game.

STARTS EARLY.
We would remind the players that to-night's game will start at 6.15. This however will make no difference to the fans, as the game will not be over until after 8 o'clock, so that if they stroll along at the regular hour they will see at least 5 innings.

THE PLAYERS.
The following will likely be the lineups to-night:—
Wanderers. B. I. S.
Pitcher—Carew
Catcher—Brazie
1st base—French
2nd base—P. Grace
3rd base—Doyle
Short stop—McGrath
Infield—Williams
Outfield—C. Grace
Manager—Channing
OFFICIALS.
Both the Official Umpires—Major Montgomerie and Mr. F. V. Chesman

—will be on deck to-night, with Messrs. Outerbridge and Mullings scoring.

INTER-TOWN GAMES.
Mr. Chesman received word from Manager Geo. Harvey of the Bell Island team, asking if possible to arrange an exhibition game for to-morrow afternoon, the proceeds of which were to be devoted to the Red Cross Fund. As the cricketers have the field however it could not be arranged, though they have been invited for Saturday afternoon. It is likely that this will be a tryout for the Ironmen preparatory to entering the Inter-Town Series, and the fans are hopeful that the game can be managed.

LEAGUE MEETING.
A meeting of the Baseball League will be held on Saturday night to decide about the Grand Falls trip.

IVORY.
He looked like a wonder in spring. He threw to the bags like a shot. The kid had a cracker-jack wing; And he gobbled up drives piping hot.

But the majors gave him his release. Now he plays in the bushes instead. He was clever and neat with his hands and his feet. But he played bush-league ball with his head. His speed got applause from the stands. His pep and his vim were a treat. He had a nice pair of hands; And his hitting was awfully sweet; But he drifted away to the sticks. When it seemed that his job was a dud. For he did the right thing at the wrong time, by jing. And he pulled the wrong thing in a pinch. He looked like a Malsel for speed. The scribbles wrote, "He hits 'em like Cobb." But his attic was vacant, indeed. He was comical up in the knob. The boss tried him out for a while. But at last had to send him back home. In a physical way that bird surely could play. But he carried an Ivory Dome.

Prospero Back From the North.

The S.S. Prospero, Capt. A. Keen, arrived back from Griquet and inter-vening ports at 11 a.m. to-day. Beautiful weather was experienced throughout the entire round trip. She brought these saloon passengers:—J. Pynn, A. Cramm, J. Marks, E. Patoy, E. Elliott, F. James, E. Knight, J. Norris, E. Robinson, G. Massey, J. Winsor, W. Giles, C. Small, J. Crowther, F. Roberts, H. Parly, A. Colbourne, S. Tucker, A. Hodges, T. Shave, Corp. Hawke, L. Blundon, J. Pinsen, F. Godden, H. Pike, D. M. Baird, N. Morris, H. Brooks, Roy, Scully, H. Brookings, Misses Neudley, Lane, Rideout (2), Knight, Taylor, Strong, Mursell, Clarke, Osbourne, Pike, Anker, Osmond, Poveridge, Tucker, Pickett, Dwyer, Penny, Whelan, Davis, Moore, Kree, House, Barbour, Drover, Barbour, Burden, Harris, Diamond, Miles, Morris, Rea, Froude, Campsey, Crocker; Mesdames Milley, Stewart, Whitehorn, Ford, Crowther, Whitehorn, Hann, Colbourne, Tucker, Stone, Taylor, Moore, Hunt, Kean, Morrison, Mumford, Colton, Diamond, Milley, Brooks, Davidson, North, Crocker, Murphy, and 80 in steerage.

Royal Visit to the Nfld. Hospital Ward.

At the meeting of the Committee of the St. John Ambulance Association held yesterday afternoon in the Chief Justice's Chambers, the President, Sir William Herwood, read a letter received from Lord Ranfurly informing the Committee that the Queen recently visited the St. John's Hospital at Etaples and inspected the Newfoundland Wards. Her Majesty afterwards lunched at the Hospital with Lord Ranfurly and expressed her great approval of everything. This hospital is said to be second to none in its medical and surgical appliances and in its treatment of the sick and wounded.

Serious Shortage of Salt North.

Many Fishermen Forced to Cease Catching Fish.
By the coastal steamer Prospero which arrived this morning, we learn that there is a decided improvement in the codfishery north, especially along the French Shore and in White Bay where the voyage was very slack during the trapping season, but this encouraging news is counteracted by the knowledge that there is practically a famine in salt in the French Shore region. One gentleman informs us that there was not an ounce of salt at St. Julien's. There was an abundance of fish, but operations had to be discontinued, owing to the direct want of the curing article. Other places we hear, are nearly as bad. At the Grand Etaples hook and liners were getting all the fish they wanted when the Prospero was there, but the salt supply was very limited. There also. In consequence of the salt scarcity, we are told, some thousands of dollars worth of fish rotted.

Did Well on Fresh Bait

A number of fishermen who were short of bait were given a supply free and an abundance of chopped ice to keep it fresh, at the cold storage plant yesterday afternoon. Three men from Spout Cove, Conception Bay, who reached this port yesterday in a small motor boat remained on the grounds all last night and this morning returned to port hauling for eleven hundred pounds of fish, for which they received 2½ cents a pound. Together with what they received for the fish they netted slightly over $20. The main cabin and deck houses of the Desaix have been converted into sleeping and eating compartments fitted with electric light and other modern conveniences. This is chiefly being used by outport fishermen who are selling their fish to the cold storage plant.

Poor Football.

Stars and B. I. S. Play to a Draw.
The worst exhibition of League football for the season was dished out last evening by the Stars and B. I. S. The result was one goal for each team. Neither the game nor the official handling of it would do credit to a kindergarten. There was very little, if any, combination evident during the game.
The players were:—
STAR—Walsh, goal; Sullivan, Hartney, backs; Kavanagh, W. W. Duggan, halves; B. Hart, McGrath, Bell, Power, Evans, forwards.
B. I. S.—Whelan, goal; J. Kavanagh, T. Duggan, backs; Brown, J. Kavanagh, Simms, halves; Brien, St. John, Devine, Whelan, McGrath, forwards.
Referee—T. Evans.
The sanitary arrangements for the accommodation of baseballers, cricketers and footballers on St. George's Field is, to say the least, deplorable, and would be a disgrace even to an uncivilized country. We would urge a visit to the place by the Public Health Officer, and other strong advocates of the abolition of disease.

Victims of Motor Tragedy Buried This Afternoon.

The remains of Mrs. Ethel Chafe and her 3-year old son, victims of Sunday's motor tragedy, were coffined by Undertaker Collier yesterday and conveyed to their late home at the Goidels, where interment takes place at 3.30 o'clock this afternoon. The mother was placed in a beautiful casket and the child in a white coffin. Quite a number of people from the city, friends of the Chafe family, drove out to attend the funeral.

Burglary Insurance.

The Burglary Insurance Underwriters' Association of New York, because of the increase in the number of burglaries in the city, has resolved that an increase in premiums is necessary, and the new rates will become effective on September 1. It is calculated that the result will be that merchants and others concerned will have to pay about a million dollars a year more than has been the rule in the past. The situation suggests a weakness in the policy, either in efficiency or number. The amended charges begin at $40 a thousand, and decline as the size of the policy grows, to $10 a thousand. Even the latter sum is large for protection from loss of property by robbery in a civilized community.

Presentation to Postal Official.

On Saturday afternoon Mr. John W. Hayes, clerk of the Parcel Post Department of the G. P. O., was the recipient of an illuminated address and a handsome smoking outfit from his co-workers in that department. Mr. Hayes has resigned his position at the G. P. O. in order to take up a more lucrative one at the new cold storage plant in the West End. In the absence of Mr. J. W. Kinsella, Superintendent, Mr. W. F. Coady read the address and presented Mr. Hayes with the useful gift. The recipient, who was taken by surprise, was deeply touched and in making a reply thanked the donors for their encouraging words and the gift, both of which he would always cherish. Ex-Pte. Stanley Garland, a Gallipoli veteran, who since his return has been employed at the stamp window, replaces Mr. Hayes. Before enlisting "Stan" was employed as assistant local despatcher in the Parcel Dept.

The Gas Range!

The Gas Range means comfort for the housewife; shorter kitchen hours for her, and a cleaner kitchen. It is a great mistake to think that cooking with gas is expensive. Whenever a woman becomes used to gas for cooking, thoughts of a coal or wood stove fill her with gloom. A gas range is so much easier to operate, so efficient for all kinds of cooking, and so much cleaner, that the idea of going back to the old style methods is decidedly unpleasant. Yet in winter many housewives think they must use a coal or wood stove, because there is no other way of heating the kitchen. "THERE IS ANOTHER WAY AND IT IS FAR BETTER THAN THE OLD. THE CLOW GAS STEAM RADIATOR WAY. may23,tf"

The Purchase of Titles.

Under the above heading, the Toronto "Christian Guardian" says:—To the ordinary Canadian the recent debate in the House of Lords on the purchase of titles makes very strange and disagreeable reading. It was freely admitted that titles were purchasable, and one peer said that he had been approached by a gentleman who wanted to know if £25,000 would go as far toward securing a title if presented to a hospital as it would if given to the party himself. He was informed that in the case of the hospital the title was its own reward, and so the hospital got nothing. But the man got the title. Lord Curzon actually argued in favor of this method as tending to democratize the peerage. If the price were only made low enough it would certainly be the end of the peerage. We notice that in the Liberal convention in Winnipeg a resolution was adopted opposing all hereditary titles in Canada and all other titles except for military and naval service. We think this resolution expresses the view of probably three-fourths of the voters in Canada. The ordinary Canadian has not much use for titles, and we think he is wise.

NOT IN STOCK

I long for peace, for balmy peace; I'd like to see the scrapping cease. I asked the kaiser if the boon of peace would reach us pretty soon. "We have no peace in stock," he said, and wiped some carnage from his head. "We used to keep such goods on hand, until we found there's no demand. We have none, be it understood, but here is something just as good." With that he jabbed me with a spear and winged me in my starboard ear. I called on half a dozen things, who deal in gore and kindred things, and asked if they had peace for sale, and always heard the same whole wail. "There's absolutely no demand for peace, in bulk, in crates or canned. We strive to keep abreast the times, we have on hand all standard crimes; we can deliver at your door the latest novelties in gore. For winter goods we're making room, and closing out our stock of doom; if you desire a dead man's bone, just call us up by telephone. But peace! It's strictly out of date; we can't afford to pay the freight; we couldn't sell it if we would—but here is something just as good." With that before I could escape, they shot me up with slugs and grape. You cannot buy a pound of peace in any market from Cork to Greece.

Another Patriotic Exhibition Mooted.

To augment further the football receipts for the Patriotic Fund, we learn that a match will be played about a fortnight hence between the Championship team of the League for this season and a picked city team of "has-beens." The latter will include men who have been out of the game as long as sixteen years. No doubt the old guard will give the youngsters a lively time of it and incidentally give the onlookers the worth of their money.

Here and There.

Miss Candler, an old resident of this town, passed away on Saturday morning. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon.
Another load of coal arrived to R. D. McRae & Sons last week. This firm is making every effort to supply the public with coal, and all who can should put in their winter's supply, and in that way they will allow this enterprising firm to stock their stores for the winter, which will be a great benefit to those who are unable to put in a big stock now. That would be one way to be patriotic.
Collectors will soon call on our people for contributions for the Cot Fund. Let us hope, and we feel sure they will, meet with a grand response from the people as they did last year for this very worthy cause.

Patriotic Concert At Topsail.

The annual concert, promoted by a number of young ladies who are summing at that resort, will take place in the L. O. A. Hall at Topsail to-morrow evening. The programme, which is an elaborate one, is in charge of Miss Jean Strang, and some of the leading artists of the city will take part. The last success of this year's promises to be no exception. The proceeds are for patriotic purposes.
