London, Friday, August 31.

—Insanity is increasing in Canada, according to the doctors. By the evidence of road reformers, insanity results from bad roads. Some roads during the winter would set a very strong minded man crazy.

—The Galt Reporter (Conservative) concedes that the chances are in favor of Sir John Thompson and the high tax system being defeated at the next general election. It is a fearful confession, but the indications support the candid view.

—The mighty have fallen! The great and only Nicholas Flood Davis no longer finds favor with his constituents in the district of which the classic city of Medicine Hat is the capital. At that place, on Wednesday night, a vote of confidence in Mr. Davis was defeated.

—Hon. Wilfrid Laurier, Mr. Hyman, M.P., and party have been invited to participate in the great Labor Day demonstration at Winnipeg on Monday next. The invitation has been accepted. Hon. Oliver Mowat has also accepted an invitation to take part in the demonstration of Toronto workmen on the same day. The veteran Premier will address the assemblage along with Lieut.-Gov. Kirkpatrick.

—Gladstone's withdrawal from the representation of Middleham in the British House of Commons, left Col. Wauchope, the Conservative candidate, a very formidable competitor for the seat. The prospects of the Liberal nominee have now been improved by the withdrawal of Col.
 Wauchope, who takes the command of a battalion of the Black Watch Regiment, and is thus precluded from seeking political honors.

—The high tax advocates of Canada have set up a ready made editorial manufactory in Toronto, and are sending out to the country papers "withering arraignment" of Hon. Wilfrid Laurier, Sir Richard Cartwright, Hon. David Mills and other advocates of trade freedom. The animus against Sir Richard is the more marked.
 How "spontaneously unanimous" is the Conservative press on the necessity for keeping the combine tariff intact!

—The Liberals of Bothwell will hold a demonstration at Forhan's Grove, half a mile north of Wallaceburg, on Sept. 4.
 Among the speakers expected are: Sir Richard Cartwright, M.P., Hon. David Mills, M.P., Wm. Patterson, M.P., H. W.
 Allan, M.P., Arch Campbell, M.P., W. D.
 Balfour, M.P.P., and T. L. Pardo, M.P.P.
 Parties of eight persons traveling from London or any station on the Grand Trunk Railway, can obtain return tickets for a fare and a third, and parties of 50 and over, can obtain return tickets at a single fare. It is understood that the C. P. R. and other lines will accord similar facilities.

—The Mayor of Chicago has received a letter from Charles Stouter, Colombo, Ceylon, which contains the suggestion of a model method for disposing of the sewage question of that city. Mr. Stouter describes his plan thus:

"At the junction of the main sewer and the river I propose the construction of an inclosure and the rearing in it of crocodiles and alligators to serve as scavengers—a service which from the fact of their being omnivorous, I am convinced they are eminently qualified to render."

He describes the nature of the inclosure which he recommends, and concludes:

"In the course I suggest the sewage which is now waste material or worse, a source of serious danger, would be converted into the means of subsistence of a class of reptiles yielding a most valuable hide, for which for a variety of purposes, the demand will, I think, be unlimited and yield a splendid revenue. When the hide becomes available it should be cured and sold, and I shall expect a liberal commission on the proceeds. Meanwhile, I leave it to the generosity of the council of one of the largest and wealthiest cities in the world to reward the idea itself according to its sense of value."

Perhaps the London aldermen may look with favor upon Mr. Stouter's scheme as an alternative to an intelligent system of sewage. But they could never go into the business without sending an investigating committee to Ceylon to investigate the habits of the crocodile and the alligator in their native lair! Could Ald. Taylor, Dreaney, Shaw and Garratt be prevailed upon to take the entire matter in hand?

THE VANDERBILT LINEN WASH- ING.

Our United States contemporaries are very much concerned over the well-defined report that W. K. Vanderbilt, one of the richest men of the world, and his wife have fallen out, and are living apart, if not making arrangements for procuring a divorce. The hubbub which has arisen over this domestic affair is the penalty that comes to those who are rich. If the Vanderbilts were only moderately wealthy, and had to work for their living, like the large majority of us, their family dirty linen would either be washed in private or little heard of beyond the neighboring fence corners. The penurious market gardener, whose hard earned savings gave the Vanderbilts their first lift towards affluence, could have quarreled with his frau a hundred times a day, and could have sent her home to her mother on the occasion of every family disagreement, and the New Yorkers of three quarters of a century ago would have heard nothing of it. But the elder Vanderbilts had more sense than to take any step which would retard his progress towards amassing the fortune on which he had set his heart. Perhaps if the present generation of Vanderbilts had been compelled to work as hard as old Cornelius was forced to toil, they would have found it easy to patch up their differences. There is nothing that more promotes human trouble or magnifies domestic differences than idleness in the household.

William K. Vanderbilt had a start of a different sort. In 1878 he married the woman with whom it is now asserted he is hopelessly at loggerheads. She was a southern beauty, of what is known as "blue blood," but of very limited fortune. He was the son of the richest man in New York, and the prospective heir to at least $60,000,000, which came to him on the death of his father a few years since and which has since been greatly added to.
 The young couple began housekeeping in the palatial residence at Fifth avenue and Fifty-second street, New York, which cost $3,000,000. It is on the corner above the Vanderbilt twin brown stone mansions, built by William H. A few years later he built the marble summer home at Newport, which cost $1,000,000 and which he gave to his wife. But that extravagance was not enough. The Vanderbilts have a yacht that cost several hundred thousand dollars and many thousands of dollars annually for maintenance, and they uphold establishments in Paris, in Scotland and elsewhere.

If the reports now circulated are correct, all these riches have not brought either contentment or domestic happiness to this man and his wife. Perhaps it was scarcely hoped that they would have that effect.
 There are men and women in every rank of life who entertain the idea that wealth is everything. Men imagine that if they can get their sons to wed a rich girl and settle down, happiness will come as a matter of course. Women there are who desire, as the one thing needful, that their daughter shall marry a rich man. He may have the deserved reputation of a rake. He may have dissolute habits, and be altogether unworthy of the respect, not to say love, of a good girl. It suffices some women that he has plenty of money. They hope that their daughter will have influence enough to reform him and keep him straight. This is an altogether fallacious view. In too many cases do all parties to the contract live to regret the match. If the reported Vanderbilt family rupture tends to make parents place less value on length of purse and more on character, less on ostentatious displays of wealth and more on genuine affection, it will not be without some good effect.

THE BATTLE GOES ON.

Hon. W. L. Wilson, the Democratic senator who led the United States House of Representatives in its attack on protection, has been unanimously renominated by his constituents in West Virginia. The Democracy, he affirmed, would have fulfilled its pledge to the electors in full but for the overwhelming influence of the trusts and combines—particularly the sugar trust, which, by the way, has not enjoyed as great advantages at the expense of the people as has the Canadian sugar combine. There is, Mr. Wilson affirms, a brighter side to the picture. Here it is:

"With all its manifold failures, its final retention of many protective duties, its objectionable sugar schedule, and its excessive duties on cottons and woollens and metals, the new bill carries in it very substantial relief to the people, and must be accepted as substantial beginning of thorough and progressive tariff reform. It means cheaper clothing, cheaper tools, cheaper pottery, and many other necessaries for the people. It means freer and larger commerce with those nations that buy our farm products, and consequent larger and better markets for our farmers.
 It means a transfer of some of the burdens of government from what goes out for the daily purchase of the necessities of life to that which comes in over and above the amount needed for such purchases. If we denounce some of its duties and rates, let us remember that they are much lower than the duties and rates of the McKinley bill yet enemies in a Democratic bill. But as the President well said, we have gained a vantage ground from which we shall continue to shell the camp of monopoly. The day of mad protection is over in this country; McKinleyism will disappear as a dark and hideous blight from our statute books. The fight will go on, not, may be, in such a general engagement and protracted struggle as we have just passed through, but that steady and resistless pressure that will take one after another of the strongholds of privilege, until all shall disappear before the advance of public opinion and public emancipation."

That is the way to talk. No question can be settled till it is settled aright. The privileged ones everywhere may make up their minds as to that.

—It cost the Dominion Government $8,993,824 to collect $38,168,608, its revenue, last year, or 24 per cent. Our tax masters come high under the present regime at Ottawa.

ARE THE DYNAMOS TO BLAME?

A correspondent of the New York Sun asserts that the unprecedented drought which has prevailed in various parts of this continent can only be ended if the Governments order the stoppage of the dynamos. If this were done for 48 hours, he says, there would be an abundant rainfall. The experiment would be worthy of trial, if there were a prospect of its succeeding. Though the correspondent asserts that the dynamos are to blame, because "they keep the atmosphere so continuously surcharged with artificial electricity that it dissipates the humidity by decomposing," we cannot lose sight of the fact that in Great Britain, where electricity is also much in use in one form or another, they have had far more than enough of rain during the summer.

VERITIES.

...."Along the banks of the Athabasca River, in the muskies," says Mr. Robertson, inspector of steamboats in the Hudson Bay region of the Northwest, "a kind of coal tar lies on the surface in large deposits.
 At places it can be procured in a perfectly clear state. Black, liquid and strong smelling, the people boil it down and use it for tarring their boats. When boiled it solidifies like ordinary coal tar." There must be petroleum deposits in that region.

....France is crippled with soldier-keeping, bureaucracy, red tape, in the con-session of Max O'Rell.

....Col. Ingersoll, the free thinker, denies that he justifies the suicide. That is well.
 The colonel has enough sins to answer for without adding indorsement of self-murder to the number.

....Do you "bike" or do you "trike"?

EVERY TEN YEARS.

(Toronto Mail.)

Competition is the life of politics. Conservatives claim credit for the Colonial Conference, but the Liberals propose to outdo them in such displays of loyalty.
 Mr. Mills, of Bothwell, insists now that there shall be a Colonial Conference every ten years.

A CHINESE HORROR.

Flower Boats on the Canton River Afire—1,000 People Perish.

HONG KONG, Aug. 31.—A terrible fire has occurred on the Canton River. A flower boat caught fire and the flames spread rapidly until hundreds of those caught were destroyed and at least 1,000 natives perished in the flames. The flower boats were moored stern to stern in rows and large numbers of natives lived upon them.
 The spread of the conflagration from one boat to another was so rapid that the unfortunate Chinese had no time to cut them off, and a strong wind materially helped to increase the fierce fire.

Many hundreds of persons on board the flower boats leaped overboard and were drowned, while several hundred others remained on board the doomed craft and perished in the flames.

George Brown's Sister Dead.

TORONTO, Aug. 31.—Mrs. Jane Lyon Mackenzie, eldest sister of the late Hon.
 Geo. Brown, died in this city on Wednesday. Her remains were this morning taken to New York for interment, deceased having been a resident of that city for over 50 years.

Brave White Caps.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Aug. 31.—Mrs. Sarah Henderson, keeper of a hotel at Agency Ford, was forcibly taken away from home by twelve white cappers last night, and after being whipped with hickory switches was warned to leave the town at once. The cappers gave no reason for their act. The woman has borne a good reputation.

Better Times in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 31.—It is estimated by Joseph Gruenbut, statistician of the health department, that three-fourths of the working people who were out of employment a year ago are now earning wages. He bases his estimate on the reports made by the factory inspectors.
 About 100,000 persons were out of work last summer, and 75,000 of them are now employed.

Still Record Breaking.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—The Conqueror Campania, which cleared the bar outside of New York at 1:50 p.m., Aug. 25, passed Daunt's Rock at 5:34 o'clock this morning, having made the passage in 5 days 10 hours and 47 minutes, breaking the record by about 1 hour and 13 minutes. The daily runs of the Campania were 466, 513, 454, 511, 505, 365. The Campania made the passage in October, 1893, in 6 days 12 hours and 7 minutes, which established the record between the bar, New York, and Daunt's Rock.

Counterfeiters in Windsor.

WINDSOR, Ont., Aug. 31.—A counterfeiter's den was discovered yesterday.
 Edward Ryan, a painter and paper-hanger formerly of Toronto, and W. Weaver, a man of general work employed by Sol. White, and claiming to come from near Glenora, are in jail charged with manufacturing spurious coin. The two men roomed together. In their room were found mould plates, plaster of paris, metal, a melting pot and some counterfeit American silver dollars and quarter-dollars.
 Neither dollars nor quarters were good imitations. It is believed the men experimented at the house and have a more complete outfit somewhere in town and that they have pals in Detroit, where Ryan is said to have been disposing of all he made.

The great lung healer is found in the excellent medicine sold as Pickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It soothes and diminishes the sensibility of the membrane of the throat and all coughs, colds, hoarseness, pain or soreness in the chest, bronchitis, etc. It has cured many when supposed to be far advanced in consumption.
