Suspected Fenian Outrage in Dublin.

Dublin, Nov. 2.
A fearful act was committed on the 2nd inst., in Dublin. It appears that police-constable Kenny, 103 A, was on duty on the quay, when he met a suspicious-looking fellow with a bundle under his arm. The constable attempted to ascertain the contents of the bundle, upon which the ruffian pulled a revolver out of his pocket and deliberately fired at the policeman, the shot taking effect in the centre of the chest. At the instant Sergt Kelly came up on hearing the report, and attempted to arrest the assassin. He, too, was fired at, and likewise dangerously wounded in the chest. The murderer then made off, and despite the efforts of the police, who made strict search in the houses in the locality, succeeded in making his escape. The wounded men were at once conveyed to Mercer's Hospital where they were attended by Mr. Bucher, senior surgeon of the institution, but the injuries were found to be such as almost to preclude the possibility of their recovery. Sergeant Kelly, who is a native of Navan, has been 17 years in the force, and was an efficient officer. Kenny was nearly three years in the service, and was a native of Monasterivan. A Roman Catholic clergyman was hastily summoned, and administered to the unfortunate men the last rites of their church. The bullets have not been extracted from either of the wounded men, the medical attendants not deeming it judicious to do so, as, under present circumstances, no good could result therefrom.

Great Cure of Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia in Canada.

Messrs. Young & Chamberlain, Sirs—Having proved within my own family that there is at last a medicine that will indeed cure Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, I am induced to make this statement, under oath, which I do certify that I have been sorely afflicted for the last three years, according to the Doctors' statements, with Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia. I had a feeling of sinking and vague uneasiness about the stomach, worse than pain, and occasional pain, occasional pain, drowsiness, constipation, uneasiness in the right side, headache, a poor appetite, &c., and was greatly reduced in strength. Hearing your new Indian remedy, the Great Shoshonees Remedy, spoken of so highly, I tried a bottle with your Pills, from these bottles, using the Pills, and I find that I have quite recovered. I eat hearty without pain or uneasiness. I am well and have pleasure in attending to my business. The doctor remarked to me I was looking much better. I told him that the Great Shoshonees Remedy was doing it. I have recommended the Remedy in several cases, and it has invariably given good satisfaction, and I am strongly recommended it to all afflicted as I was.

Sworn before me at Concession, C. W., this 2nd day of March, 1867.
