MOSLEM UPRISING FEARED.

Arabs and Turks May Join Forces -- Sensational Reports From Ireland--Forty-two Mexican Miners Missing in Eldorado Fire -- Paris to Increase Bachelors Tax -- Prince Ready For Australian Tour.

NEAR EAST TROUBLE SERIOUS.
LONDON, Mar. 12. Earl Curzon's speech on the Turkish problem, made in the House of Lords yesterday, and other official and unofficial statements on the subject, are generally regarded as showing that the Near East tangle is quite serious and is causing the authorities some anxiety, an anxiety increased by complications threatened in connection with Syria and Mesopotamia. The shadow of Indian and Moslem opinion darkens the problem, and it is believed will influence the counsels of the Allies more than is always immediately apparent. The suggestion that the employment of force against the Turks might excite general hostility in the Musselman world is regarded as one that cannot safely be ignored. In some quarters the feeling prevails that there is danger, if the Turks are pressed, that they may immediately be joined by the Arabs.

MEXICAN MINE HORRORS.
MEXICO CITY, Mar. 12. Forty-two of one hundred and thirty miners, who were caught in the main shaft of the El Dorado mine at Pachuca, in the State of Hidalgo, were still unaccounted for to-night, thirty hours after the fire had broken out in the shaft. The mine was sealed to-day for twenty hours, for the purpose of smothering the flames. It will be opened on Friday, when the workings will be explored and an attempt made to rescue the missing men, although there is small hope of finding them alive.

TROUBLE IN IRELAND.
MONTREAL, Mar. 12. A cable to the Montreal Star from London says that the Irish correspondent of the Daily Graphic telegraphs that big guns are arriving in Dublin and that the streets are being patrolled by armored cars. Excitement is reported to be running high. Police to-day raided the residence of Mrs. Eamonn De Valera, wife of the Sinn Fein leader, in search for Countess Markievitz, Sinn Fein Member for Parliament for St. Patrick's division of Dublin. They were unsuccessful, however, in their quest. It is stated that the police mistook a cousin of Mrs. De Valera from London for the Countess in disguise.

BACHELORS' TAXES.
PARIS, Mar. 12. A supplementary tax on the incomes of bachelors has been approved by the finance committee of the Chamber of Deputies. The income tax bill provides a scale of from six to forty per cent.

GOOD FOR BILLY.
SYRACUSE, Mar. 12. Billy Sunday announced here to-day that he is ready to run for the office of President, and has already picked his Cabinet. He has slated "Ma" Sunday for the office of Secretary of State.

CURTAILING LUXURIES.
OTTAWA, Mar. 12. Measures to curtail the importation of luxuries, it is rumored here, may be a feature of the next budget proposals. There has been some discussion of the matter, it is understood, but so far the Government has reached no decision. Reports from Washington that the Government is contemplating an embargo on the importing of non-essentials as stated to-day has reached no such definite conclusion, and in any event any action decided upon would not be announced before the budget is submitted to Parliament.

VICEROY HOMEWARD BOUND.
OTTAWA, Mar. 12. The Duke of Devonshire left the capital to-day by special train for St. John, N.B., sailing from that port on Saturday on board the steamship Empress of France for England. His Excellency is accompanied by Lady Rachel and Lady Ann Cavendish, Miss Cavendish, his niece, and Lady Helen Ballie Hamilton, Captain, the Earl of Haddington and Captain Wallace. His Excellency hopes to return to Canada early in May. The Duchess has been in the Old Country for some time past.

MAID OF LA HAYE.
NEW YORK, Mar. 12. Captain Hays and five men of the crew of the British three-masted schooner Maid of La Haye, arrived here to-day on board the White Star Line steamship Ardiatic from Southampton. On Mar. 10th about 750 miles east of Sandy Hook the Ardiatic sighted the distress signals of the schooner and bore down on her, launched a life boat, took off six men and set fire to the wreck. The schooner was bound from St. John's, Nfld., for Bahia.

WHEAT VACCINATION.
CAMBRIDGE, England, Mar. 12. Farmers may soon be able to make their seed wheat vaccinated against rust and other troublesome diseases before they plant it. Tests of botanists of Cambridge University are said to have shown the possibility of breeding disease-proof plants and immunizing wheat, oats, barley and potatoes.

FLOOD FOLLOWS TORNADO.
BRANSON, Mo., Mar. 12. Flooded streams to-day made further menace to life and property in South Missouri, where yesterday a tornado killed at least thirteen persons, injured a number of others and did property damage as yet unestimated.

Nature's Greatest Washers

The sea washes the world—Pears' Soap washes its inhabitants!

For over a century, Pears' has been making its way round the world. Ask for it in your local store; it is there! From the Cape to Cairo, in the bazaars of India, throughout Australia, Canada, the U.S., and South America Pears' has made its way with civilization, — on merits!

Pears' Soap is transparent because it is pure; it is the most economical soap because "it wears but does not waste." It cleanses and purifies the skin and freshens up body and mind.

Pears'

is not heavily scented. Its delicate perfume comes from pure natural ingredients; the difference is important,—it means again that Pears' soap is pure.

First Doctors Then a Skin Specialist— Then a bottle of D.D.D.

I will consider it a favor if you will allow me to add my testimonial to the many hundreds you no doubt have in praise of the great results effected by the D.D.D. Prescription. I, as a sufferer for two years with eczema on the legs and ankles, I tried three or four different doctors and none of them did me any good. I got tired of trying their remedies. I then went to a skin specialist but he was no better than they. I was reading the Sunday paper and happened to see your ad. I am very glad that I did.

ENTERED HOSPITAL.—Mrs. Ronora Walsh, of St. Mary's, mother of Constable Walsh, entered the General Hospital to-day for an operation for internal trouble.

Editor Evening Telegram. Dear Sir—I have just read the letter of your correspondent "A" in today's issue and can vouch for the correctness of his contention that the S.S. "City of Halifax" was originally so named and subsequently, upon her acquisition by Baine and Johnston, re-named "Mac-Mac." The "Monticello" was never here under any other name. She was here, if I remember aright, two springs ago and was lost on returning to her home port after the seal fishery of the year she was lost. The "City of Halifax" was a sister ship of the "City of Durham" in name only, as the ships were very dissimilar in every respect. When the Inman Line contracted for the Nfld.-Halifax fortnightly mail service, they bought the iron boat "City of Durham" for the Summer Service and built the "City of Halifax" wood—for the Winter Service. She was later lost as stated.

When the Allan Line took up the Halifax Winter Service they built the Newfoundland. All the Inman Line boats were named after cities—hence the similarity in names of the Halifax and Durham. When the American Steamship Co. was formed in New York about the year 1900 it took over all the Inman boats and cut the "City" off their names—"the City of Paris" and "City of New York" being subsequently known as the Paris and New York. This Company built the "St. Paul" and "St. Louis" to rival the Paris and New York, but it is generally conceded they failed to do so. The writer has a special reason for being very familiar with the Inman liner "City of Brussels" the crack liner of her day, and a remarkably handsome and seaworthy vessel.

Scapa Tragedy.

GERMAN PRISONER SHOT—BRITISH SEAMAN ACQUITTED.

A trial for murder with some unusual features, inasmuch as it arose out of the war, took place in the High Court at Edinburgh on Feb. 8, before Lord Anderson and a jury. The accused, James Woolley (20), a British seaman, was charged with having shot and killed a German prisoner of war, on June 23 and 24, 1919, on board the U.S. Resolutions, then stationed at Scapa Flow, discharged a loaded rifle at Kuno Eversberg while a prisoner of war on board the Resolutions, and shot and murdered him. Capt. A. H. Alington, Ewhurst, Surrey, said he was captain of the ship when the incident took place. On June 23 last they had about 30 prisoners on board from the German cruiser Frankfort. On the morning of June 24 the witness received a report as to the shooting. The two officers reported they could not find out who fired the shot. A very thorough search was made, but no one was found near the spot where the shot had been fired. Shortly afterwards the ship went to Invergordon to refit, and afterwards about 10 of the men, all youngsters, did not return at the end of their leave. Ultimately the accused was arrested at Leyland as a deserter. Nothing whatever was ascertained during the inquiries about the shooting to involve Woolley. He was first implicated at the second Court of Inquiry at Weymouth on September 1 or 2, when an able seaman named Berry said something which directed suspicion against Woolley. Up to the moment of the desertion his character was spotless from a service point of view. Lord Anderson, in charging the jury, said that at a time when Great Britain and her Allies were demanding from Germany the surrender of war criminals, it was necessary that they should have clean hands in this matter, and the jury should do their duty and not evade it by reason of the fact that the accused was a British sailor and the dead man a German. The jury, who were absent for about half an hour, returned a unanimous verdict of not proven. The prisoner, who burst out weeping when the verdict was announced, was discharged from the bar.—Glasgow Weekly Herald.
